The laying of the iron at the end of the new railroad, was commenced last week. The track is situated within a few feet of and parallel with the W. C. & A. R. R. at the Depot.

A highly respectable colored man, Isaac Leese, died very suddenly on Thursday night last. He was in the employ of Mr. Alton Moore, and is supposed to have died of epilepsy, to which he has been subject for a number of years.

A Lecture will be delivered in the Methodist Church on Wednesday evening on the evils of Intemperance, by David Tatum, a minister in the society of Friends. The speaker comes to us well recommended and his lecture will doubtless prove both interesting and instructive.

Postponement of the Engagement of Coup's Show for Sumter. We are requested by Mr. W. C. Crum, General Manager of Coup's Show to announce that on account of a change in the route by which the Show will take an engagement of a few weeks longer in Southern Georgia and Florida, the exhibition appointed for Sumter will have to be postponed until early in January of which date due notice will be given.

A Brilliant Wedding. Last Thursday evening will long be remembered by our citizens as a bright and interesting period in the matrimonial history of Sumter County. The principal parties to this unusually interesting union, were Miss Kate Richardson, daughter of Hon. John S. Richardson, and Col. D. Arcey P. Duncan, of Union, son of the late Prof. David Duncan, of Spartanburg.

The bride and groom were met at the door to catch the first glimpse, as they came in. At half-past eight o'clock, in observance of the "Old English Custom," the ushers came first, as follows: Dr. H. A. Henson and Capt. F. M. Farr; John A. Abney and Wm. E. Dick; J. M. Dick and D. B. Anderson; Chas. E. Barlett and C. Isadore Hoyt; D. A. P. Jordan and George Johnson, all of whom walked by twos, except the first two, up the right and left aisles respectively, and met in front of the pulpit, crossed over and arranged themselves opposite to where they came in. The bridesmaids next came up the aisles singly, and arranged themselves as follows: Misses Maggie Fraser, Celia Noise, Kate McMaster, Hattie McDowell, Adelaide White, Pauline Dick, Mary Lee, Kate Douglas, Gussie Solomons and Lena Cordes. Then followed the bride accompanied by her father, up the left aisle, and the groom accompanied by the bride's mother, up the right aisle. The bride was given to the groom at the altar. The Rev. Jas. McDowell, of Manning, (the bride's uncle) officiated, and at the close of the ceremony solemnized the imposing scene by invoking God's blessing on this happy couple.

After the ceremony, the bridal party with the few invited guests, consisting of Prof. W. W. Duncan, Maj. David Duncan, Mrs. Ruth McLaurin, Miss Martha Barlett, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Edmunds, repaired to "Shady Side," (the elegant country residence of the bride's father,) where everything passed off, in the true sense of the term, "as merrily as the marriage bells."

For Atlanta. Several citizens of Sumter and vicinity are thinking of making up a party to visit the Exposition at Atlanta, next week, and as there may be others who would like to avail themselves of the low rates to be secured by clubbing together, it has been suggested that all who desire to, and can go, leave their names at the office of the Watchman and Southron by next Friday Dec. 2d. The programme for next week promises to be the most interesting to the planting interest, of any yet.

Reports from various sections of the State show that the frost of last Friday was very general, and terminated the development of the top crop of cotton, which the last few weeks of unusually mild weather had so greatly favored. The damaging effects of the drought during the summer, occasioned a general prediction of failure and hard times, but numerous statistics show a very fair average crop of this important staple, which was entirely due to the late favorable weather. Corn will be scarce, but the appearance of fall oats indicates a heavy crop in the absence of a severe winter.

A variety of Nickel and Velvet, Cards and Cabinet Photograph frames, and essels, very cheap at Craig's.

"The Ruling Passion." Dick Milligan whose early youth was taken up in familiarizing himself with the internal arrangements of Albany Penitentiary, for having robbed our Post-office, and who has just recently returned to the land of his nativity, was found last Wednesday evening by Mr. Foley under the counter of Mr. W. G. Kennedy's store with his pocket full of fiddle strings, a few socks and about $1.60 in money. The police was called in, and Dick was immediately favored with a berth in the Lock-up.

Gin House Burnt. On last Friday, the 25th, the Gin House, Mill and Press of Mr. John I. Brogdon, in the Zoar neighborhood, were destroyed by fire, which was first discovered in the lint-room while the gin was in operation; but exactly how it originated is not known. There was no insurance, and the only thing saved was the Mill Stones.

Humbugged Again. I saw so much said about the merits of Hop Bitters, and my wife who was always doctoring, and never well, I concluded to be humbugged again; and I am glad I did, for in less than two months use of the Bitters my wife was cured and has remained so for eighteen months since. I like such humbugging.—H. T., St. Paul.—Pioneer Press.
