J. D. CARR, ASHEVILLE EDITOR, IN COLUMBIA

AT ZION BAPTIST CHURCH - SUNDAY NIGHT

Special to The Leader:

Wilmington, N. C., June 19—Arriving here this morning in company with a party of friends, the Hon. J. D. Carr, editor of The Asheville Enterprise of Asheville, N. C., is spending the week-end as a guest of his home town people in this city. While here Mr. Carr is having "his times" at Shell Island Beach near this city the leading summer resort in the world for race people.

Mr. Carr is on a tour in the interest of The Enterprise. He has been to Durham, New Burn, Rocky Mountain, and from here he goes to Florence, Sumter, Columbia and Greenville.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Our Sunday School was largely attended last Sunday. We were supplied with six additional teachers to our teaching force, viz: Misses Minnie Walker, graduate of Scotia Seminary, class of 1925; Annie Mae Hall, Benedict College, Class of 1925; Lorine Herrin, Booker T. Washington High School class of 1925; Mesdams Paralee Davenport and Maggie Marshall also were assigned to the teaching force, as well as Miss Smoot, Benedict College, class of 1925.

We have on a drive for an average attendance of 600 pupils by the time of the meeting of the State Sunday and B. Y. P. U. Convention next month in Laurens.

Mrs. Emma McGraw's Funeral

At 11:30 A. M. the church was packed both upstairs and down when the pastor announced that the funeral of sister Emma McGraw because her remains had to be sent to the Gethsemane Baptist Church at Blairs S. C. Mrs. McGraw was one of the best women in Zion Baptist Church. She leaves a husband and three children to mourn her home going. Peace to her ashes and rest to her weary soul.

At New Brookland in P. M.

The pastor with four cars of his faithful members motored over to New Brookland Baptist Church in the afternoon. Dr. White preached a wonderful sermon. Children Day was observed there at night, appropriate exercises being held at the conclusion of which Lic. Charley Simons preached.

Back to Zion

A great crowd came out to Zion Sunday night, the pastor preached the text: "the disciples were called Christians first at Antioch," after the sermon he led two happy souls down into Jordan where they were buried in baptism. The ladies of Zion and Brookland Baptist churches are preparing to leave next week for the Women's Baptist State Convention in Greenwood. Children Day will be observed at Zion next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock P. M. Our annual picnic will come off the last week in this month.

Children Day at Zion

Children Day will be observed by the Superintendent, teachers and pupils of the Zion Baptist Sunday School, Sunday afternoon, June 21st.

The public is cordially invited to attend these exercises, as you will surely enjoy them as usual. The program will start at 4:00 P. M. exactly.

ST. JAMES A. M. E. CHURCH

415 Henderson St.
Sunday was a high day with us; the pastor was at his best all day. Prayer service began at 5:00 o'clock, Sunday morning with quite a few of the sisters in attendance. Sorry to say, but the pastor was the only person from the opposite sex in attendance. From the early dawn of Christianity women have been on the alert, and they seem to hold their own.

Divine service began (11:15) at the usual hour; the pastor preached on the subject the "Great Commission." Sunday afternoon we were at Emanuel in Kendalltown with Dr. D. M. McGill and his people. We are very grateful to our members who accompanied us on this trip. We can truthfully say that from the day we landed on Wheeler's Hill to the present, we have every reason to be grateful and proud, and none to regret.

We attempted to preach Sunday P. M. from the subject "God's Provisional Care for his People." Text I Peter 5:6-7. Our choir sang in such a manner as to cause every one to take notice. St. James has some choir. Sunday night we were back at our usual stand and attempted to preach on the subject "The New Life," Text Gal. 2:20; I am crucified with Christ, nevertheless I live, not I, but Christ liveth in me.

Our members are very enthusiastic about the work of the church. Sister Maggie Young is still at the head of Stewardship board No. 1. Sister Maria Long is secretary and Sister Elida Young, treasurer. Board No. 2 is being presided over by the venerable sister, Hester Simpkins; Sister Belle Washington, secretary and Sister Rosa Sox by treasurer. We have several other clubs which are doing commendable work, but space will not permit our going into details.

Bro. J. A. Lyles, the efficient secretary of the church is an ideal man; an optimist of unsurpassing merit. We are thankful to say that the two churches on Wheeler's Hill, viz: St. James A. M. E. Church and Antioch Baptist church are working coherently together. We are told that this is unprecedented.

Our friend and co-worker, Rev. Crumpton is a big hearted man. I don't see him as a minister of the gospel; I see him as a man. I feel safe in saying before the gospel of Jesus Christ will have its desired effect in the hearts of men, denominational prejudices must be eradicated.

Diversified opinions, have caused many people to stay out of the church; this should not be, for God is depending upon (us) the ministers to evangelize the world. If there is any class of men who ought to stick together they are the ministers of the gospel. More anon.
J. P. Washington.

JONES CHAPEL A. M. E. ZION CHURCH—Cor. Blossom and Sumter Sts.

invites every one to come and join in with the great work in which she is engaged at soul saving. The only Institution in all the world upon which any one can depend for comfort when comfort is needed is the Christian Church, and it is here where the comforts are rendered in every way to make one happy. Great gospel sermons, Great gospel singing, great Christian ushers to serve you, and friendly handshake at all times to make you feel at home.

Last Sunday was another high day in Zion, with a full Sunday School, a great Christian Endeavor, and two wonderful sermons by the Pastor, who seems unusually happy in these days of Christian advancement in delivering the gospel messages. All who come and hear him once, are great advocates of the work he is carrying on with those great workers who love the cause of God, and for that reason the congregation is increasing each week at a very delightful rate.

Next Sunday will be another high day. The Pastor, Dr. R. Alexander Carroll will preach in the morning as usual, subject "The World's Greatest Wonder," and in the afternoon he will preach to the Associated Boards of the Stewardesses of the City, and in the evening, at 8:00 P. M. he will preach again, subject "The Man Who Said Goodbye to God."

Services as follows: 5:30 A. M. Prayer Service. 10:30 A. M. preaching. 4:00 P. M. Preaching as above stated. 6:30 P. M. V. C. E. Society with a well prepared program, subject "Life as a Hurdle Race." 12:30 P. M. Sunday School. 8:00 P. M., subject "The Man Who Said Goodbye to God." Come worship all day with us, for you will surely come again.

FIRST CALVARY CHURCH

The Church with a Welcome.
Sunday June 14th was a full day. All of the services were good and well attended. The Superintendent Mr. H. W. Harrison and his teachers showed much interest in teaching the many pupils present.

At the morning service the Pastor, Rev. H. W. Long, preached on Eph. 4:5 which was both spiritual and instructive and at the close of the service nine candidates were baptized.

Promptly at seven o'clock the B. Y. P. U. was opened by the President, Mr. M. S. Stewart. Mr. Joseph Philips had charge of the program which was splendid and consisted of the following: Mandolin Solo by Clarence White, recitation by Miss Bouknight, and a violin Solo by Mr. James Rosemond. The subject of the lesson (Recreation for All) was eloquently discussed by Miss Ruth Watson, Mr. M. S. Stewart and the Pastor. Dr. Long said, "If some millionaire would ask him how much money he wanted to build a church? he would ask for enough to purchase twenty acres of land on which he would build a Church, Playground, Swimming Pool, Gymnasium, Baseball and Football field and everything that would furnish the right kind of recreation for old and young to be directed under Christian supervision which would develop the whole man, mind body and spirit."

At 8:00 P. M. the Pastor preached an interesting and inspiring sermon from the text 2 Tim. 4:16. Subject "The Divine Best Man"

On Tuesday evening Dr. W. H. Moses Field Representative of the National Baptist Convention came to us and favored us with one of his timely and eloquent addresses. Dr. Moses is a great speaker and we are always glad to have him with us.

ST. PAUL BAPTIST CHURCH

NOTES; Anderson, S. C.

By Lillian Brown
After a period of being without a pastor and after labor and prayer we called Rev. Stephen C. Campbell, of Greenwood. After six months of hard labor we see the wisdom of our call. Many great things came to us about his work in Greenwood but like the Queen of Sheba "The half had not been told."

June the first thru the eight, was set apart for the installation with fitting subjects and appropriate music for the services. Rev. W. S. Thompson, Rev. J. C. Cowan, Rev. H. C. Anderson, Dr. H. Watkins, and Rev. Maddox preached very interesting sermons in keeping with the man and his work. Very good addresses and papers were made and read by Dr. C. W. Montgomery, Dea. Linzey Thompson, L. M. Grant. The essay of Mrs. Z. V. Williams on "The Ideal Pastor" was an eulogy to the life and work of the pastor. This was very very, good and was enjoyed by all.

Space fails me to go into the details of this great program as to the solos, trios, duets, and quartettes, for all of these were above the average. The music of all the visiting choirs was exceedingly grand, especially that of Dunn's Creek where Rev. Campbell first preached ten years ago.

The welcome addresses delivered by the various civic and church organizations were master pieces of oratory and full of thought. The response to these was made by that matchless, witty and fascinating leader of women, Mrs. B. L. Campbell.

Mrs. J. M. Walker of Morris Chapel gave a very fine summary of the work done in Greenwood for six years by the pastor; she with fitting words told of their efforts to retain him there and of the capability of our new pastor. Her talk gave St. Paul a new vision of our pastor.

Letters were read from the Mayor of Greenwood, the Banks, and many of the merchants commending the pastor to the people of Anderson. It has been a long time since we have had a pastor to come to us so highly recommended.

Sunday morning the pastor preached from Joshua 1:2. The installation sermon was preached by Rev. S. Oliver and was the climax. Oliver held the great congregation spellbound while he preached from the text "Feed the flock."

A purse of $50.00 was given to the pastor by the members and friends.

Monday night the city pastors, their wives, our members and friends assembled at the spacious parsonage for the great reception, where three hundred members and friends were served several courses of salads and pineapple iced. This was the greatest reception ever given by the church for any occasion and was enjoyed by all.

Tuesday night Dr. Moses preached a great sermon and more than three hundred dollars were raised in cash and subscriptions.

Our motto is Great St. Paul a great church for St. Paul must
