BENNETTSVILLE NEWS

Bennettsville, Aug.—The revival meeting in Marlboro vicinity is still a success. Too much can't be said about the week's meeting at Shiloh. Rev. Arnsbrock certainly preached enough to save every sinner in this county. Sunday was a day in Shiloh, honorable Rev. S. S. Youngblood, pastor, came in filled with God's spirit and never before has everybody enjoyed a better time. He sang a touching hymn "Give Me That Old Time Religion." This caused many hearts and minds to think. After this he had a number of special scripture topics read. He explained each. After his sermon every Christian went down in their hearts for these poor mourning souls, young men and ladies were shouting praise to God. One young man about 35 or 40 cried out thank God. This was a time. This is what God and his people love.

It was very sad to have one of our soldier boys, Mr. Johnnie Walker, return home dead from Alabama. Miss Mattie Walker returned home from New York City for the burial. He was put away with military honor. Prof. Willie Thomas arrived from Alabama to assist in putting the soldier to rest. It was impossible for him to stay more.

Little Ellersteen McCollum spent a short stay Sunday P. M. with the reporter and sisters. Little Margarie Youngblood also called.

Mr. T. W. and Mrs. Sophronia Dease Mr. L. D. Dease motored to Chesterfield, S. C. to spend the day with Rev. and Mrs. Foster. They reported quite a delightful trip.

Miss Essie M. McCuller returned home after a two-month stay with relatives and friends of Chester, S. C.

Rev. A. E. Lomax pastor of Evans Chapel A. M. E. Z. church was called to Sumter, S. C. to conduct a week's meeting at Clinton Chapel.

Rev. H. J. Causar pastored this church.

The meeting was splendid and soul-stirring. He visited many of the business places and spoke very highly of Sumter. Saturday he returned home to his place of service. Sunday A. M. he returned to Chesterfield where he will conduct a week's meeting for Rev. Wads, pastor of Chesterfield A. M. E. Z. church. Rev. Lomax is a great preacher. Evans Chapel will do wise to get Bishop E. D. W. Jones of Washington, D. C., to sign him to this charge for life stay, because Bennettsville needs just such men as A. E. Lomax.

We are delighted to have Mr. Johnnie Steven return home from the hospital in Columbia.

The reporter and sisters were delighted to have Miss Eddie M. Stubbs, Miss Mabel Reese, Little Helen D. Covington called to spend short stay Wednesday P. M. also Miss Ruth S. Covington a student of State Normal School in Fayetteville, N. C. She is making good. These are very pleasant little girls and always full of smiles.

Rev. Jones of Florence, S. C., is taking precious care of Rev. P. B. Mdo-dana.

Mrs. Lucy Anne McKay and son Larenzil McKay arrived home from Harrisburg, Pa., after spending a three month stay with her son Warren McKay. She reported a delightful stay.

Rev. and Mrs. Youngblood, and Little Margarie spent Sunday P. M. with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McCollum.

The birth day party given to Mrs. Laura McCleod in honor of her sister, Edynora McKay was quite a success. She received many presents.

Miss Isabelle Sanders received a splendid position to take a special nurse training course in the Emergency Hospital, Washington, D. C. Trust she will make good. Miss Isabella is a sister to the reporter, and is a splendid young lady for that position. This means something for Bennettsville girls.

Mrs. Kissie Moore is visiting her daughter Julie and son Kithler Moore, Washington, D. C., for a month rest.

Quite a happy time with Mrs. Mary
