BURNED TO DEATH

Tenement Takes Heavy Toll of Children

New York, Oct. 22.-Fifteen persons, most of them children, lost their lives early today in a fire, believed by city officials to be the work of a pyromanic. The flames' swept with murderous suddenness from cellar to attic of a five story brick tenement at Lexington aveaue and One Hundred and Tenth stree; in the thickly populated East

The blaze apparently started in baby carriage under the stairs in the lower half under almost identical circumstances as the recent incendiary fire in an upper West Side apartment house, which resulted in seven deaths. So quickly did the flames spread through the building that a number of the dead were found in bed, burned or suf- lar leader in the world.
