Rev. R. Alexander Carroll, D. D.

We take great pride in presenting to you this week the likeness of the new Pastor of Jones Chapel A. M. E. Zion Church, who comes to us from Jacksonville, Fla., where he wrought well and gave to those people renewed energy and a renewed Church in which are many renewed members. Dr. Carroll is one of the leading ministers in the A. M. E. Zion Church; a man of great experience, having served some of the leading appointments in the connection. He was educated in the schools of his home town, Nottingham, Md., and Morgan College, Baltimore, Md. Livingstone College conferred upon him the Degree of Doctor of Divinity. He has given to the Church some of its best literature, among which is the CARROLL'S HISTORICAL CATECHISM, which is said to be the best of its kind ever produced by any man in the church, which Catechism has been recommended by the Board of Bishops and General Conference for the Local Preachers Course of Study.

The Doctor is having his second service with us Sunday, and will preach all day—morning and evening, and is asking the friends of the Church to be present. The Trustees are making a special effort to pay the interest which is now due, and every member is especially urged to be present and hear this great Gospel preacher at the live wire Church, Corner of Blossom and Sumter Streets, where you will always have a hearty welcome.

The Palmetto Leader.

The Palmetto Leader is the name of a new weekly paper destined to make its appearance in the journalistic field today—January 10th. This paper is to be edited by Atty. N. J. Frederick, of the Columbia bar. Lawyer Frederick is known South Carolina over as a writer, scholar and lawyer of great repute. We therefore, bespeak for this journal a high editorial stand in particular, a wide and useful career in general performing a service for our group in which it is in great need. We therefore welcome this new sheet in our field and wish for it unbounded success.—The Recorder and Indicator.

A Letter of Commendation.

JULIAN G. STUART, M. D.

Columbia, S. C.
 January 12th, 1925.

Mr. Geo. H. Hampton, Manager,
 My dear Mr. Hampton:
 Permit me to congratulate you and your associates on launching such a splendid news sheet as the Palmetto Leader. It is well-gotten up and is a credit not only to your office force but to the Negro race in general. To my mind it fills a long felt need in Journalism and if the policy set forth in your maiden issue is rigidly adhered to, I see no reason why it should not enjoy the full patronage of our group which it so rightfully deserves.

Yours truly,
 J. G. STUART.

Mrs. Eugene Watts left Monday for Philadelphia. She will join her husband there and motor to Greenwich, Conn, where she resides.
