Messrs. W. C. Johnson and R. H. Paul attended the Auto Races in Charlotte, N. C., Monday.

Messrs. James Goode, Sr., Drs. Jas. Goode, Jr., Frank Johnson, and W. H. Thomas attended the Auto Races in Charlotte, N. C.

Mrs. Evelyn Robinson who is now making her home in New York City is home again for a few weeks to the delight of relatives and friends.

Misses Ada and Dorothy Burns, teachers in the Graded School, at Clinton, N. C., are at home after a very successful school term.

Mrs. Lizzie Brooks spent several days in the city this week, with her daughter, Miss Allan M., Brooks. She left Friday for Richmond, Va., accompanied by her other daughter Mrs. Searcy M. Woodard, where she will spend a while.

Dr. R. S. Wilkinson, the president of State College was in the city Tuesday, on business. He stopped long enough to shake hands with some of his many friends and exchanged a few words on school and fraternal progress. He is looking well and says he is feeling fine.

Mrs. Sarah E. Hildebrand, the wife of H. J. Hildebrand, Cayce, S. C., returned last week from several months' stay with her brother Dr. J. S. Williams, of Macon, Ga. She was not well when she went to Macon and on her return, it was necessary to take her to the hospital. Mrs. Hildebrand is now at the Waverly Sanatorium and is improving. Mr. Hildebrand is in the tailoring business and also the proprietor of a barber shop. He is also Treasurer of the Trustee Board in Bethel A. M. E. church and Mrs. Hildebrand is one of the choir members. Her host of friends will be glad to know that she is getting better under special treatment.

LE CERCLE ENTRE-NOUS.

The members of Le Cercle Entre-nous held their meeting with Miss Lillian Watts Wednesday of last week. Another engagement prevented Miss Butler from being present during the study hour, however she has so trained her class that a few were able to make good of the hour during her absence. Prizes were presented Misses Thomasina Thomas, Beatrice Beaumont, M. Monteith and Mrs. L. Reynolds.

After the usual routine of the afternoon a delicious course of crab salad, crackers, ice tea and mints was served. Misses Beatrice Beaumont, Rhoda Swygert and Mesdames R. L. Simons N. A. Jenkins, were the special guests of the evening. The next meeting will be with Miss Ray Saxon.

BANQUET IN HONOR OF MISS GREEN.

A banquet was given in the dining hall of Allen University by the First Normal Class in behalf of its teacher Miss S. E. Greene, May 8th, 1925, from 8 until 11 p. m.

H. J. Bryant, the president of the class said in his welcome address that the teacher deserved the banquet for the inspiration the class received from her during the school term.

An excellent program was rendered by the members of the class. A very pleasing menu was served.

The faculty of Allen University was invited. It is said to have been one of the most unique affairs of the season.

Miss Bertha Couser, Reporter.

MRS. T. J. ENTZMINGER STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.

Mrs. Hattie Entzinger, the wife of T. J. Entzinger, the well known contractor was stricken with Paralysis on last Wednesday at her home on Tobacco street. Her condition at first was very serious and but for prompt attention of her family and the professional service of Dr. Stevenson and Dr. Stuart, it may have proven fatal. Mr. Entzinger has two nurses attending her. She is improving now and her many friends are hoping for an early recovery.

PHI SIGMA FRATERNITY ENTERTAINS THEIR FRIENDS.

What has been described by many as the most brilliant social event held on the campus of Benedict College, occurred last Friday afternoon when the College "Frat" gave its annual banquet. The members had for their guests their lady friends. The President, his wife and some of the faculty were present also. At 6 p. m., all the members escorted their guests to the campus lawn where they stayed enjoying themselves until 7:15. Then each couple found its way to the library where the social continued for a short time. At the request of the President of the "Frat" all assembled in one room of the library where a short program was rendered.

The assembly was called to order by the President Mr. L. J. Hicks. The roll was called by the Secretary, Mr. J. A. Pawley. Each member answered with a quotation and then introduced his guest.

The Editor's report by Mr. C. C. Woodson, was next, followed by a few brief remarks from Mr. Hicks. The following ladies were presented as the guests: Miss Gladys Pugh; Miss Ethel Evans; Miss Hildred Henry; Miss Genevieve Vincent; Miss Blanche Thompson; Miss Marian Wise; Miss Vivian Nance; Miss Jymie Williams; Miss Rosa Lee Smalls; Miss Mamie Baskin; Miss Ethel Winningham; Miss Elizabeth Carson; Miss Candance

Johnson; Miss Myrtle Bass; Miss Agnes Ruhterford; Miss Marjorie Peaks; Miss Sarah Boozer; Miss Nanette Dodson; Miss Jessie Kennedy and Mrs. Baxter.

At 8:15 the line formed and was led to the dining hall that was beautifully decorated with streamers of purple and gold (College colors). The hall had the appearance of a roof garden. The table was placed in "F" shape and artistically decorated with flowers. The vases contained alternately roses and carnations bedded in fern. Down the center of the table ran a cluster of green vines that had sweet peas interwoven therein.

The following menu was served while the orchestra played from its beautifully decorated pit:

- Fruit Cocktail
- Salted Pecans
- Cream of Tomato Soup
- Roast Chicken
- Corn bread dressing
- Candied Yams
- Sweet June Peas
- Steamed Rice and Sorority Gravy
- Hot Rolls
- Butter
- Fruit Punch
- Pie a la mode
- After dinner mints.

The welcome address by Mr. L. J. Hicks was followed by a selection from the "Frat" four.

An address by the Vice-president, Mr. N. A. Ford, "The Trend of Youth." The awarding of tokens to all and the final address by the President of the College.
