WOMEN TORTURED

Suffer terribly with corns because of high heels, but why care now

Women wear high heels which buckle up their toes and they suffer terribly from corns. Women then proceed to trim these pests, seeking relief, but they hardly realize the terrible danger from infection, says a Cincinnati authority.

Corns can easily be lifted out with the fingers if you will get from any drug store a quarters of an ounce of a drug called freezezone. This is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. You simply apply a few drops directly upon the tender, aching corn or callus. The soreness is relieved at once and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all lift out without one particle of pain.

This freezezone is a sticky substance which dries in a moment. It just shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Tell your wife about this.

In times like these a fair lady and her lieutenant are soon parted.

AFTER YEAR'S WAIT SHE PRAISES TANLAC

Says With Confidence That "It Certainly Is Fine."

SHE KNOWS ITS VALUE

Mrs. Davis Declares Tanlac "Restored Me to Health and Strength"

"A year has passed since I first took Tanlac, and now I can say with confidence that Tanlac is certainly a fine medicine, for I know what it will do. I am glad to give this statement in endorsement of Tanlac." Says Mrs. Ellie C. Davis, of Drayton, S. C., a suburb of Spartanburg, in a statement she gave June 4th. "I took Tanlac for stomach trouble of a bad, painful form, and also I suffered from attacks of appendicitis. My nerves were bad and I suffered a lot with indigestion. I was very weak, and overwork had almost downed my health. "The Tanlac stopped the indigestion, though, and soon I was not troubled with appendicitis. Those pains in my side left, too. The medicine gave me back my appetite, strengthened my nerves and restored me to health and strength."

IMAGINARY DIALOGUE BETWEEN DUTCHMAN AND GERMAN

Amsterdam, June 30.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—An imaginary dialogue between a Dutchman and a German, published in the Telegraaf, shows the state of public opinion over the German refusal to permit Dutch ships to sail for America to bring wheat for Holland.

"Why are you always pestering me? Why don't you hold your tongue?" the German demanded.

"But why can't I have wheat for my bread?" asked the Dutchman.

"What do I care about that? Don't I send you coal?"

"Yes, but—"

"None of your impudence," retorted the German. "And what do you send me in exchange?"

"Vegetables, cheese and milk. Also meat, and a little of everything besides. And I give you credit for it, too," replies the Hollander.

"What are you complaining about, then? Be thankful that I still allow you to trade with me. I might have taken everything I wanted of you without giving you a scrap in return."

"Have you the right to do so?"

"Right? I make my own right," is the German response.

"Why should you have any wheat? Have we any wheat?"

"At least allow us to give tonnage to America in exchange for wheat."

"Certainly not. If you give tonnage you strengthen the enemy, and he who does that is my enemy also."

"And what do you do to your enemy?"

"I club him to death and take all he possesses."

"Then if I give up tonnage you club me to death, and if I don't, I starve to death?"

"I don't object," says the German. "Do I ask you to keep alive? It is we who must live; you don't matter."

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR, DOUBLE ITS BEAUTY

Try this! Hair gets thick, glossy, wavy and beautiful at once

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle of thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents.

Can we take Kerensky's word for it—that with the aid of allied money, Death on Germany's eastern front will do a Russian business?

ADDRESS BEFORE ADVERTISING CLUB

San Francisco, July 9.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—"When this war for freedom is won," said Herbert S. Houston, New York publisher, in his address today before the War Convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, "Germany must not be allowed to prepare for another war by growing rich in competition with nation whose industries she has all but destroyed in this war. That would be permitting the robber to set up business in the store he has robbed."

Mr. Houston, who is a former president of the Associated Clubs, urged the business men of the allied nations to get ready to meet the German commercial drive, which, he declared, would come after the war.

"After the tragedy of being unprepared for Germany's military fist, despite its menacing pabs and thrusts for forty years," he said, "Let us not be unprepared for the blow of Germany's commercial fist. They are both war-like fists, right and left arms of Prussia's autocratic and ruthless power."

"When this war for freedom is won, when the great day of reckoning comes, then will come the day when patriotic business in all the free nations must smite the mailed fist. It must be driven home that German business cannot be allowed to rise and prosper on the ruined industries of Belgium, of France, of Italy—yes, and of Russia—industries ruined by the mailed fist of Germany. The monstrous injustice which such a result would mean for our brave allies must be made so clear that a way-faring man, though a pro-German, would understand and heed."
