KNOXVILLE COLLEGE COM- MENCEMENT

(By The Associated Negro Press.)
Knoxville, Tenn., June—Commencement activities began at Knoxville College Thursday evening, May 28, with class exercises of the graduating class of the Academy Department. Then followed a full week of events held in connection with the Fiftieth Anniversary of the founding of the institution. On Friday evening a recital was given by the students of the music department featuring the works of Negro composers, works of Coleridge Taylor, Burlingame, Dett, Cook, and White, are represented on the program given. Another musical program of unusual interest followed on Saturday evening, The Oratorio, "The Redemption," by a chorus of one hundred voice. This promises to be one of the most important musical programs ever presented by the people of Knoxville.
The chorus is composed of singers both from the city and from the College. Diplomas will be presented to the members of the Teacher Training class in Bible at the 10 o'clock service Sabbath morning. At 10:45 followed the annual sermon to the Christian Association: Rev. J. D. Rankin, D. D., of Pittsburgh, Pa., who is a member of the Board of Trustees, is to be the speaker. President J. Kelley Giffen, D. D., will deliver the baccalaureate sermon the same evening at 7:30.

We are proud to be able to say that we never take advantage of the occasion to swell our profits by questionable methods. We never advise the purchase of an expensive casket just for the profit on it. In every instance where we act as undertakers our advice is always for the benefit of the family as well as for the dignified interment of the dead.

venes here in August. New restaurants, boarding houses and every conceivable kind of business are being opened almost daily adopting the names "Elks Rest," "Elks Home," "Elks Inn," "Elks Barbershop," and the like. Everybody seems to have already entered into the spirit of the movement, and since a house-to-house canvass is going on by the decoration committee in regards to having every home and business place decorated, most of the people approached have already agreed to decorate.
The housing proposition is being well looked after as the housing committee says that everything points to an ample supply of sleeping quarters for all who visit the city during the convention.

Baptist Educational And Missionary Convention

casions but not so. Moses is the greatest preacher living today on the American continent.
Dr. J. C. White offered a resolution offering to bring the two Conventions together. A Commission was duly appointed by the Convention and one is soon to be appointed by the New Convention and will meet soon.
Dr. J. S. Earle, president of the Convention, delivered the greatest and most constructive annual address ever heard before that body.
The next session of the Convention will meet with the Bethesda Baptist Church, Georgetown, S. C., Rev. Gofings Daniels Pastor, in the first week in May, 1926.

The closing sermon was preached by the Rev. A. W. Vincent of Martineque, Ga., who is the moderator of the Spring Grove Association. It was a spiritual treat to have heard him.
