

Locals & Personals

Dr. James Williams of Sumter is a frequent visitor to Columbia.

Professor Staley of State College Orangeburg, S. C., was seen in the city Monday.

Misses Campbell, McIver and Perrin, and Mr. Swington motored from Hartsville to Columbia Monday.

Mr. Youngblood of Edgemoor made a trip to the city to visit relatives. He was the guest of Mr. Jas. H. Goode.

Mr. McLester of Camden, S. C., motored over Monday to see his sister who is now a patient at Benedict Hospital.

Rev. McMillan, a member of the senior theological class at Yale, spent a few hours in Columbia. We wish for him much success.

Mr. Chappelle Brogden, one of the members of the original Wiseman Quartette, left Thursday for Pittsburgh, Pa. Columbians will soon be able to hear his voice over the radio.

Elder and Mrs. Chas. Curtis, Mrs. O. Scott, Mrs. Nora Goodwin and Master Charles Edward Davis motored to Batesburg, S. C., Monday. The stay was short, but it was very pleasantly spent by all.

Miss Annie Belle McGraw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McGraw, 1322 Blossom St., has been sick for several days. She is a student of the Booker T. Washington High School. We hope her speedy recovery.

Miss Anita Patti Brown and her accompanist spent a few hours in the city March 17th, the guest of Mrs. A. P. Dunbar. Miss Brown is one of our noted colored singers. She has been rendering excellent programs in parts of the South.

A concert of good music will be given at Allen University Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock by Morehouse Glee Club and Orchestra with the renowned Kemper Harrell, violinist, directing. Orchestra and Glee Club selections will be rendered; violin, vocal, cello, piano, quartet, selections too. An unusual entertainment of good music for all. Thirty-five musicians compose this group.

FOURTH HIGH HONORS MISS BEAUMONT

The members of the Fourth High class of Allen University gave a birthday party in honor of their most lovable and attractive teacher, Miss Beatrice H. Beaumont.

The honored guests were: the faculty, members of the College Department, Miss Beaumont, and a few other friends.

The guests and the members of the class first assembled in the chapel where they were pleasantly entertained with a play, which was written by one of the members of the said class in the person of Mr. Benjamin P. Williams. After this Misses Eady and Johnson both rendered solos. They were then favored with a selection from the male quartette of the class.

After the program the guests were invited into the beautiful dining hall, which was most artistically decorated, a color scheme of pink and white was very tastefully carried out. The flowers were furnished by Davis Flower Shop. The guests were ushered into the dining hall by Misses Saxton and Shelton. The evening was further enjoyed by discussing subjects which were written in a small booklet, and by hearing the beautiful band music which was rendered by a few of the young men; piano accompaniment by Miss Ada McBride.

The guests' table was a scene of beauty. A beautiful basket of pink carnations was in the center. The birth-cake, which was the present of the class to Miss Beaumont was covered with white icing, and pink candles, each placed in a pink rose-bud on the cake. Little pink paper baskets were used as favors for the occasion.

The menu was, saltines, pickles and salad, strawberry ice cream and cake, pink and white mints.

Miss Beaumont was presented with a very serviceable brief case by Mr. James Giles from the College Department. The guest of honor received quite a few other serviceable gifts. Miss Beaumont expressed her heartfelt appreciation for them.

After this the evening of pleasure came to a close.

BLYTHEWOOD, S. C.

DEAR EDITOR:

Please allow me space in our most helpful paper to let the public know some of the many things that are happening at Bethel Baptist Church Blythewood, S. C. Rev. A. Bailey was called to the pastorate of that old historic church and the good people are giving him their hearty cooperation.

The installation services which began March 9th and ended March 15th was indeed a success.

Monday night Rev. I. D. McCollough, the pastor of Round Top Baptist Church, Blythewood, S. C., was in charge of the service. Rev. McCollough used for a text John 4:29. Subject "It is Jesus." Collection $10.16.

Tuesday night Rev. T. C. Crumton was in charge of the service. He used for a text Ezekiel 33:1-2, subject: "Watch." It was indeed a helpful sermon. Collection $10.04.

Wednesday night Rev. I. M. Myers was in charge of the service. His text was Isaiah 52:1. From that text Rev. Myers, the sin fighter, held his congregation spell-bound for 60 or 70 minutes, and everybody was sorry when he took his seat. Col. $11.30.

Thursday night Rev. R. M. Myers was in charge of the services. He preached a sermon that the people in Blythewood cannot forget. Col. $6.00.

Friday night Rev. A. Chandler being absent, Rev. L. Peay took charge of the service. His text was Acts 5:29, subject: "Obedience." Rev. Peay preached a strong sermon. Col. $8.00.
