John Doe, 1.70 aug. 2, 81, means that John Doe owes one dollar and seventy cents up to Aug, 2, 1881. This includes his indebtedness to both papers. In other cases, where but one paper was subscribed to, we have simply put the date of that subscription, indicating that the person owes from that date or has paid up to that

Mrs. James R. McEachern of Providence, and an infant of Mr. John Hurst, of this place, died on the 1st instant.

On last Friday Col. Robert L. Heriot, of Mechanicsville, died very suddenly. A Coroner's inquest was held and a verdict returned that death resulted from natural causes.

Mrs. Mary Barfield, known to the most of our community for her longevity, died yesterday at ten o'clock, at the home of her son, Mr. James Brown, near this place. Her hundred and fourth birth-day was on the 17th of last September.

A child of Mr. J. M. Nelson, of Stateburg died on Saturday last.

From last Tuesday to the present fire colored people are reported to have died. A little business called Mr. C. M. Hurst, Jr., to Washington, last week. Fence law or no fence law, we frequently see cattle on our streets.

Hay has been brought to town lately in vast quantities, averaging doubtless between ten and twenty thousand pounds a week. The price has been 50 cents.

Our fre-wells are almost dry, and a conflagration would have its own way. Be careful about sparks, matches and hot ashes.

One of our townsmen says the man who wins the prize at glass-ball shooting next year, will have to hit every ball.

Numbers of our citizens speak of attending the State Fair this week. Reports of several weddings fill the air. We raise no objection, and hope that all the young folks may step off. Bogardus, who allows his son to shoot a glass ball from his father's hand, is to be at the State Fair. We return thanks to those of our subscribers who, in these hard times, have paid their subscriptions. There are others whom we should like to thank. It will be a pleasant announcement to many to know that the Misses Annie and Lily | pairs of Shoes. McMahan will soon pay Sumter another visit. The receipts of cotton to date at the R. R.

Mr. Durant has informed us that he will take possession of the Sheriff's office in a day or two. After Mr. Durant has been confirmed, the first thing he will have to set about to do is, to have a gallows built upon which to hang Henry Johnson.

Mr. W. I. Harby, better known to some of our community as Walter I. Moses, who went to Texas more than a year ago, is now on a short visit to his old home. His friends and acquaintances will have the pleasure of greeting him once more. Mr. Harby says, in regard to a voung man's, chances for business success, there is no comparison between Texas
