BENEDICT WORKERS

April 22, 1925—Inspired by the many good things coming to Benedict College the students of the Institution have been diligently doing all they can to help in the progress of the Institution.

The various classes have rendered many successful plays in order to raise money. Among the best plays rendered were: "Mother Mine," "Sue," "The Path Across The Hill," and others. "The Path Across The Hill" was rendered by the Senior High class, the characters of which fell not far short of professionalism in the performance. Because of the success of this play it is, by requests, to be rendered again. This time it will be rendered at the Zion Baptist Church, Monday Night, April 27th.

Bennettsville News.

Bennettsville, S. C. April 20.—Last Sunday was a big day at the Saw Mill Baptist Church, Rev. J. J. Harrison, preached from Acts 4:32, "And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul, neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own but they had all things common."

We had a good crowd, also some visiting preachers, namely Revs. Rowell, Manning and Bradford. Rev. Harrison for about forty minutes stood seemingly as it was with Peter on the day of Pentecost. The fire spread all over the church. We wonder if Columbia can produce another man like the Rev. J. J. Harrison. We raised a good collection.

We are glad to say the two sisters of Dr. I. W. Williams of Sumter, Mrs. Mary A. Demery and Mrs. Chanie Brown, are improving.

Sister Classie Prince is on the sick list.

We were glad to see the two sons-in-law, one son and three daughters from Farrell, Pa. They came to see their mother, Mrs. Demery. Come again children.

Our spring Revival will begin on the 29th of this month. We ask your prayers for a success.

Mrs. Dollie Eddie McColl, departed this life April 19, 1925. She was only sick a few days; having been operated on Thursday, and passed away Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. She was a good member of the church and was loved by everybody who knew her. We can only say to her good bye.

She leaves a husband, mother, one aunt and a host of other friends to mourn her loss; but we know that it is heaven's gain. Bless be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love.

A great storm passed thru here on April 20th, about 6:30 p. m., which filled the country with trash and dust. We had a lots of praying around here that night. It was pretty tough on cotton.

T. H. WILLIAMS.

TWO YOUNG MEN OF COLUMBIA, MAKING GOOD IN NEW YORK CITY.

The news has just reached the city that Messrs. Fremon Ernest Altee and Edward W. Simons of this city have just received their appointments in the post office of New York after standing very creditable examinations. Mr. Altee was placed as a clerk at the Grand Central terminal while Mr. Simons was put on as a carrier. This speaks well for these two young men and their many friends in the city will be more than pleased to learn of their success in the little old city of New York and will wish them well.

Mr. Altee is the only brother of Mrs. A. C. Marshall, Linotype operator of The Recorder-Indicator, while Mr. Simons is the son of Mr. Lucius Simons of Taylor Street.

Congratulations From Anderson

Dear Editor: Accept my congratulations for the great newsy Palmetto Leader which is so very nicely printed in good readable type and full of real news. I think that you deserve the credit and I just want you to know that you may depend on me for support. I am appointing myself as your official agent in Anderson and will proceed to solicit subscribers and get news for your columns as soon as you confirm my self-appointment with credentials to get busy.

Well, this little note is from the St. Paul Baptist Church, I have been appointed as Pastor by the great Head of the church whose appointments are always wise and for the best. This church has had as pastors such men as Dr. "Bob" Robinson, Dr. H. M. Moore, Dr. Gassaway and the peerless Dr. A. W. Brown. Thus one can easily see that these people have had some of our greatest preachers. Four months ago the writer was called to this great old historic church and accepted same after much prayer and persuasion. Like the Queen of Sheba the "Half had not been told me." The writer has no regrets for the call and no complaint against this field only that it is the greatest field for real pastoral service and mental development. The spirit has blessed our poor awkward efforts. More than fifty persons have joined, many of which were for baptism and the signs indicate a very great harvest of souls in the revival which the writer will conduct for the next ten days.

The people are fond of working for the good of the church. This was fully demonstrated in our Easter Rally when in fifteen minutes they laid $2,834.75 at "Peter's" feet for the cancellation of outstanding obligations. A full write-up will appear as soon as all reports are filed.

Send The Palmetto Leader on also my credentials, if my self-appointment is confirmed. I also appoint myself as the official writer for Anderson and will see that articles are sent in, at least my secretary will write them and I will endorse. Good luck to the management.

Notes From Beaufort.

On last Thursday, The Penn School had the Dedication Services of the Frissell Memorial Community House. The exercises which began at 2:30 P. M., were such as will be long remembered. Many notables were in attendance, among whom were, Mr. George Foster Peabody of New York City, the Millionaire and Philanthropist; Dr. Frissell, to whose memory the Community House was dedicated; Major Moton of Tuskegee and Dr. Gregg of Hampton. All of the men mentioned made interesting addresses. Major Moton, in his address stressed the importance of cooperation within our race. Mr. Peabody presented to the Community House an extra large and most beautiful portrait of "St. Helena's Vision." It is so large that it covers almost the entire south wall of the auditorium. The original painting is said to be worth $700,000, hence a copy would run up in the thousands. These men of the North have at heart the interest of Penn School. The Community House which was built last year mostly by the students and men on the faculty, cost approximately $31,000. This building is a most modern and complete one, of which the people of St. Helena Island should be indeed proud.

The Installation Services at the First African Baptist church which have been going on during the past week, came to a close on last Sunday night. All of the services have been a complete success. The Rev. A. E. Quick preached the opening sermon on Monday night; Rev. V. Fowler preached on Tuesday night; Wednesday and Thursday nights, the Rev. G. Goings Daniels, former pastor of F. A. B. Church, but now located at Bethesda Baptist Church at Georgetown, preached most forceful and inspiring sermons. He showed much improvement since he left us. On Friday night, Rev. Turner, of one of the local churches preached a wonderful sermon. On Sunday morning, the Rev. D. F. Thompson brought a burning message to a very large congregation. Dr. Thompson is the successor of the late Dr. C. T. Walker, of Augusta, Ga., at the Tabernacle Baptist church, of that place. His peculiar way of preaching at once attracted the attention of his congregation. Dr. Thompson is without doubt, one of the foremost preachers of Simple Gospel in this State. Although a learned man, the simplicity of his sermons were uniquely pleasant. He preached the Installation sermon at 3:30 p. m., and he again delighted his audience at the night services.

The Rev. A. E. Quick, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church preached to a large congregation on Easter Sunday. His text was: The Living Christ, Rev. 1:18. For about forty minutes, he held his audience spellbound with his mixture of oratory and religious inspiration. His outline of the sermon was so clear and concise, that anyone in his audience could readily grasp the whole situation.

Dr. C. E. Stephenson, of Columbia, S. C., motored down last week for a fishing trip. He and some of the local men had much success in their trip. The Doctor has just bought a wonderful little fishing boat, which he intends to navigate around Beaufort.

Mrs. Mamie Bryant, her sons, Mrs. Adele Fleming, her daughter and Charles E. Washington motored to Allendale last Friday to attend Field's Day at that place. They reported a wonderful trip.

Misses Willie Blanding and Dorothy Blocker were week-end visitors in Beaufort last week.

Mock Convention.

There will be a Mock Convention at Second Calvary Baptist Church, Thursday night, April 30th, at 8 o'clock. The entertaining features of this Convention will be the report of the Moderators of the different Associations, and the Doctrinal sermon. Admission Free. A Silver Offering will be taken. All of the participants will be ladies, dressed in male and semi-male costumes.

COMMENCEMENT AT THORN TREE.

The Closing exercises of the Thorn Tree Graded School were held April 13, 14, and 15th, Rev. S. M. Miller, principal and Misses Hall and Butler, Assistants. The Primary exercises were given Monday and Tuesday nights. On Wednesday was the Annual School Picnic. On Wednesday night the graduating exercises were held. Certificates were given to five who had completed the English course. The certificates were presented by Prof. Walden, principal of the Great Falls Graded School. Prof. Walden made an excellent talk to the class from their motto: Plus Ultra, More Beyond.

The prizes were presented to the winners of the Field's day contests, by Mrs. James, teacher of the Great Falls School. Prof. Miller in his farewell talk said many things which were helpful to those young people desiring to obtain that which is beyond.

Among the visiting teachers were Mrs. S. M. Miller, of Chester; Miss Ella James, Ridgeway;

Miss Lilla Blakely, Columbia; Prof. Ross, Winnsboro; Prof. Waldon, Mrs. James and others from Great Falls. (Miss) Lilla C. Blakely, reporter
