After all business of the meeting two delightful courses consisting of potato salad, garnished with sweet pickle and boiled eggs, saltines, iced tea and cake.

A Call meeting was also held with Miss Ruby Entzmainger Monday afternoon, on Blanding Street. All plans were made for the giving of their First Spring Social on Friday evening March 27th. The next meeting will be held with Miss Beatrice Lomax on College Street, April 4th.

MOREHOUSE SINGERS PLEASE COLUMBIA

Atlanta College Is Presented In Recital by Allen University Department of Music

The Glee Club and Orchestra made up of thirty or more male voices from Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., was presented in a recital at Chappelle Auditorium, Allen University, Wednesday night and Thursday morning, under the personal directions of Prof. Kemper Harreld, the director of music of Morehouse.

Columbia music lovers in every walk of life heard the recital, and they responded in a chorus of applause. John Harvey Wheeler, a student of the Department of Music captured his audience in his violin solo, "Faust Fantastie" by Sanaste. Every number was a star, and everybody left the auditorium singing or humming some of the more popular airs that fell from the strains of the sweet music of merry makers.

GREENVILLE SCHOOL GIVES MUSICAL

Special to the Enterprise:— Seneca, Mar. 25—The Enoree

Normal and Industrial School of Greenville gave a musical recital in the Seneca Institute Chapel to a very large audience of people that came from every section of the country. Miss Thompson and Miss Hattie Hadden both of Greenville captured their audience with their sweet contralto voices. The concert was under the leadership of Miss Rocker, the head of the music department.

News Of St. James A. M. Church.

St. James Church on Wheeler's Hill was at low ebb four months ago, when Rev. J. P. Washington came to us as pastor; everything looked despairing. Upon the arrival of Rev. Washington the spiritual tide began to flow. Now we can truthfully say that Rev. Washington is a God-send to this church and community.

He is very modest, apparently unassuming, yet he is all business and a preacher of no mean ability. Through his sincere preaching, the church has become spiritually alive; the membership is steadily increasing. Too much cannot be said of the work of the present pastor of St. James Church; he is a man who has a vision.

Sunday, March 22nd was a high day in Zion; two great sermons were preached by the pastor. At 11:30 he ascended the rostrum and selected as his text Hebrew 10:38, Subject: "Progressiveness and Retrogressiveness" from which he set our hearts on fire. Sunday night at 8:00 o'clock he again preached a powerful sermon from the Subject: "Christian Progress by Oblivion of the Past;" text: Phil. 3:13-14. St. James is moving up the hill by leaps and bounds. J. E. Lyles, Sec'y.

CLARENCE SUBER DEAD

Clarence Suber, familiarly called "Swellie," by his friends died at Tuskegee, Ala., in the War Veterans Hospital this week. Clarence is well known in Columbia, this being his home until recently he went North.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Draton Suber, who resides on 800 block of Hampton Avenue. He was a carpenter by trade, and is survived by his mother and father and several brothers and sisters.

The funeral will be held at Zion Baptist Church Sunday at 1:00 P. M.

The deceased being a member of Richard Allen Lodge, all members of this Lodge are requested to meet at the Hall at 12:00 M. Sunday.

Rev. Robert Butler, N. G. J. B. Lewie, P. S.

Booker Washington Notes

Both interesting and inspiring was the first meeting of the Latin Club. An appetizing lunch was served by the girls on the serving committee. Professor Johnson gave a very helpful talk in which he showed vividly how, at every turn in life, we come face to face with the very old Latin Language. Gladys Cureton is president of the Club.

At the last meeting of the senior class, the pupils, acting upon the advice of Mrs. Saxon, decided to graduate in gray gowns and caps.
