FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1917.

Some time ago we advised the farmers to hold their cotton for a good price. We advise the same thing now. If you owe money, take your cotton to the bonded warehouse here and get certificates for it; take your certificates to the bank and get what money you must have. Pay your debts and wait. No man can be sure of what cotton will do, but every indication is that it will bring a much higher price.

The present price of cotton is good. There are many reasons for supposing that it will go higher later on. If you owe money, sell, or put your cotton in the warehouse and pay up. You will feel better and you will be safe and secure. If then you wish to hold for 30 cents, go to it! There is every reason for believing that cotton will go there by or before next spring. Some predict that it will go much higher.

The absurd report, put out by enemies of our country, that the government intended to commandeer the pantry supplies, taking over the contents to the use of the government is as absurd as it is false. It was a report circulated to hinder our good women in their effort to conserve food. But it will not accomplish its purpose. Even if it were true—if the government did do such a thing under the stern demands of an intolerable situation, the women of America would gladly cooperate. Anyway, Union county women would do that very thing, we feel quite sure.

YOUNG MAN, BUY LAND.

We are not in the real estate business, not at this time nor at any previous time. Nor do we anticipate going into any sort or phase of the real estate business. We can, therefore, write what we will say below without any apology and without any ulterior motive.

We say to the young men of Union and Union county: Buy land; buy and build a home. There has never been a time in the history of this country when such flattering prospects presented themselves to the small farmer. There is not much hope for the big landed estate; the owner of vast acres is faced with too serious a condition in the matter of labor. But to the young man, willing to work and with ordinary intelligence, the opening is most attractive. For the next five years everything that can be raised on the farm promises to bring good prices. A man can buy a fifty-acre farm in Union county and, if he manages wisely, he can pay for it in three years or even less, and at the same time get his living from the land. We know of one small farm this year whose owner will clear enough to pay back twice over the purchase price. It is a veritable wide-open opportunity to the man who is willing to try. Hard work? Yes, plenty of it; so is working in the mill, clerking in a store or working on the railroad. Each of these occupations work longer hours and have less of freedom and less of good prospects than those presented by the farm.

And farm lands in Union county are to be purchased at astonishingly low prices today. In less than five years the prices of today will double. This is no foolish prediction; it is a prophecy that we would be willing to stake our reputation upon. Young man, buy a small farm. Get out on it, and go to work. You will be glad you did this if you live five years more on the earth.

COMFORT BAGS FOR THE BOYS.

The Union County Equal Suffrage league packed a shipment of comfort bags for the soldiers and sent them to Atlanta for foreign shipment. The bags were khaki colored, with the United States flag on the back and contained soap, tooth brush, foot ease, vaseline, new skin, wash rags, chewing gum, handkerchiefs, socks, tooth paste, kodak films, games, needles, pins, bachelor buttons, chocolate and many other things too numerous to mention. It is hoped the boys will enjoy going through them and using them as much as the Suffrage league did making and packing them up. The ladies of Union are having a good time working for the soldiers and unless a woman wants to be horribly out of style, she dare not show her face without her knitting bag. Grand to be a soldier of Uncle Sam!

CAPTURE WIRELESS PLANT IN HEART OF SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, Oct. 2.—A wireless receiving plant, which is believed by naval officers to have been used in anti-American activities, was seized by federal officials this afternoon in the heart of San Francisco. Edward Abrahamson, a German, in whose home the plant was found, and his son, Ray Abrahamson, formerly a licensed wireless operator, were not to be found. It was reported the plant had been used in taking code messages from outside the country.

TO THE PEOPLE OF UNION AND UNION COUNTY

I am doing my bit in taking the management of an optical department, relieving two good Americans who went "to make the world safe for democracy," hence it will be impossible for me to be in Union this fall.

I thank the good people of Union and County for their past patronage. I have the names and prescriptions of the glasses I fitted for the last 18 years and if any of you don't get the satisfaction of the glasses I fitted, or if the frames are faulty, please send the glasses to me (enclosing return postage) and I will exchange the lenses, frames, or both, free or charge. If you break your glasses send them to me. Will duplicate at a great saving to you. If you come to Atlanta come to see me; I am at your command. Respectfully,

I. E. CRIMM.
