

TIGER FLOWERS IN CHICAGO FOR FIGHT

(By The Associated Negro Press.)

Chicago, Ill., June—Theodore "Tiger" Flowers, the Fighting Georgia-Deacon, arrived in Chicago today and immediately taxied to Mullen's Loop Gymnasium to train for his fight with Jock Malone of St. Paul, Friday night at East Chicago, Indiana. The "Tiger" is fresh from a victory over Lou Bogash of Bridgeport, Conn., the first mixed bout held in that state for a number of years. Flowers is heralded as the greatest Negro middleweight since the days of famous Joe Wolcott. Jock Malone boasts of the fact that he has never met defeat at the hands of a colored fighter and sees no reason why this battle will be an exception. "The Tiger" says nothing but keeps busy with his training activities. Tickets for the bout are practically sold out with the fight four days off. Charlie Anderson and "Kid" Washington, both well-known local battlers will appear on the same card.

SPORT—O—GRAMS

K. C. WILLS TO WIN

At this writing the Kansas City Monarchs are occupying first place in the Negro National League with the fans of the Missouri town whooping it up for another pennant. The Detroit Stars and the Chicago Giants are fighting desperately to pull the league leaders down. On paper, the K. C.'s appear to be no stronger than their chief rivals. Then, what gives them their present advantage?

'Tis this, the Monarchs are blessed with followers who are 100% loyal and backers who are on the square with both the players and the public. The followers translate their appreciation of the squareness of the sponsors ranks and left a vacancy. Our of the teams into undisputed, unadulterated loyalty. The backers say: "Nothing is too good for the Champion Monarchs." And the fans applaud and shout "Bravo."

As a result, the Monarchs possess the "will to win" to an unlimited degree. No team could have the heart to disappoint such dyed-in-the-wool adherents. Why, last week, on the occasion of the league opening in Kansas City, one of the biggest demonstrations ever given a group of heroes anywhere was given to the Monarchs. The demonstration was led by the mayors of Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kansas. A parade that held up down-town traffic for forty minutes, in which the local Chamber of Commerce, boys scouts and University cadets took part, featured. The champion Monarchs rode in twenty beautifully decorated automobiles while thousands of cheering hero-worshippers looked on and other thousands followed.

The parade ended at Meubach Field. The final score was Kansas City 14; Detroit Stars 0. The Will to Win born of 100% loyalty of followers which in turn was born of the square deal from their owner-backers and there you have the secret of the Monarch's success.

BILL WALLACE WINS AUTO RACE

(By The Associated Negro Press.)

Chicago, Ill., June—Bill Wallace of Indianapolis proved to be the ace of the drivers participating in the annual automobile race staged yesterday by the Chicago Colored Race Drivers' Association at the Thornton Speedway. The meet was to have been held last Sunday but was postponed because of cold weather. Wallace took two of the three events. He won the twenty mile western dirt track championship and the ten mile open race. Sam Buford of Los Angeles won the fifteen mile race for light cars. In this event, Bill Carson of Chicago lost control of his auto and crashed through a fence. Carson's car was destroyed but the driver escaped unscratched.

MONARCHS MURDER GIANTS

(By The Associated Negro Press.)

Kansas City, Mo., June—The fast going Kansas City Monarchs after defeating the Detroit Stars in four of five games, went right after Rube Foster and his Chicago American Giants and gave them one of the worst drubbings ever given the Chicago club by making a clean sweep of the five game series. The first game of the Chicago series which was to have been played on Thursday was postponed until Friday on account of wet grounds. A double header was played on Saturday which was Decoration Day and a double header today. Score of Friday's game:

TO THE BAPTIST SISTERHOOD OF SOUTH CAROLINA, GREETINGS

Again the relentless hand of death has entered our official ranks and left a vacancy. Our Heavenly Father in His infinite wisdom, has seen fit to remove from this earthly domain our dearly beloved sister and President, Cora S. Boykin. I know I voice your sentiment when I say that the women of South Carolina are with one accord both deeply grieved and moved with compassion and sympathy for the sorrowing family, especially Rev. Brother Boykin, the grief stricken husband of our departed sister. In the death of Sister Boykin, we have sustained the loss of a great and consecrated leader, whose one great thought was to We shall miss her, but we shall not forget her, and in the days to come, her memory shall linger with us as a sweet savor, inspiring us on to deeds of unselfishness and lives of usefulness. She has left us a pricelessly decorated automobile and set for us a standard which we should strive to maintain—a lofty conception of our duty to God and mankind. Before falling asleep, her one thought was for the furtherance of the Convention's projects. In a personal letter which I received April 15th, from her, occur these words: "I am gratified to know that the societies are working in such excellent spirit. We look forward to a larger representation and an increased contribution to the work at our meeting at Greenwood, June 25th, 28th." Her annual appeal to the Sisterhood appeared in the press in April and this appeal will be preserved by many of us as it was the last to come from her hands.

Now Sisters, this letter is to urge upon you the importance of each member, earnestly striving to do her whole duty and even though our leader has been called to receive her reward in glorified immortality, we, nevertheless, must take heart and courageously take up the work where she left off, realizing that in unity, there is strength, let us make this a record-breaking year in our contributions for all phases of our work—Morris College, Beneficiary Fund, Foreign Missions. Last year one hundred and forty-seven (147) pieces of needle work were sent up for Foreign Missions, and the Committee reported $38.90. Let us do much more this year. We can do it by sending more money and needlework. At Orangeburg last week, Rev. W. P. Williams, Pastor of Morris Chapel Church, Greenwood, said that every thing is being put in good shape to entertain the Convention. Let us all pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit that much good will be accomplished and that we will have a great meeting in every way. All who plan to attend the Convention are urged to send their names at once to Mrs. Caro L. Williams, 360 New Market St., Greenwood, S. C. Your Sister in Christ, CORINNE N. JONES, Acting President, 68 Ashe St., Charleston, S. C., June 2nd, 1925.

GREAT MEETING AT GRANITEVILLE, S. C.

We left on the 5:45 train May 30, 1925, and arrived in Graniteville, S. C., 9:20. Rev. A. B. Coleman met at the station. We arrived at Valley-Fair Baptist Church where the battle was on. We fired in on the devil's camp and captured five. Monday night we mustered the soldiers and used our long range gun—seventeen surrendered. We fired on the devil's camp until Friday night like thunderbolts from a blue sky; and the last night we captured the old general of the devil's army, 83 years old. The total number for the week was forty-nine. We stopped at the home of Prof. Drake. Prof. Drake is principal of Aiken High school. His wife is indeed a great woman who also teaches at Graniteville, S. C. They are really making good and doing for the uplift of our race. Rev. A. B. Coleman, a graduate of Benedict College is indeed a great young man—he is the coming man of the state. He resides in Georgia. He has a great church well organized. Some of the leading members of the musical choir are students of Benedict College; and a set of Christian elderly deacons. I wouldn't like to be treated better by a church pastor than I was at Valley Fair. We toured over to Augusta, Ga. to Paine College to the Commencement; there I listened to an excellent address delivered by Dr. Tobias, a man of international reputation, very liberal in his views. There I met that prince of preachers—Dr. D. F. Thompson, who is now pastoring the great lamented C. T. Walker's Tabernacle. He took me thru that great church and showed me work he has done since he has been pastor. All the auditorium has been finished—the painters were at work beautifying it—the basement is yet to be finished. We went home and Mrs. Thompson prepared a nice dinner. We chatted over old things and spent a good afternoon. On Friday we were at Bettis Academy. Prof. Nicholson is in charge and is putting the program over. They are preparing for the summer school and the Ministerial Conference in July. We talked over the convention at Orangeburg. I asked him what he thought about the commissioners that were appointed to bring the two conventions together? He said he thought it was the finest thing that ever happened and it would serve to bring the forces of the Baptists together to put over the program of education and mission. I said with him, God hasten the time. We met Dr. Blockard, the moderator of the Mt. Canaan Association. He is full of wit and humor and made me welcome in the field. Dr. Hill of Aiken and whole family were over one night to hear us deliver the message. He is making good—he is a great preacher. We are going to have a community rally on the 21 inst at 4:30 o'clock. We are expecting the city out. Watch the Palmetto Leader. Yours for the Cause, R. M. MYERS.
