MUSIC RECITAL GIVEN AT HIGH SCHOOL

The music recital given at the high school auditorium by the pupils of Miss Beatrice Wilburn was very enjoyable to the large crowd present. The selections were of a high order and covered a wide range. The program, which was printed in yesterday's paper, was well carried out and generously endorsed, and especially pleasing was the chorus by the Rose Maids. The music committee presents a medal each year to the pupil making the highest general average and this year it resulted in a tie between Miss Elizabeth Lemmond and Miss Ellen Williams, and two medals were given. These were presented by Rev. J. F. Matheson in a very happy manner, and he expressed regret that he could not present a medal to the teacher and to every member of the class.

CHANGE IN PLACE OF MEETING

The Council of Defense meeting will be held at the High school building instead of the Edsonia. This change was made necessary because the time was changed from morning to afternoon. The meeting will be held on Monday afternoon, June 17, at 4 o'clock and the public is invited. The heads of all patriotic organizations and church societies are requested to make announcements of this meeting and urge the attendance of their members. One of the speakers will stress the sale of War Savings Stamps and everyone of the campaign workers is urged to be present. Miss Kelly, of the Children's Bureau in Washington will make an address on Child Welfare which every parent should hear.

FLAG DAY EXERCISES BY ELKS LODGE

Union Lodge, No. 1321, will hold appropriate "Flag Day" exercises in the Elks Home, at 6 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The public is invited to attend these exercises.

GERMANS GETTING THE WORST OF IT; CHEERING NEWS FROM ALL ALLIES

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, June 13.—The Germans who succeeded in crossing the Matz have been hurled back to the north bank of the river by the French, who checked the advance of the enemy toward Campagne. News from the scene tells of a tremendous battle and that west of the Oise the Germans have come to a halt for the present at least. The enemy has not renewed his attack on Courcelles-Antheville and farther east the Germans similarly have not continued to advance toward the Aronde river. The French success has driven the enemy back across the Matz. There is cheering news for the allies.

DICKERSON-DILL

On the evening of June the 8th at 9 o'clock at the residence of the bride's father, J. B. Dickerson on Second Avenue, Mr. W. W. Dill and Miss Ida Dickerson were united in marriage by Rev. J. B. Chick. Mr. Dill is a well known young man of Union and is held in high esteem by those who know him best. The bride is a beautiful young lady of a sweet disposition and charming manners. Immediately after the ceremony the many invited guests repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous feast of many good things awaited them. Miss Annie Bell Culbertson furnished music for the occasion and several attractive selections were rendered. It was indeed a very pleasant and happy marriage and may the lives of these two young people be so spent that after while they may meet and live together in the beautiful City over the river.

MISS KELLY'S VISIT TO UNION

Under the auspices of the Woman's Division of the Council of Defense, Miss Kelly of the Children's Bureau at Washington will speak in Union on Monday, June 17th, at 4 o'clock. The trustees of the High school building have kindly lent the auditorium for the meeting, and the public is cordially invited to be present. The subject of the address will be "Child Welfare," and it is one that should be of interest to every man, and woman. Other State officers who have been invited to attend this conference are: Mrs. F. Louise Mays, chairman, Greenville; Mrs. W. C. Cathcart, executive secretary, Columbia; Miss Julia Selden, educational secretary, Spartanburg; Miss Julia Irby, chairman Child Welfare, Laurens.

EXPERIENCED

The young man carefully removed the cigars from his vest pocket and placed them on the piano. Then he opened his arms. But the young girl did not flutter to them. "You," she said coldly, "have loved before."

DOTS FROM UNION

MISS L. VILLAGE
Miss Blanche Fowler is visiting friends in Clinton.
Frank Wilams of the University of South Carolina is at home during the vacation.
Mrs. Annie Henderson and daughter of Glendale is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Williams.
Rev. J. B. Bozeman attended the banquet at Furman University this week.
Rev. Bozeman preached an excellent sermon to a large congregation Sunday evening; it will pay all who wish to hear an evangelistic sermon to visit the Westside Baptist church on Sunday evening and hear Rev. Bozeman preach.
Misses Myrtle Ammons, Mamie Keisler and Jennie Vee Thackston accompanied their brother, Fred Keisler and his comrade Evans Tucker as far as Spartanburg. J. W. Moore carried them in his new car. These young men were en route to the navy.
Fred Ammons of Greenville with George Brady of Camp Sevier visited his sisters, Misses Julia and Mary Ammons.
Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Blackwell who have been on an extended visit to their sister, Mrs. J. B. Bozeman, have returned home.
Quite a number of new people are moving with us now which is very encouraging.
Dr. R. H. Ayer of Camp Wadsworth spoke for the congregation of the Westside Baptist Church Monday evening. Those who missed hearing Dr. Ayer are the losers for his speech was a good one.
As Miss Willie Hawkins brought honor to Ward Four in the recent debaters contest, so Miss Ellen Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Williams has brought us additional honor. She won one of the music medals given by the High school authorities last evening. Miss Williams is the pianist at Westside and is accomplished.
Valmar.
Donald Matheson, who has been attending Fleet School in North Carolina is at home for the holidays.
