The New York Racket is making some astonishing drives in prices this week. There is something in the list that you need. Go after it before it is gobbled up by some one else, and tell them you saw it in THE TIMES.

WANTED:—Local or traveling salesman to sell our Oils Greases, Paints, White Lead, Petrolatum, on commission or salary exclusively, or as a side line. PENN. PETROLATUM CO., Oil Refiners, Corapolis, Pa. P.

A large hotel is to be built out at Buffalo. It is to have all the modern convenience, water works, sewerage, baths, electric lights, etc. Buffalo is to be a model mill town and will put on city airs from the start.

Mr. G. Walton Whitman is a necessity to the merchants and politicians. He sells standard oil at 12½ cents a gallon. The Charleston Post, Dear Appell and The Columbia State take notice. G. Walton Whitman. It.

Rev. J. N. Isom and wife, of Kelton, Union county, have been spending several weeks at Oak Knob hotel to drink the mineral water. Brother Isom was working for the Lord at every opportunity, while he stayed here. He has just left for his home and work in Union. —Spartanburg Herald.

While Mr. J. A. Sawyer, of Union, and Mr. Carrel H. Foster, of Jonesville, compose the new law firm of Sawyer & Foster with an office at Union also at Jonesville, the firm of Hydriek & Sawyer remains as heretofore, and will transact business at their office in Union as usual.

A very large crowd went from Union to Spartanburg last Friday to see the big circus. They say one of the largest crowds ever seen in Spartanburg was there that day. It was a perfect jam inside and outside the tent. One of the riders fell from his horse during a race and was seriously injured. He was dragged out of the way and the performance continued as if nothing out of the ordinary had happened.

Another Shooting Scrape.

We learn that John Jeter, who lives on Mr. D. P. Duncan's place in Union county, got shot last Thursday morning by Tom Gist, both colored. We have been unable to learn the particulars, but from what we can gather, it seems that Jeter and his wife had a row, and he was ill treating his wife when Tom Gist, a brother of the woman, interfered and emptied a load of shot into Jeter's stomach and arms. Jeter was seriously if not mortally wounded, but was not dead at last accounts.

Negro Man Shot.

Monday two negroes living on Mr. J. E. Lindsay's plantation, on Pacolet river, in the upper portion of the county, became involved in a difficulty. Green Norris, a peaceful old negro, endeavored to make peace between the two other negroes, in doing this he received a wound from a pistol in the hands of one of the combatants, named Free. The ball entered and passed through Norris's bowels. Free is considered a bad character. Norris is in a critical condition. Name of the third party not learned.

Non de Plumes.

Some people persist in sending in communications with a fictitious signature and without their name. We have repeatedly said we will not publish such contributions unless the name of the writer is also signed to the article. It is a waste of your time and ours to send in such articles, as they will surely go to the waste basket. We have received one from "an observer" that goes the way of the rest this week. We have about as much idea of who "an observer" is as we do about when the first snow will fall. If you don't care to sign your name along with your non de plume, if you are not a regular correspondent, don't send it in.

Thoroughly Equipped.

The police of the town have been furnished by our up-to-date Mayor with electric flash light bull's eye lanterns. They are operated with one hand. They are a great invention and a useful article for the police. With one of these flash lights in one hand and a reliable Colts in the other the police are a holy terror to the doers of evil deeds. Whistles have also been furnished the police, with which they can call each other and recognize at the same time who is making the call. This has supplied a long felt need of the police.

Pretty Little Fishes.

Zemp's Pharmacy has the latest attraction. He has a fish aquarium of four departments in his store, which are very artistically arranged, containing sea weeds and plants, imitation colonial buildings and arches, and also about one hundred fish, gold fish, silver fish and the beautiful Japanese gold fish. They dart and frolic around among the plants, through the windows, doors and arches, their pretty little bodies shining in the light as they dart hither and thither. It is a pretty sight and crowds are attracted to the Pharmacy to watch the playful little fellows. The children especially delight in watching them.

Contract Given.

The contract for putting in water works and filter plant at the Buffalo mill, has been awarded to Messrs. Walton and Wagner, of Rome, Ga., this week, and work will begin as soon as the materials arrive. The system is to extend throughout the town, and each house will be equipped with these modern conveniences. A sewerage system and electric lights will also be put in at an early date. Buffalo is going to be a model mill town. There will be some 12,000 feet of piping used for the water main. Col. Walton will not be here as his time is occupied elsewhere. Mr. Wagener will put in the plant.

Wouldn't be Arrested.

Will Cole, alias the "Kid," "Boots" and possibly several other aliases, stole some money from a merchant Mr. Skelton, a few days ago and the police took up the job of running him in. He made himself scarce and kept dark, but said that he would not be arrested. But May and Austell showed him a thing worth two of that. They knew he would steer clear of them so they employed other means and he walked into the trap. But when the police made an effort to arrest him he resisted, and during the scuffle he somehow happened to get a pistol ball in his leg, then he wilted. He is not seriously injured, but the trial will be delayed a few days.

The Anvil Organized.

Mr. C. E. Girardeau, of Savannah, Ga., has been in Union two weeks organizing an assembly of The Anvil. He has succeeded in securing the required number of charter members and organized the assembly on the night of Oct. 19th, Friday. Beginning with a charter list of 23. There is a committee at work on securing a hall and the K. of P. will probably be used. The officers of the Union Assembly are as follows:
Worthy Chancellor, J. A. Sawyer; Chancellor, F. G. Austell; Dean, Rev. F. H. Shuler; Secretary, Treasurer and Collector, S. M. Rice, Jr.; E. U.; Marshall, Conquest Allen; Guardian, F. G. McHugh; Watch, J. E. Fowler; Past Chancellor, Rev. W. A. Massabeau. It is a fraternal organization with cheap rates of insurance.

McNeace-Barnhardt.

Wallace McNeace and Miss Clara H. Barnhardt were united in marriage at the Lutheran parsonage last night by Rev. L. G. M. Miller of the Lutheran church. The marriage was a complete surprise to the friends of the couple. The groom is a popular clerk in the auditor's department of the Norfolk & Western and has a number of friends. The bride is an attractive young lady and was formerly a teacher in one of the schools in this city. The young couple will make their home in this city. —The Roanoke Times, Wednesday, October 17, 1900.

Mr. Wallace McNeace is a Union boy, having only recently moved from Union to Roanoke. We wish the happy couple many years of happiness and conjugal bliss.

Death of Mrs. S. M. Rice.

Tuesday morning early the sad intelligence was received of the death of Mrs. Mary Rice at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. C. Perrin. Her death occurred at 10:30 p. m., Monday, October 23rd. She was the wife of Col. S. M. Rice, Sr., one of Union's most prominent citizens. She was the daughter of Mr. Thomas Carlisle, formerly of Union county. She was 68 years of age. She leaves a husband, five sons: Spencer M., J. G., Thomas, Hazle and Quay; also four daughters: Mrs. G. C. Perrin, Mrs. J. W. Welling, of Brazil, Mrs. Mamie McMaster, of Wimboboro, and Miss Kittie; and a host of friends to mourn her departure. She had been in feeble health for two years or more, as a result of a stroke of paralysis. She was a consistent member of the First Methodist church, of Union. She possessed a noble Christian character, and a kind, gentle and lovable disposition. In her death Union has lost a noble Christian woman. Our sympathies go out to the bereaved family in this sad hour of bereavement.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. W. A. Massabeau at the First Methodist church at 4:30 p. m., Tuesday. The remains were interred in the church yard in the presence of a host of sorrowing friends. The following pall bearers assisted in the last sad service to the departed loved one:
T. C. Duncan, C. H. Peake, D. Wallace, Maurice Moore, Wm. Culp, B. F. Arthur, E. Nicholson and P. E. Fant.

A Good Idea.

Miss Carrie Southard, one of our up-to-date teachers in Union Graded School No. 1, has introduced a new feature in her room, which strikes our fancy, and we think it was a wise thing to do. She has charge of the fifth grade, and has arranged for the scholars to open up a general correspondence with the scholars of the same grade in one of the graded schools of Boston, Mass. We think this will prove very instructive to the children of the schools at both ends of the line. The children here will write of southern life, southern style, southern crops, methods of producing same, our climatic advantages and numerous resources. In fact, will endeavor to show up our sunny south land in the best way they can. Their little northern friends will, of course, do likewise for their native land. An interest will thus be aroused and a desire will arise in these young minds to reach out and gather information. The information gathered in this manner will be lasting and beneficial. It will also develop a desire for writing correct letters, using good grammar, good punctuation and writing a good hand. As each school will, no doubt, strive to excel the other in their letters.

The first batch of these letters have already gone to the Boston school, and Miss Southard kindly allowed us to use a couple of them. We selected three from the lot; two of which appear on our first page; the other will appear next week. The subject this time seems to have been cotton, as all the letters refer principally to the planting and cultivation of the fleecy staple, and judging from the letters the little ones are pretty well up on everything pertaining to the cultivation of the fleecy staple.

Blackwell-Harmon.

Mr. Legare B. Blackwell, of Union, and Miss Annie Harmon were married at the Orphanage Chapel, in Clinton, W. Tuesday; the Rev. W. P. Jacobs, of the First Presbyterian church, performing the ceremony that united the happy couple for life.

Mr. Blackwell is a courteous and popular young man, who has made many friends in Union since he came here in the summer of 1897 to accept the position as foreman in the Allan Nicholson job printing office, which position he has since held with credit to himself and entire satisfaction to his employer. Miss Harmon is one of Clinton's most charming and accomplished young ladies, and Mr. Blackwell has our congratulations. The couple arrived in Union Wednesday night, and will make Union their future home.

We extend a hearty welcome, and wish for them a happy and prosperous journey through life, along a path strewn with the roses of health, joy and contentment, free from the thistles and thorns of misfortune and disappointment.
