

Bennettsville News.

The many friends in and around Bennettsville were very sad, even we knew her time had to come, for her to leave us; and yet when the news went to different angles of the county that dear old 700 years old mother of Mrs. Mary Drake had passed away last Thursday a. m. She was the grand-mother of Rev. Prof. W. D. Drake, of Grandesville. Mrs. Bettie left quite a number of grands and great grands to mourn her loss. She was a member of Macedonia Baptist church. Rev. D. S. Curry took charge of the funeral.

Miss C. D. Sanders reporter from Bennettsville, really had quite a success on last Thursday, when the many parents of New Galilee school did all they could to make the project go over the top, and I must say it went over. Among the guests who witnessed the affair were: Prof. J. W. Cunningham, Miss Gertie M. Cunningham, Mr. and Miss Jule and Emily McCoy, Amanda Thomas, Isabella, Viola and Cornelius Sanders; Miss Maggie Lomax, J. E. Easting, H. C. Covington, Prof. James McEaddy, M. G. Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Leak; Mrs. and Miss McCollum. Many others I fail to recall. Trust these good people will soon return again. Miss C. D. is just all smiles to be home again.

It was quite a delightful surprise last week when Rev. A. C. Crooks, Rev. A. E. Lomax and Rev. J. J. Hunter motored to Hartsville, Sumter, Summerville and Charleston. They went on important business.

Rev. Lomax's people were at their best Sunday. Raised $18.70. Mrs. Lomax acted as Master of ceremonies Sunday night, while they rendered an excellent program in honor of the dear mothers. Many cheering words were spoken, as we cannot say too much about our dear mothers.

Mr. Lutheren Johnakin really understands building a Rosenwald school. He contracted the beautiful job at St. Mark.

Rev. S. S. Youngblood delivered a strong and spiritual sermon Sunday. He is treating the members and friends to the best of his ability.

Mr. Walter Williams, Julius Erwin and A. Drake are the only colored motor cycle riders in the city. Mr. Drake is still making good in his garage. He is a good mechanic.

Dr. and Mrs. Mason from Kings-tree were in the city Sunday, visiting their parents.

Miss Georgia Sanders returned home Sunday from Fayetteville, N. C., where she spent one month with her sisters.

Mrs. Mary E. Brawley is on the sick list.

Miss C. D. Sanders and Miss Isabella Sanders were surprised and delighted to receive a gift each from their dear uncle America Sanders.

The moonlight social at Evans Chapel on Monday night was quite a success.

Mr. Charlie Leak, Mrs. Josie Leak, Mrs. McQueen and Mamie McQueen motored to Hartsville on some society business. They spoke very much of Rev. and Mrs. Butler.

The new highway from Bennettsville to Society Hill is just the road for us now. Quite a treat to take a trip and see the new bridge.

Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Erwin stopped by a few minutes to the reporter's last Friday. Call again.

The Academy and Industrial Institute faculty took the student body out for a hike Monday. They reported a happy trip.

Prof. James McEaddy spent a delightful stay Monday night at the A. M. E. town social.

The Rev. R. B. Phillips has begun his series of sermons, subject: "The Three Ways," namely The Broadway, The Narrow Way and the Right Way. Commencing with the Broadway, the subject was discussed to its fullest extent, so much so that the congregation is very anxious to hear those other two ways preached.

The Rev. Phillips is beginning to feel that he is serving and being served where service is required; especially seeing the ever increasing congregation, not only to preaching services but to all branches of the church. Of course Rev. Phillips being a man that pays much attention to the catechism class as he does to the stewards collection, could not but increase his work.

The Pastor seems to enjoy spending his Sunday with his never ceasing energy which seems to be a terrible strain upon any one man's nerves.

The trustees of the above named church are planning to pull off one of the most successful rallies that has been provided for in days. Of course we are not narrow and selfish any one who feels like it and are able may contribute to this worthy cause. The various boards which have been organized during the present administration are doing excellent work. The Ushers' Board No. 2 meets every Thursday night and spends a happy repast. Mr. James Lumpkin being president, with Miss Clementine Gridiron vice, know how to make the meeting a success. While Mr. Paul Hutman, secretary keeps the proceedings of the meeting. Miss Ruth Gridiron is very active in the club and a great asset to the church.

The club under the auspices of Mrs. Everlina Harrington is giving a moonlight picnic and good results are expected.

and women, old men and old women who are anxious to join in the race saving project. For no work is as great and as important as that of soul-saving, and no man is saved until he is first made to see that he is a sinner—lost and then must be shown the way, so that we are calling for the young men of the city who are interested in the Home Circle for the next few weeks on this wise:

Last Sunday was Mother's day, and the Pastor preached, delivering a special message to mothers and as a result of the wonderful message, one man professed Christ in the service and united with the church. It is the purpose of the Pastor to continue a series of sermons on the Home during the next few Sundays of the month. Sunday 17th at 8 p. m., sermon to young men. Sunday 21st at 8 p. m., sermon to young women. Sunday 31st at 4 p. m., sermon to fathers. The day will be known as father's day-Quarterly meeting. The Presiding Elder will be present and preach in the morning and evening, while the Pastor will preach at 4 o'clock to the fathers' carrying out the conclusion of the Home Circle series. We are planning for a full male choir that afternoon, and the men will have charge of the church, which they will dress to their taste. Don't wait for that occasion however, because we are having full service every Sunday, and it is hoped that all the young men of the city will avail themselves of the opportunity and worship with us Sunday night the 17th inst., and receive the benefit of the sermon to young men by the Pastor.

Come and take part in our fast growing Sunday school. It meets promptly at 12:30 p. m., each Sabbath and every Sunday there are they in whom the thirst for knowledge is very evident, joining. Mr. G. H. Williams, the Superintendent is anxious that you help to save the young people as well as the old. The V. C. E. Society under the direction of Miss F. C. Benson is growing by leaps and bounds at 6:30 each Sunday, she can be seen there with the force of anxious workers. Come and be happy.

NOTICE.

At Zion Baptist church, Monday night, May 18, a Drama in 3 Acts, entitled "The Path Across the Hill," given by the 4th Year Normal class of Benedict College. Admission 15c.

St. Luke's Episcopal Church 912 Hampton Ave.

Services 1st and 3rd Sundays 11:15 a. m., by Rev. T. T. Pollard. Lay-services 2nd and 4th Sundays 11:15 a. m., Mr. N. E. Lewis, Reader.

Celebration Holy Eucharist, 1st Sundays, 11:15 a. m., Rev. T. T. Pollard, Celebrant. Sunday school every Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m., Mr. F. P. Paul, Supt., Mr. Roberts, Assistant Supt., Miss Hunt, Secretary. Teachers: Mrs. Isabella Hunt, Mrs. Roberts, M. H. H. Mobley and Mr. Crater Williams, supernumeraries.

On last Sunday afternoon lessons were dispensed with and exercises were gone through in honor of Mother's day. An excellent program had been arranged and was creditably carried out by teachers and scholars chiefly smaller ones. Recitals, instrumental music and speeches were indulged in.

Program: Opening by the Supt. F. P. Paul, who stated the purpose of the dispensation of Lessons, taking up celebration of Mother's Day exercise.

Hymn, Oward, Christian Soldiers, was sung by S. S., then followed Prayer and the Apostle's Creed. Hymn.

Recitations, Little Miss Roberts and Little Miss Mayfield.

Instrumental Trio, Miss Jeffries, piano; Master Pinckney Gatens, violin; Master Roy Hardy saxophone. This rendition was excellent and well rendered, the youthfulness of the performers, rather than take away, added lustre to the classiness of the effect. Piano solos by Miss Bailey and Miss Hunt were in keeping with the rest. Short talks were made by Messrs. Roberts and Mobley upon invitation of the Supt. This Sunday school is growing by leaps and bounds to the tune of 10 every Sunday for the last three Sundays, and if this increase keeps up, bids fair to become one of the largest in the city. The Supt. Mr. Paul is an untiring worker and not only comes himself, but brings his folks too. Splendid behavior was had. The air of this Sunday school seems to breed good behavior. You and your children are solicited to come with us. A Bible class of Adults is in course of formation. "Come with us; we will do you good."

Delegates will be selected at next Sunday's session to attend the Annual Sunday School Convention which convenes in Newberry, the 28th inst., at St. Luke's Mission. It is composed of all the Sunday schools of the Colored Council of Church Workers in Upper South Carolina Diocese, of which Bishop K. G. binlay, D. D., is Bishop.

Several visitors were present and helped to make a splendid audience—mostly of the younger set of promising youths and maidens.
