

Church News Of Columbia

BY DR. J. C. WHITE

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH. rendered a most excellent program consisting of beautiful solos both vocal and instrumental, recitations and a special address by Rev. Davis a student at Benedict College.

At the night service we were favored with a sermon by Dr. J. C. Tobin from Psa. 57:7 which sermon was quite interesting. The members and friends of the church are very much elated over the work of the new pastor who is getting new life into every phase of the work.

Dr. J. C. Tobin Preaches Great Sermon.

The preliminaries with usual announcements having been dispensed with, the pastor introduced Dr. J. C. Tobin, of Union to preach. Dr. Tobin used as his text: "Simon, Son of Jonas, lovest thou me?" From which he preached a most wonderful sermon. He swayed the people on his mighty eloquence at will, he tore into shreds the average Negro conception of the Christian religion. Of the many gifted sons of South Carolina, the fabled Muses baptized him with eloquence without measure. It was indeed a mighty time in Zion.

At 8:30 p. m., the Rev. L. C. Crafton, of Prosperity filled the pulpit and preached an earnest and powerful sermon to a crowded house. After which the pastor baptized.

New Howard Graded School at Zion.

Monday night the New Howard Graded school gave a dramatic play at Zion Baptist church to a large and appreciative audience. Prof. Dendy, principal and his faithful force of teachers, are to be highly commended for the splendid work they have and are doing for our young people.

Church Locals.

Rev. J. C. White, our pastor, motored up to Rock Hill, Thursday on business.

Mrs. Emeretta Washington, wife of deacon Geo. H. Washington is recovering from a severe spell of illness.

Bud Hammett 1300 block of Lincoln St., is and has been very ill for some time.

Miss Maggie Beecher, who has been living in Asheville, N. C., has returned to the Capital City.

Mrs. Cherry Rabb is quite ill at her home on Laurel St.

Miss Susie Benson who has been quite sick at her home on the 1300 block of Hampton is somewhat better at this writing.

FIRST CALVARY CHURCH
The Church with a Welcome.

The members and friends who attended services Sunday were delighted to have been there. The Sunday School was well attended. The Superintendent and teachers put quite a deal of enthusiasm in the lesson. An instructive review was given by Miss C. B. Singleton.

For the morning service, the pulpit was graced with Revs. Brooks and Lawrence. The pastor preached a logical and instructive sermon from the text I Cor. 13:13, Subject "The Love of God." He held his audience spellbound from beginning to end. He gave a persuasive reason why we should cultivate the habit of love in all things, and showed that the supreme need of the age is more love for each other.

Immediately after the morning service, the funerals of Mr. Roundtree and Mrs. Nixon were held.

The B. Y. P. U. was held at 7:00 o'clock. Mrs. E. W. Long had charge of the program and rendered a most excellent program consisting of beautiful solos both vocal and instrumental, recitations and a special address by Rev. Davis a student at Benedict College.

MACEDONIA BAPT. CHURCH

Sunday May 31 was a big day at the Macedonia Baptist Church 2nd Nazareth Baptist Church confederated with us. We had a glorious time. The Sunday School was good; the lesson was taught by the pastor, Rev. R. M. Myers. Collection was good.

We had a sermon by Lic. F. Watkin. His text was found in 2 Cor. 5:17—If any man is in Christ he is a new creature. He preached a good sermon. Bro. Watkin is a coming young preacher. Dr. Myers prayed a wonderful prayer.

The Rev. Gordon brought us greetings from the State Convention. He said that the preachers say it was one of the best meetings they have had in ten years. The Black Spurgeon preached on "Let there be no strife between us for we be Brethren. We know he (Rev. R. M. Myers) is an able Baptist preacher and if he did not make good we don't see why. After a short talk by Dr. R. M. Myers the tables were spread with many good things to eat. To our regret Dr. Myers left us at 4:45 o'clock to take the Georgia bound train to stop at Graniteville and Augusta to run a ten night meeting. We wish for him a pleasant trip and pray for the saving of souls through his divine messages from Jesus Christ.

Watch for the play "The Rich Fool," at Macedonia.

WESLEY M. E. CHURCH

Corner Gervais and Barnwell Sts. The Wesley Sunday School met at the usual hour 10:30 A. M. under the supervision of Mr. G. L. Ratliff.

Following the devotional exercises a diligent study of the lesson was begun by a corps of faithful teachers, and a body of earnest pupils. A splendid collection was taken. The lesson was reviewed by the pastor, the Rev. N. S. Smith.

The hour having arrived for preaching the Rev. Virgil Johnson being present was asked to preach. He responded willingly. Rev. Johnson preached an able, instructive and soul-stirring sermon, greatly enjoyed by all who were attentive and appreciative.

At the evening services a rich literary program was rendered, the following participants making splendid and impressive speeches: Mr. I. S. Leevy, Miss Bulah-Hicks, Miss Ruby Leevy, Master Kirkland-Leevy, and Mr. J. A. Rosemond. The Wesley choir rendered very excellent music.

Jones Chapel A. M. E. Zion Church is inviting every one who is anxious to hear the gospel, to visit her and be a part of the wonderful services which are being had these days under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. R. Alexander Carroll, who for the past few weeks has been preaching a series of sermons on the home which led up from Mother's day, to a very appreciative audience, and indeed much good has been done along the line of home improvements since the Doctor has taken charge because he believes that if there is any shortcomings in the race at all it is in the home and not in outside environments, and he dares preach what he believes.

He believes that the laxity of home government, home training has blinded the Negro to his own racial consciousness, and his own possibilities; filled him with foreign hallucinations and has driven him so far from his God that today he is feeding on husk in which there is no strength. He believes that sound doctrine in the pulpit and in the life of the home linked up with the school room, will slowly, but surely reverse conditions and give the race its proper place in the race of life.

You are asked to hear him each Sunday, for he always has a message full of information of the practical side of life. Sunday 10:30 a. m., sermon by Pastor; 12:30 Sunday school; 6:30 p. m., V. C. E. Society; 8:00 p. m., Holy Communion. You are asked to be present. Last Sunday was a high day and two persons united with the church, while Monday night witnessed one of the best Quarterly Conferences in the history of the church.
