make it acceptable to all classes of readers; to fill its columns with general intelligence, the news of the day, historical ancedotes, tales of real life, poetry, light literature, humor and wit; in fact, to make it strickly a Newspaper.

"The Valley Pioneer" will advocate the commercial interest and internal improvement of the State; the building of the Savannah River Valley and Columbia and Hamburg Rail Roads. It will be independent in politics, not identifying itself withany party, but firmly opposing such measures as are injurous to the prosperity of the State and the country at large. The publisher will be ably assisted in the editorial department, which, with his experience in the Newspaper publishing business, and the extreme low rates of subscription, will make the paper a welcome visitor.
