PURSUANT to the order of the Court, I will sell the premises described in the above mentioned causes, containing one thousand acres, more or less, in one or more tracts, to be known on the day of sale in the plain thereof, on the sale-day in January next. Three Thousand Dollars of the purchase money to be paid in Cash, and also the costs. The residue on a credit of one, two and three years, with interest from day of sale to be paid annually; creditors to give bonds with good surety and mortgage of the premises to secure the purchase money, and pay for titles.
This plantation is one of the most desirable which has been offered for sale on the Greenville and Columbia Railroad since its completion. It is situated one mile and a half of Cokesbury, on both sides of the Railroad; and runs to within two hundred yards of Hodges Depot. It has a good Dwelling House upon it with convenient and necessary out buildings for planting to the extent of 20 hands. The Land is productive for up-land, and a good portion of it is in high cultivation; and as to health, no place in the whole country of South Carolina is freer from local causes likely to engender sickness. Further: The Male and Female Schools at Cokesbury are among the best in the State. These facts make said plantation to persons having the means to buy with, and children to educate, invaluable.
