

Chester Paragraphs.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jackson of Philadelphia, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Alexander, Cemetery street. Mrs. Jackson is very pleasantly remembered as Miss Rosa Alexander.

The Base ball season will open with a game between York and the Chester High School team, on Tuesday afternoon at the Fair Grounds.

A play entitled, "Old School Days at the Hickory Hollow," will be given at Calvary Baptist church, on Tuesday night.

Brainard Institute's Ball team played the boys of Clinton Institute, at Rock Hill, on Monday, the score being 3 to 0, in favor of Brainard.

Rt. Rev. E. W. D. Jones, of the A. M. E. Z. Church, of Washington, D. C., was in the city last week.

The Pythians and Calanthsians will have their annual services at the Carmel Presbyterian church, on Sunday afternoon.

Prof. S. L. Finley, Mr. J. J. Agurs, Miss Annie Garrick, Miss Irma Anderson, Miss Geneva Cornwell, Miss Blanche Reed and Mrs. Maggie M. Hooper are members of the faculty of the City school, who are attending the State Teachers' Association, in Columbia, this week.

The High School of the city of which Prof. S. L. Finley is Principal, is now on the list of accredited High Schools of the state. The teachers are an efficient corps, and are doing their work in an effective and conscientious manner.

Mrs. Georgia Crosbey, of Los Angeles, Cal. is in the city visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Alexander entertained a number of friends at their home, on Cemetery St., on Monday night, in honor of their children, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jackson, of Philadelphia. A delicious ice course was served, and a very pleasant evening spent.

The congregation and friends of Calvary Baptist Church, are very glad to learn that Mrs. J. W. Coleman, of Ridge Springs, wife of the pastor, Rev. J. W. Coleman, is improving in health, after being critically ill, for several months.

Rev. J. W. Coleman preached two soul-stirring sermons. Both sermons were a real spiritual feast.

Mr. John Henry Foster, of Asheville, is in the city for an indefinite stay.

Mr. C. E. Leathers was indisposed last week.

Newberry Notes

Told in Brief.

(By J. W. WHITE.)

Newberry, Mar. 26.—An unusual large and interesting congregation heard the Rev. Mr. Baten, the pastor of the Bethlehem Baptist church Sunday morning. At the evening services the B. Y. P. U. conducted vesper services.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Douglass Williams motored to Sumter for the week-end as guests of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Starks, at Morris College.

Mrs. George Bluford one of the prominent citizens of progressive Newberry is quite ill at her home.

Much interest centered in the illness of Mrs. Thomas A. Williams, the wife of the Treasurer of the State Fair Society, who has been confined to her bed for several days.

Sunday afternoon the Newberry County Court House Auditorium would not hold the crowds of both races that came to hear Mr. Seymour Carroll, field secretary of the American Humane Education Society. While his audience was made up of white people in part, Mr. Carroll took occasion to denounce the "K. K. K." by name, adding it is not in keeping with the humane spirit of love and mercy for every creature.

The New Light Beulah Baptist Church.

Sunday, March the 22nd, was indeed a great day at Beulah church. Deacon E. Hopkins, was on the job at the usual hour and the teachers: and we had a grand Sunday School. After some helpful discussions were rendered by the Supt. Deacon Hopkins, we adjourned for services.

At 12 o'clock, Rev. J. B. Barber, our pastor ascended the rostrum, accompanied by others he took as a text Romans 7:13: "That sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful."

From which he preached a soul-stirring sermon; which was enjoyed by the entire congregation. At the end of the sermon the door of the church was opened for joiners and two made their way to the altar and gave the pastor their hands; and were welcomed to the fold. After this a collection of $15.00 was raised. Time being near at hand for adjournment we had to cut the collection off.

I am thankful to say that we have a wonderful choir, being led by Bro. Jas. Potee. It will pay visitors to visit our church and hear our choir sing the sweetest music you wish to hear. Yours for the cause of Christ, P. J. TAYLOR.

F. A. A. Y. MASONS.

Columbia district of York Masons met in Frederick's Hall, 1323 Assembly St., Wednesday March 18, at high noon, with the District Deputy A. J. Seabrooks, presiding. Rev. A. G. Kennedy Grand Master and Prof. T. H. Pinckney, Grand Secretary, were also present, and assisted the officers of this district, in carrying out the business that legally came before it. Prof. Pinckney also outlined the plans of the National Grand Lodge, and the progress that is being made by the various Grand Masters in the states of Georgia, Virginia, West Virginia, Tennessee, Alabama and others. Property value totals near a million dollars. The ladies' Courts were presented to the District Lodge by the District Joshua S. P. Wheeler, and the District Matron was introduced by the District Deputy. After a few remarks by the Matron, Sister Carrie Wilson in behalf of the District Court presented to the Grand Master a token, the contents were not revealed. Response to same was made by Prof. Pinckney.

The District Grand Lodge also voted to put on a Drive among the Lodges through the Worshipful Masters, to raise funds for relief of the widows and orphans, the said move was fostered by Prof. C. G. Garrett and G. W. Williams and seemingly met the approval of all present. With the above plans and other suggestions under way. Watch York Masons grow. E. R. LEWIS.

FLOWERS WINS AGAIN

(By The Associated Negro Press.) Toledo, Ohio, March—Tiger Flowers, the sensational fighter from No Man's Land, and the man of many fights, won a fight from Sailor Darden, of N. Y., in twelve fast rounds here Monday night. Flowers, who weight 165 pounds, ten more than Darden, had the best of the fight all the way.
