Jones Chapel A. M. E. Z. Church
Sumter and Blossom Streets

Rev. R. Alexander Carroll, D. D.
Pastor.

is now engaged in a series of sermons on the home. The pastor is at his best each service with the fixed purpose of helping those whose desire it is to help themselves.

He preached very effectively last Sunday morning from one of the strongest subjects we have listened to at any time—"God's Match Box and His Matches," which resulted in one penitent coming forward for prayer and one addition to the church. Sunday evening he preached to the young men, which advice was indeed one of the best we have listened to since the days of our youth when we were around our parents' hearthstone.

The services are growing more and more interesting because each sermon is new from the same old gospel, out of which every person who avails themselves of the opportunity want to hear him again. Dr. Carroll is growing on his congregation and building up a congregation of thoughtful and active worshippers.

Sunday 24th, continues the third of the series of sermons at 8 p. m., which will be to the young women and every young woman of the race should aim to hear this matchless Gospel preacher. All services begin on time. 10:30 a. m., morning worship with vestred choir. Sunday School 12:30 p. m.; Varick C. E. Society 6:30, with a special program and 8 p. m., sermon to young women. You and your friends are all welcome. Come and be greeted by pleasing and refined ushers.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Our Sunday School numbered about 300 last Sunday morning. Rev. J. C. White, our pastor acted as superintendent in the absence of the superintendent and his assistant. The lesson was fine, much interest was shown. Sunday School collection was $12.00. The Rev. W. B. Wood, A. M., D. D., of Louisville, Ky., Corresponding Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention (unincorporated.)

Dr. Wood taught a class and at the end gave us a most wonderful talk.

At 11:30 the house was crowded to its fullest capacity, when the pastor introduced Dr. W. B. Wood, of Louisville, Ky., to preach. Dr. Wood, complimented the church on the wonderful congregation, the system and order; then for about ten minutes gave us most valuable information of the work of the National Baptist Convention, especially of our Foreign Mission work. He then took as a text these words: "He that would be greatest among you let him be the servant." From that text Dr. Wood preached one of the greatest sermons it has been ours to listen to. Everybody who heard Dr. Wood is singing his praise. An after collection of $26.50 was given for foreign mission to Dr. Wood.

Dr. White at Eastover.

3:00 o'clock in the afternoon our pastor, Dr. J. C. White and a host of people motored down to Eastover, where the Woman's Auxiliary Convention of the Gethsemane Baptist Association was in session.

When we arrived at the Mt. Zion Church, Eastover the grounds were covered with people, and long tables were spread with all things good to eat. Mrs. J. C. White, president, soon called the house to order and announced the closing sermon. Rev. A. P. Porter, pastor introduced Rev. White. Dr. White preached from the subject: "The Greatness in Woman." The story was a token of Elisha and the Shunnamite Woman, which was enjoyed by all. Rev. A. P. Porter, one of Zion's sons preached a great sermon at Zion at night.

FIRST CALVARY CHURCH

The Church with a Welcome.

Services were good all day Sunday. The Sunday School was well attended. The Superintendent, Mr. H. W. Harrison and his corps of teachers were on the job as usual.

The Pastor Rev. H. W. Long, being confined to his bed with illness, the Rev. J. H. Johnson filled the pulpit at 11:00 a. m., and preached an interesting and inspiring sermon on the subject "True Friendship," which was enjoyed by all present.

Immediately after the morning service the funeral of Mrs. Angelina Jennings was held at which Rev. J. H. Johnson officiated. Deacons P. Ruff and H. W. Harrison made a few brief remarks on the life of the deceased.

7:00 P. M., the B. Y. P. U. was held with the President Mr. M. S. Stewart presiding. The program was in charge of Mr. Joseph Phillips and Miss Marie Gordon, which was quite interesting.

8:00 P. M., the Rev. V. S. Johnson preached a very helpful and inspiring sermon which was much enjoyed by those present.

The pastor and his congregation appreciate the kindness of these ministers during the illness of the pastor. The congregation extends their prayers that the Pastor may soon be restored to perfect health, and that he may soon be able to resume his duties.

BENEDICT JUNIORS ENTERTAIN SENIORS

One of the most elaborate occasions in the history of entertainments and banquets held at Benedict College, occurred Tuesday night May 19, when the class of '26 entertained the senior class.

The first feature of the evening was held in the reception room of Carnegie Library, where the guest enjoyed themselves playing various games and engaging in laugh provoking jokes. The guests of honor were Pres. and Mrs. C. B. Antisdal, Prof. and Mrs. John S. Bangson, and Miss Elizabeth Mohlman.

After the reception the guests entered the dining room where several delightful and unique courses were served. An adjoining room had been designed as a dining room. It was a dream of orange and white tints with varicolored butterflies, lending a bizarre and picturesque effect. The candles gave the room the soft light of an oriental twilight, which as the course proceeded brightened slowly into the full light of morning like an Easter dream of dawn.

The toast-master was Mr. Thos. J. Hanberry, President of the junior college class. The welcome address was given by Mr. N. A. Ford, junior, and the response by Mr. H. W. Chappelle, senior. The next number was a vocal solo by Miss Blanche Thompson, junior. This was followed by a toast from Prof. Bangson. An address by Mr. L. J. Hicks senior, "a greater Benedict." Mr. Wm. D. Robinson, the junior class poet, "To the seniors from the juniors." Closing address by Dr. C. B. Antisdal. This was the most unique and charming of all the social classes ever held at Benedict College.

The following menu was served:
French Cocktail
Chicken a la King
Steamed rice and chicken gravy
Peas in patties Tomato salad
Stuffed olives
Parkerhouse rolls Jelly Russian Tea
Fruit Salad Pomme de cheese
Ice Cream Cake
Nuts Mints
Demitasse

REV. J. C. WHITE, APPEALS TO THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND B. Y. P. U.'S. OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

To the Pastors, Superintendents, Teachers of Sunday Schools and Presidents of B. Y. P. U.'s. of South Carolina. Greetings:

I am arrogating to myself the authority as 1st Vice President of the State Sunday School Convention, and too being the chairman of the executive board to make this appeal to you.

Perhaps you know or have heard that our highly esteemed and much beloved president, Rev. H. M. Moore, A. B., D. D., has been called to the great Ebenezer Baptist Church of Charlotte, N. C., and has resigned his present pastorate in Columbia, and has accepted the call to Charlotte. I therefore deem it prudent and in keeping with good usages and taste, that someone should assume the position of calling this branch of our denominational work to colors.

Our Next Place of Meeting
Some time ago the state was in a quandary as to whether we would meet at Laurens, S. C., as accepted and voted at our last session in Florence. But we have been assured by the pastor, officers and members of the St. Paul Baptist church of Laurens that all things will be ready when we come. All the other churches of Laurens and throughout the county, backed by the ministers of the Tumbling Shoals Association are behind the church. So our next place of meeting will be held in the city of Laurens, at the St. Paul Baptist church.

Great Program Is Prepared
The executive board of the State Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Convention met at Zion Baptist church, Columbia, about a month ago to prepare a program for the coming session. I am pleased to inform all, that we have one of the strongest programs to be presented, that was ever offered to the Baptists of South Carolina. Our departmental group meeting will be a special feature this year, while we have chosen some of the strongest men of our faith to special lecture periods.

Our District Missionaries
I appeal to each district missionary in every county of South Carolina to bestir yourself at once, if you have not already done so, to the end that your reports might be greater than ever before. Don't leave a single stone unturned in your efforts to reach all the Sunday Schools and B. Y. P. U.'s. in your district. Make friends with all pastors and officers of all the churches and thus make easy the work. To use the language of the Duke of Wellington at the battle of Waterloo: "Let the whole line advance."

Mustering Our Full Strength
We must have the largest representation at Laurens than ever before in the history of that body. While we are loathe to give up Dr. H. M. Moore, as the head of this work, he has given system and order to the Convention, notwithstanding this, the work must move on. The battle is the Lord's. I therefore appeal to every Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. in the State to select your delegates and money for representation at once, would be pleased to have a letter from each District Missionary, Supt., President of B. Y. P. U.'s. and Pastor in this State at once.

Yours for Christ and His Kingdom,
J. C. WHITE,
1st. Vice-President,
Columbia, S. C.

THE WEEK'S EDITORIAL: COLORED PRESS

(From The Monitor, Omaha, Nebraska of May 8.)

Lest We Forget.
At a recent and notable inter-racial convention the decline in lynching was attributed to the crusade against this barbarism by the Southern women. The chief credit for the reduction of mob-murder belongs to the sane, persistent, unremitting efforts of the National Association for the Advancement of the Colored People. This militant organization has aroused the conscience of the nation, and impelled the women of the Southland, who really are good at heart, to add their strength to the throttling of this monster evil. Credit where credit is due. Let us not forget that the dynamo which is generating the current which means the ultimate electrocution if this hideous monster is the N. A. A. C. P.

Support it loyally until its task is done.

GOVERNOR HITS NEGRO INSTITUTIONS

Jefferson City Mo., May—(By The Associated Negro Press)—The appropriation of $175,000 for an education building for Lincoln University was shaved off by Governor Sam A. Baker this week in his trimming of the various appropriations to fit the income of the state for the next two years. An appropriation of $25,000 for the election of a tubercular cottage was also stricken out and the appropriation of $15,000 for the Girls' Home at Tipton was held up temporarily.
