Our Mailing List.

Under the pressure of work, we have not yet been able to revise our mailing list, and consequently there are some errors on our printed labels. In a few days the matter will be attended to and the necessary alterations made. Those persons who have paid in adcredit for the Watchman and Southron.

We have been so unaccustomed to such a some papers may fail to be sent. The neglect | mie Monaghan. ed ones will do us a service if they will notifyus of any slights in this direction.

A New Post Office.

We have learned through Dr. E. J. Rembert that a new Post Office was estalished in the Sanders neighborhood on July 1st, known us a visit last Saturday, as the representative as Rembert's, the route is from Providence to of the wholesale drug house of W. Jail News. Last week the following named prisoners were allowed once more to breath the air of -eedom : Jeff Graham, Oliver Boyd, Stacey Flowers, Julia Sumter, Samuel Lee, Nero James, Fortune Nelson and Nora Jones.

There are now twelve prisoners in jail-ten from this, and two from Clarendon County.

Foul Air. An accumulation of a gas known in min ing regions as choke damp was discovered last Saturday in a well at Main and Liberty Street crossing. It created in the mind of Anthony Spann, who descended for the purpose of cleaning it out, what Prof. Lewis would call last week. a very rapid "evolution of cerebral concepts." We are happy to State that Anthony's psychological and respiratory organs were not seriously impaired by the occurrence.

A Correction. We have been requested, in behalf of the parties concerned, to correct the following statement which appeared yesterday in the Sheriff Wilder arrested on Friday afternoon last, and lodged in the County Jail, Adeline Gallachut, Mollie Johnson and Noah Jones, for assault and battery, on the Cain plantation, about 8 miles from this town. The fact is that these parties were the wit-
