

Bennettsville News

The farmers are anxious for rain and yet the crops are looking fine.

The people of Bennettsville are still enjoying listening to the voice of Rev. Henry's from Philadelphia, Pa. The greatest wonder to all is this how lonely it will be when they return to their homes in the north.

Rev. Wilbert Henry accompanied by a fine body of brothers, just proved to all that they are called from God to preach.

He preached a sermon and three souls surrendered their will to Christ. Sunday was a real busy day through out the country. The service at the Saw Mill Baptist Church was quite a day when Rev. J. J. Harrison preached a memorial service for one of our oldest deacons in the church who parted this life Sept. 1, 1924. His text was found in Acts 10:34.

Splendid papers were read by Sisters Prudence McCollum and Minnie C. Dean. The solo by Miss Sallie Robinson was inspirational to all. Miss Robinson recently finished from the academic department and will leave for Benedict College in September.

The total collection for the day was $37.11.

Miss Cora McEaddy sister of Prof. James McEaddy has returned home after a pleasant stay at Allen University where she just finished her L. I. degree. Trust she will have much success.

Rev. P. B. M. Odana Pastor of the Macedonia church preached a wonderful sermon, text found in Mark 26:26.

Rev. J. A. Sanders will leave for Tennessee soon where he will attend summer school.

The church is proud to see the college students from different parts.

The Misses Cureton of D. L. C. Miss W. Bradford from Hartson, Richmod. Va., the Witherspoons and Miss Memie Williams of State College, Miss Nellie M. Evans of Morris College and many others I can't recall.

Dr. T. R. Reese, Misses Viola and Verne Gillespie and Rev. Henry motored to Orangeburg Friday on important business. They reported quite a pleasant trip.

The Marlboro Academy and Industrial Institute had one of the best commencements in this city. Prof. Cunningham and McEaddy and the faculty are making this school what we want it to be. They turned out eight graduates. Dr. Cook delivered the annual address to the class. We were glad to have Dr. Roberts of Florence present.

Miss Lottie Watson is home again after spending a successful school term of teaching at Aiken, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prince spent Sunday with the writer.

Prof. Cunningham is building a beautiful bungalow.

Miss E. D. Drake is full of smiles to see Dr. Jones return to the city. Dr. Jones is a real church worker.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Sawyer are missed very much as they are away for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Dixon are delighted to have their little grand-son from Raleigh, N. C., to spend the summer.

Rev. S. S. Youngblood pastor of Shiloh is making it very pleasant for Rev. Henry.

Mr. Welton McCoy, Miss Emily McCoy and little Gertie Cunningham spent Monday with the reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Steel are very proud of their first gradson, little William Brown, Jr.

The City team left Monday a. m., with their captain Prof. J. M. McEaddy, Manager R. M. McLeod for Sanford, N. C., where they will be gone two days. We hope them much success.

Mrs. McCoy and son are spending their vacation in Harrisburg Pa., with her son. Trust they will have a pleasant stay.

Mrs. Dora Reese will leave for New York where she will spend awhile with relatives and friends.

Mr. James Thompson of 55 Hutson St., has opened up a new business. He can make old umbrellas look like new. Call and see him anytime. He is ready to serve you.

NEWBERRY NEWS

Newberry, S. C. June 15—Last Sunday was a high day at Miller, Rev. Ellis preached one of those old time revival sermons from 120th Psalm. Everybody enjoyed it. After the sermon Dr. Klutz from Chester who is representing the observance of International Golden Rule, gave a talk on "Saving the Lives of Thousands of Destitute across the Great Sea." His talk was very touching.

The Sunday school assembled 4:00 P. M. with the superintendent, E. F. Floyd, and the corps of teachers. The boys and girls are home from the various colleges. They are taking active part in the Sunday school. The following ones were called on to speak: Mr. Henry Butler, graduate of Allen University; Miss Etta Pratt, Claflin University; Miss Anjarone Young, a graduate from State College, and Ralph Williams Benedict College. Rain is much needed in our section.

Miss Mary B. and Addie Pearson left for Washington, D. C., Friday, June 12th, also Mrs. Hannah Smith and son. Mrs. A. J. Long and Mrs. Eliza Harris to New York city where they will spend their summer vacation.

Dr. Moses preached a wonderful sermon at Bethlehem Baptist Church on last Thursday night, taking as his subject "Loose the mule and bring him to me." He was accompanied by his two sons.

Mrs. Virginia the sister of Mrs. M. R. Graham is here on a visit from Winston Salem, N. C. She is the guest of her sister on College St.

Miss Lillie Reed has made her return from Spartanburg, where she was called on account of the illness of her mother. She reported that her mother is much better.

Uncle Moses Thomson died June 12th. He was the oldest colored man that was living in Newberry. His oldest son that is living is 75 years old. He will be missed around Newberry.

The work on Bethlehem Baptist Church, and Miller Chapel A. M. E. Church is going on nicely, a few more weeks they will be ready for the grand lodge convention.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jones and Mr. Elijah Cannon were united in happy wedlock on June 15th. Mr. Cannon is all smiles now; he will take his bride on a trip later.

We regret very much to have Mr. Charles Browne our reporter leave us for the summer.

Among the friends who left us for the summer were Miss Amelia Atkinson and Mr. Charles Browne for Hampton to attend summer school. Prof. J. B. Beck and Misses C. Fair and M. Kelly to State College. Prof. G. W. Howard and Mrs. B. M. Sawyer, of Spartanburg. Misses B. A. Bianchi O. Saunders and M. Vause are to spend the hot months in the "land of the sky."

Miss Maria Fraser entertained the Smarter Set at her home in honor of her sister, Miss Mae Fraser of the graduating class of Howard High, 1925. A delightful time was had. A delicious course of ice cream and cake was served. The party was held on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Thomas Horry entertained the Youth Improvement Club Monday evening. A short meeting was held after which our dear friend Mr. Gill gave us an inspiring talk and offered to entertain the club at the home of Mr. A. Q. Dunmore, which was heartily accepted. Messrs. P. Brown A. Green and Misses C. Polly, P. Williams, G. Myers were among the visitors.

Mrs. Edith Broadway of Jacksonville, Fla., is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Kelly.

Messrs. H. K. Atkinson and C. K. Knox returned home after a motor trip through the upper section of the state.

We are glad to have Miss Marion Baxter, one of the pretty society leaders, with us for the summer.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Thomas P. Fraser is going well with his Holton trumpet at Bay Shore Beach, Va.

FAIRFIELD BAPT. CHURCH

Sunday gone 14th, was a great day at Fairfield Baptist Church, as we had on a drive for one hundred dollars. A large crowd was present to help in the rally. The people of Fairfield are faithful, and they have the spirit of fidelity.

The church was divided into clubs as follows:

Club No. 1-Sister Annie Strother $18.15; Sister Sarah Clinkscales $12.82; Sister Sallie Haze $9.01; Total raised by club No. 1 $39.98.

Club No. 2-Sister Ada Clinkscales $9.97; Sister Annie Richie $7.60; Sister S. Williams $6.80; total raised by club No. 2 $24.37.

Club No. 3-Sister Lola Crawford $9.20; Sister Olivia Covington $5.03; Sister Bessie Cannon $4.10; total raised by Club no. 3 $18.33.

Club No. 4-Sister Maggie Woodson $9.43; Sister Edna Harper $7.90; total raised by Club No. 4 $17.33.

Grand total raised by the clubs $100.01.

The Missionary Sisters of Fairfield Baptist Church ought to be exalted for the splendid effort that they have made in order that the church might be embellished.

We thank the friends of Fairfield for the help that they rendered.

The afternoon was given to the children, as it was Children's Day, under the leadership of S. P. Clinkscales, the superintendent, the boys and girls were fully prepared to make it a success.

Come to Fairfield Baptist Church where you are always welcome.

John Strother, Clerk, Rev. A. Ware, Pastor.

NEW LIGHT BEULAH BAPTIST CHURCH

This was a high day at the above named church. The Sunday school had a large attendance. All the teachers were at their posts. A fine lesson was discussed.

When the hour for church service arrived, our pastor, Rev. J. B. Barber, ascended the rostrum accompanied by others and read as a scripture lesson St. John 7th chapter. Prayer was offered by Bro. Epps from Raleigh Chapel Baptist Church. The pastor lined hymn "Come ye that love the Lord and let your joys be known." He took as a text St. John 7:67: "will ye also go away?" from which he preached a soul stirring sermon in short, for there was much work on hand to be accomplished, such as the administering of the Lord's Supper, the Holy Communion and an annual thanksgiving turn out of the Odd Fellows at this point the sermon was preached for this occasion by the Rev. R. W. Jenkins, D. D. of Eastover, S. C., which was highly enjoyed by the large crowd that thronged the church and aisles to hear him. The folks enjoyed two fine logical sermons on this date. We are proud beyond degree, of our great leader the Lord has given us and we thank God for his good gift to us for our spiritual leaders.

NEWS FROM ABBEVILLE AND VICINITY.

Everything dry around here, the rain has been in sight but did not reach us however we are still hopeful. Since our last writing Mrs. C. J. Smith, (wife of Rev. J. B. Smith) and daughters, Maude E., Maggie A., and Inez Smith have gone to the mountains of N. C. to spend the summer. We hope for them pleasure and profit.

Mr. Alfred Jones who was reported sick last week is convalescent at this writing which will be good news to his many friends.

Mr. Phillip Blackwell an old gentleman living near Latimers was stricken with paralysis last Saturday while attempting to mount his mule to ride to Calhoun Falls. He is at the home of his son Mr. George Blackwell of Calhoun Falls. Our sympathy goes out for him in his affliction. We pray for him.

The rally at Glover's A. M. E. church next Sunday is the watch-word. All roads lead to Glover's. The choir from Rockford, St. Mary, Mt. Hebron, Springfield and others are expected.

Two services will be held. Come and worship with us. You are welcome. Welcome Come to Abbeville the "friendly city." If your long hair and stubborn beard worry you see Messrs. Jenkins, Devlin, McAllister, Woods and McMahan, our tonsorial artists. If you be hungry see Mesdames Wilson, Williams and Enright on Church St., or Madam Jones on Washington they will appease your carnivorous appetites. If your moulders and grinders do not function well, see our ever ready Dentist, Dr. L. G. Humphries on lower Main St., near Post office. If the crease gets out, or you find one trouser leg the longer, hurry to Mr. Samuel Edwards where he will courteously and politely make the needed adjustment. You will find him to the rear of the Eureka Hotel.

Finally if you decide to leave this old world for that unknown region in other words if you fall on that eternal sleep here, your friends may give a hurry call to P. H. Horne or L. A. Richie our popular undertakers and they will motor you to your last resting place without a jostle. So you see Abbeville is indeed "The Friendly City."

IN ASHEVILLE

Misses Leona Hagood, Hattie Belle Watson and Jessie A. Thompson left Columbia Sunday June 7th for Asheville, N. C., The Land of the Sky, where they will spend the summer.

Misses Watson, Thompson and Hagood of Columbia accompanied by Messrs: W. L. Love and D. H. Woodbury, students of Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, N. C. took the winding road across Mountain meadows to the summit of Sun Set Mountain. While on top of the mountain the evening was delightfully spent in kodaking and chasing up and down hills after which a palatable lunch was served by the young ladies. Lunch eaten, we set out for home. We took the shortest trails and finally unexpectedly came upon Grove Park Inn, one of the leading summer resort Hotels in the country and there made quite a few observations. After making the observations, we again pursued our course homeward. The attire for the outing was knicker suits and all the participants were dressed accordingly.

The evening was joyfully ended with a whist party at the home of Miss Annie Moore 68 Clingman Ave.

NOTICE.

Rev. James E. Jackson, one of the world's wonderful evangelists will preach at the Royal Theatre, 1008 Washington street Sunday evening at 4:30. Come hear him. Rev. Jackson is known all over the state, Florida Georgia and throughout South Carolina. There will be lots of our white friends out. Several solos and excellent music. Everybody cordially invited.

Rev. W. P. Blair, Pastor.
