

ST. LUKE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

St. Luke had lay-services on last Sunday, with Mr. N. E. Lewis, Lay Reader in charge. The services as usual were beautiful and inspiring, having its educational as well as its spiritual advantages, with appropriate music.

Sunday School under the direction of F. P. Paul, Superintendent, is in a state of progression, the lesson was beautifully discussed by those present.

There will be a Pew Rally given tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary of St. Luke's Church at which service the Rev. T. T. Pollard Rector of St. Mary Church will be present. The public is cordially invited to this service.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH

Program for Sunday, March 15th. This will mark the close of our great Revival conducted by Dr. Jeltz. He will speak four times during the day—at 10:30 he speaks to the Sunday School, and at 11:30 he will preach. In the afternoon he is speaking to women and girls over 14 only; and again at night he will deliver his farewell sermon, "The Eagle Stirring up Her Nest."

Dr. and Mrs. Jeltz have served Bethel and Columbia in an acceptable way. They have done their work well as the whole community will attest. Now let us show them in return that we appreciate their worth and service. How? Get an envelope and inclose a real complimentary offering and bring or send it to the church Sunday night. Let all Columbia, regardless of church, be represented in this "The Servant is worthy of his hire."

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday School was largely attended last Sunday. Dr. J. H. Goodwin, our Superintendent, was at his place, and making things as lively as ever. Dr. Antisdel, President of Benedict College, and Dr. P. P. Watson, State Missionary of the Negro Baptists of South Carolina, were visitors of our Sunday School. Little Miss Rudine-Javis gave a very fine summary of the lesson, she is only ten years old and her paper evoked favorable comments by both Dr. Antisdel and Dr. Watson.

The Church was crowded at 11:30 to her capacity, when the pastor presented Rev. Paul P. Watson, D. D., to the big audience to preach. Dr. Watson discussed "Missions" from the angles of Home Mission; State Mission; and Foreign Mission from the text Mark 5:16, "Go home to thy friends and tell them what great things the Lord has done for thee, and how he has had compassion upon thee." This preaching had the greatest force and spiritual sweep with which we have ever heard from Dr. Watson. Every soul went away from Zion talking of that heart-felt sermon. Dr. Antisdel made a wonderful plea for Christian education just preceding the sermon. Dr. Antisdel reviewed the wonderful achievements of Benedict College, and her contribution to the uplift of the Negroes of South Carolina and in kingdom building.

Collection amounted to $99.68.

Pastor White motored over to New Brookland in the afternoon with Lic. John Oliver. Bro. Oliver preached at 3:00 P. M. to a large and responsive audience, and also preached there at the night services. New Brookland is one of Rev. White's best churches, they are loyal to the letter and have a mind to work. Bro. L. C. Cook is the Superintendent of our S. S.; Mrs. Senia Watson is at the head of the Ladies' Church Aid.

At 7:30 Mrs. Fleda Hall Diggs, called the big congregation at the strains of the pipe organ, in a prelude, which was a march. The Arsenal Hill Emergency Club, headed by Mrs. Sarah Herriß, president, filed in and took the front seats. The officers were installed by the pastor on the platform.

Dr. White presented the Rev. J. H. Westbrooks, of Chester, a student-preacher of Benedict College, who preached a most wonderful sermon from the text: "Follow me and I will make you Fishers of Men." Young Westbrooks stirred the big audience, of 1500 people to an uncontrollable pitch of spiritual enthusiasm. Benedict College at Zion. Monday night the Sophomore Class of Benedict College, pulled off the biggest entertainment that has ever been witnessed in Columbia, it was a comedy-drama, entitled "Sue." It was educational, spiritual and there ran throughout the play a never-to-be-forgotten moral, that "most people are generally honest if given a chance." The house was packed from pulpit to the door and in the galleries were full. Miss Josie B. White, daughter of Rev. J. C. White, is due the credit for such a full house at Zion. She is a member of the Sophomore Class of Benedict, and like her father, knows nothing of the word "failure."

The Rev. T. H. Hughes, a former sanctified minister, was baptized at Zion Baptist Church last Sunday night and a vote was cast to license him to preach the same night.

Ladson Presbyterian Church.

Last Sunday was a good day. The Sunday school under the direction of Prof. C. A. Johnson, is in a splendid shape. We are hoping to bring every boy and girl in the city to a knowledge of Jesus Christ, which means in the end life eternal. Elder Joseph Pelot is still striving to build a strong class of boys, good results are already beginning to be manifest.

The pastor, Rev. I. D. Davis, preached as usual, a very good sermon last Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock, from the text Ex. 3:10, the subject was: "The Burning Bush." Music was good.

The Christian Endeavor under the presidency of Mrs. Belle Vincent is functioning nicely. The pastor preached from I Tim. 4:10 at the evening services. We had a Pew Rally with a pageant in the afternoon. Come to Ladson and enjoy with us a spiritual message next Sunday morning.

SIDNEY PARK CHURCH.

Sunday school was in full bloom last Sunday. Bro. T. H. Henry is our efficient superintendent. About 14 classes reported, with all teachers at their respective places.

At 11:00 o'clock, our pastor, Dr. W. E. Farmer preached from St. Matthew 8:1: "Speak the Word Only." He discoursed on the story of the healing of the Centurion's servant. It was indeed a wonderful sermon, filled with the fire of the Holy Ghost.

The Epworth League met at the usual hour with T. H. Morris, president. This service was excellent.

At the night service the Rev. W. E. Farmer preached another great sermon using as his text John 3:4: "For God so loved the world that He gave his only-begotten son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." The public is cordially invited to all our services where you will receive a hearty welcome.

ANTIOCH BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday was a beautiful day. At 11 a. m. Sunday school convened in the usual way. All officers at their respective places. Dea. C. W. Brown superintendent has been sick and was unable to be out with us. The lesson was well discussed. At 12 o'clock we sat and listened to a most wonderful sermon preached by our pastor, Rev. T. C. Crumpton from I Peter 4:8. Being in the spirit of God the people sat still and took it in because the pastor was digging deep into the word of God. The spirit of God was in our hearts while he talked to us in the morning.

At 4:30 the City Baptist Missionary Union met at the Antioch Baptist Church and we had the pleasure of listening to another wonderful sermon preached by the Rev. H. Norris pastor of the Union Baptist church No. 2. This young man is truly a wonderful preacher for we certainly enjoyed his sermon. We are endeavoring to work up a strong B. Y. P. U. Visitors are invited at any time.

JONES CHAPEL A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

corner Blossom and Sumter streets, is thoroughly awake and active to the principles of righteousness. The great work that is being done by the Pastor, Rev. Dr. Carroll, assisted by a strong board of active workers and willing hands cannot fall under the guidance of Almighty God who super rules the whole.

Last Sunday was a high day in Zion in the midst of the Quarterly Meeting conducted by Dr. J. C. Lewis, an ex-pastor, who was promoted because of his wonderful achievements here. His masterful eloquence, logical reasoning, forceful deliverance, orthodox firmness, business acumen and knowledge of the folks with whom he deals, has made him one of the leading Presiding Elders of the connection—he stands Paul-like in the midst of the galaxy of Ministerial representatives in the church.

Dr. Williams said many things encouraging of the work and urged the membership to greater activities in order to accomplish the work set before them, to which they agree, and the following men were elected to the Trustee Board and confirmed for another year: G. H. Williams, John Young, George Thurmond, G. D. Foggy, George Green, James Gordon, Frank Ferguson, W. S. Atkinson. You are asked to come out and worship with them Sunday, Dr. J. Francis Lee, of Charlotte, N. C., will preach at 10:30 a. m. There will be many activities of the week. The 5th Sunday will be a big day as the Sunday school will have a Bench Rally at 4 p. m., and Mrs. Burk, the returned Missionary will be the principal speaker. Don't forget it. Come to our church with a welcome.

1500 WOMEN (NO MEN ALLOWED) At Bethel Sunday 3 P. M. Evangelist Jeltz will Deliver His Social Master-piece--"Love, Marriage, Divorce and Religion."

More than one hundred thousand Women have been thrilled by this message. Churches packed to overflowing everywhere, with scores turned away. Better come early if you want a good seat. First come, first served. The Admission is Free. DR. E. A. ADAMS, Pastor.

BETHLEHEM BAPTIST CHURCH

Lyon Street, East Columbia. Rev. Sarah H. Smith, pastor. Sunday was a high day in Bethlehem. Sunday school convened at 9:45 A. Cornish, in charge. We had a large attendance. At 11:30 our pastor ascended the rostrum accompanied by Rev. Charlie Coin, he preached a soul-stirring sermon. His text was taken from the 2nd chapter of Jonah and the 1st verse. Sunday evening at three o'clock, Rev. Black ascended the rostrum, accompanied by Rev. Coin and preached a very interesting sermon.

B. Y. P. U. convened at 6:00 o'clock. Brother John Sims, instructor. We had a large attendance Sunday night. Our pastor preached a soul stinging sermon, her text was "Wash and be Clean." We received three joiners, one for baptism, one by letter and one by christian experience and then we baptized one. Our collection for the day in general was very good. Our pastor is in Lancaster carrying on a meeting for Rev. B. W. Bowler, we pray that she will have much success. We are still working on our church, we are expecting to hear the walls come crumbling down soon. Pray for us in our struggle for the uplift of fallen humanity and for the further advancement of the kingdom of God.

LAURENS NEWS.

The Sunshine Club met on last Friday afternoon at Bethel A. M. E. church. The meeting was called to order by the President Mrs. Emmaline Nelson. After which the Club joined in singing the Club song: "Shine for Jesus." The scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Benzena Hunter. The program rendered during the afternoon was as follows: Solo, "I am Praying for You," by Mrs. Emmaline Nelson. Essay, "Ambition," by Mrs. Benzena Hunter. Essay, "Is the Game Worth the Candle?" by Miss Julia Fowler. Essay, "Patience," by Miss Mary Lee Fowler. Recitation, "A Blind Child's Prayer," by Miss Ludie Higgins. Select Reading, by Miss Willie Hunter.

Next in order was a talk by the pastor, Rev. J. C. McClellan. He gave excellent remarks on the subject: "Let each today surpass that of yesterday." I am sure everyone present gathered new thoughts and ideas, after listening to the remarks of the pastor. The Club sang the closing song and repeated the Mizpah in concert. We adjourned to meet again on next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emmaline Nelson on 236 Burns Ave.

Sunday morning March 8, '25 was a beautiful day, the birds were singing and the trees were in bloom, the foliage was green and beautiful and everybody seemed to be full of the Sabbath spirit. Our pastor preached a wonderful sermon using as his subject: "Civilization's strongest support," and as he preached the Amens and Hallelujahs shouted from the congregation. Everybody seemed to be feeling good.

Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, our pastor and his robed choir went down to St. Paul Baptist church to assist the pastor and members in a Pew rally and there a large congregation awaited us. Our pastor again delivered a soul-stirring sermon which was enjoyed by everyone present. He used as a subject: "The Inherited Gift." The choir rendered excellent music. A collection of $59.60 was raised. The Rev. Tobin, pastor in charge of St. Paul Baptist church made us welcome. The visitors present were Dr. Eccleston, also Mrs. Eccleston, and Miss Georgia James of Greenville, S. C. Dr. Eccleston made an excellent talk which was enjoyed by all.

Again at 7:30 o'clock we gathered together to listen to the last sermon of the evening. The Rev. Milton Johnson preached for us. He used as his subject: "The Conscious Condition of Man." We all enjoyed the sermon very much. After commenting on the sermon the pastor called for joiners and Mrs. Sarah C. Fowler came and connected herself with the church.

The A. C. E. League met at 5 o'clock. The topic for discussion was: "Christ Winning Followers." It was discussed briefly by the different members.

The Boosters Club met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Garrett. The pastor spoke from the subject: "The Vision of the Present Day Thinker." And since listening to his talk the Club has taken on new life.

The Jersey Specials are to entertain on Thursday night with an Apron and Neck-tie social. The Sunshine Club is to have a Masquerade entertainment on the 16th, and an enjoyable time is promised for all.

We are glad to see some of our sick at church again: namely: Mrs. Blackstock, Mr. Stobo Parks, who is up but unable to attend church as yet.

We are still praying for our sick friends. The Stewardess Board No. 1 is having a chicken supper Monday night, Mar. 9th.

The church as a whole is progressing by leaps and bounds and our pastor is loved by all. Don't forget to keep an eye on the Sunshine Club.

Notes From Beaufort.

The Odd Fellows, very befittingly celebrated Peter Ogden's Day at the Grace Chapel church on last Sunday. Rev. Gifford preached the sermon to a very large congregation. Messrs. Mulligan, Riley and Colty were ordained as Deacons of the Tabernacle Baptist church on last Sunday night.

Those who heard Rev. J. A. Wilson on Sunday morning and night certainly have something to think about. He preached a strong sermon on "Friendship." We are glad to note the progress of the churches that our new pastors are bringing about.

Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair Grayson are the proud parents of a little daughter. She will be called Ruby Clair. Mrs. Grayson will be remembered as Miss Hilda Glover.

Mr. James Polite of State College and Mr. Eugene Patterson were visitors in town last Sunday. Both are Beaufort boys.

On last Friday night, Miss Marion Grayson entertained a few of her friends at her home on King street. Those present were Misses Willie Blanding, Louise Glover, Dorothy Blocker, Marion Grayson, Mrs. Florence Parks, Dr. Montgomery Kennedy, Mr. St. Clair Grayson and Atty. Charles E. Washington.

On last Monday night, the Lady Knights District Convention was held at the Port Royal County Training School. Mr. Pierce of Durham, N. C., was the principal speaker. His address was a wonder. Dr. Montgomery Kennedy also made a very interesting address, stressing the fact that if you are not capable of leading, then follow.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Isaac Sanders is recovering from his illness.

Dr. H. C. Culler has returned to Beaufort after an absence of several months, to continue his practice of dentistry. The $300,000 bridge connecting Beaufort with St. Helena Island begins this week. The colored people here, must, of necessity, get their share of benefit from the project.
