

ISSUES CALL FOR FOOT-BALL PRACTICE AT HOWARD.

(By The Associated Negro Press.) Washington, D. C., Sept.—Coach Watson issued a call for Howard University Foot ball candidates to report on the University campus beginning last Monday. Seventy letters were sent out inviting all of last year's squad and a large number of new men to report. Coaches L. L. Watson and Charles West have had frequent conferences with Captain Long concerning plans for the coming season. All phases of the season's campaign have been worked out in detail and candidates for the team have been impressed with the importance of pre-season training with the result that letters from men all over the country are pouring into the Coach's office, reassuring him of hearty cooperation.

Followers of the team will be interested to know that the following "vets" among others have indicated that they will be on hand:—Captain Long, Campbell, Sallie, Former Captain Dokes, Smith, Dan Miller, Geo. Miller, Martin, Kelley, Payne, "Dick" McClain, Braden and Joe Dodson. These old Timers expect to furnish plenty of competition for the new boys. There will be hot times on the old campus from Monday, September 14th until the Bisons have crushed the savage Lincoln Lions on Thanksgiving Day in Philadelphia.

SAYS AMERICAN WHITES HAVE INDIAN TAIN

Fairfield, Conn., Sept. Practically every American family has the blood of Indians running through its veins, according to Edward Willard Deming, painter and sculptor of the red man with whom he has lived for nearly twenty years. Deming asserts that the taint is nothing to be ashamed of because the Indian blood brought vitality with it. He lays as the basis of his assumption the fact of the scarcity of white women in colonial days.

JUDGE TERMS KISSING A CRIME.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept.—When one of Raleigh's alert police officers discovered Graham Humphries, white, seated in an automobile, amorously kissing Miss Rossella Franklin, also white, he arrested the couple and had them carried to the city jail. They were given a hearing before Judge W. G. Harris, who, although there is no statute forbidding public kissing, held that the couple had committed a misdemeanor, no matter if the girl was willing, and fined the young man ten dollars.

ABBEVILLE BOYS AND GIRLS OFF FOR SCHOOL.

The following Abbeville boys and girls are leaving for various colleges this week and next: To Allen University, Misses Mary T. Green, Ruth Harrison, Oregene Owens. To State College, Orangeburg, S. C., Misses Ruth Butler, Helen Latimer, Eunice Whitlock, Lucia and Sallie Mae Taylor and Mr. Floyd Butler. To Hampton: Mr. Ward Reed. To Fisk, Nashville, Tenn., Mr. Henry Bradford and Miss Elizabeth Thompson. To Johnson C. Smith, formerly Biddle, Charlotte, N. C., Mr. Horace Taylor. Abbeville is proud of these boys and girls, and are hoping they will make good.

Bennettsville News.

Bennettsville, Sept. 17.—The greatest question in Marlboro county is this: I wonder if every body will leave for the northern states? Many regret ever so much to learn that Mr. Eddie Mrs. Marie Wadell and entire family left last week for Englewood, N. J. Also Mr. J. C. Brawley left for Washington, D. C. Trust them much success.

Mr. Teal Grace is very sick again, trust he will soon be better.

Misses Shada and Thelma Spears, Mr. James McKay, arrived from New York on their return to Claflin University for their school work.

Mrs. Mary Sanders also her little granddaughter, Margie L. McDonnell, spent the week-end in Fayetteville, N. C., with her two granddaughters Misses Anna and Rosie B. Sanders. They certainly gave them a royal time they kindly took them to the State Normal school.

Miss Eubirdie Gandy returned to her home in Raleigh, N. C., where she will begin her school work for this term. Her stay in the south was quite a success.

Miss Amanda Thomas was on the sick list last week.

The Reporter and sisters were delighted to have Mr. C. B. Brown, of Maxton, N. C., to call in a short while Sunday. He reported very good news for North Carolina.

Mr. J. W. Witherspoon was in the city Thursday and stopped a few minutes by the Reporter's. Also Mr. R. S. Summon. He spoke very much about school work.

Miss Beulah E. Graham looks very lonely since the death of her sister Miss Cloud Graham.

Quite a large number of our southern preachers are still away from their churches, attending the National Convention in Baltimore. Trust them much success.

Mrs. Josie Leak, spent the week-end with Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Butler of Hartsville, S. C.

They made many cheering compliments about his great work. He is in Baltimore; from there he will take his vacation.

Miss Mamie Crosland was home for a few days with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crosland. She is a splendid book-keeper for Rev. Butler.

Among the out of town people that were in the city last week spending awhile with Rev. A. E. and Mrs. Mary Lomax and family were: Rev. Dunlap, A. M. E. preacher of Wilmington, N. C., Mrs. Mary Rogers and son, daughter of Rev. A. E. Lomax and the only grand he owns, also Mrs. Florence Dixon and family and Mrs. Maria Dickson. They certainly spent a pleasant stay here. Trust the time will soon come for them to visit the city once more.

Prof. J. A. and Mrs. Kirk and Miss Pansy Kirk were out of the city Sunday visiting in the upper part of the county. They reported a pleasant trip.

Many of the teachers are leaving for their schools in different counties.

Mrs. Florence Peppers of Lumberton, N. C., spent a short stay with the Reporter and spoke very much about the work in North Carolina. She will teach in the Graded school there this term.

Miss Emma Drake called to see the Reporter Monday. Call again Miss Drake.

The people of this vicinity certainly are getting enough rain as it came like we wanted to see it. Oh, Christ is so good to us.

Rev. C. E. Lomax will preach in McCall this week. Trust the weather will be favorable.

Prof. Cunningham certainly pulled off a real project Friday night with his crew of people at McCall Graded school. Prof. is a splendid worker.

Many of the Claflin students left this afternoon for school. Trust them much success.

Miss Callie D. Sanders, Reporter.

Calhoun Falls News.

Mr. W. T. Edmunds, son of Hattie and two daughters Misses Addie Mae and Willie Ceal left on the 27th of August for Detroit, Mich., to spend some time with relatives and friends. They express themselves as having a pleasant trip; so much so that "Cupid" got busy and did his work so well that the following announcement was handed to the "Leader Man:"

MR. & MRS. W. T. EDMUNDS announce the marriage of their daughter

ADDIE MAE to MR. REESE WARE of Detroit, Mich.

September tenth, nineteen hundred twenty-five.

Residence: 1560 La Belle Ave. Good Mr. Ware you are both South Carolinians to the manor horn. Give good count of yourselves in the "border city." R.

News From Union.

By M. A. T.

The rain that fell a few days ago was thankfully received, we hope for more in a few days as much is needed in these parts.

Revival meeting at Bethel A. M. E. church was conducted last week by Dr. J. L. Benbow, of Georgetown. A large number attended each night and much interest was manifested by the unsaved. The meeting continues this week.

The evangelist Baxter McLendon ("Cyclone Mack") is preaching the gospel in its simplicity. He gives no sugar-coated pills. Many are crowding the tent each night. We hope that with these meetings now held in our town, that much good will be accomplished and Union made a better place to live in.

It was our privilege to hear Dr. D. H. Sims, president of Allen University, who preached at Bethel, Sept. 6th. After the sermon he spoke interestingly of Allen and the work being done there. Both the sermon and closing talk were much enjoyed by all.

The funeral of Mrs. Rochelle was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. Dr. Taylor of Zion A. M. E. church paid quite a tribute to the christian life and work of the deceased.

Dr. P. P. Watson State Missionary preached at Corinth Baptist church, Sept. 6th and 13th. Pastor Daniels being away. We feel like fatherless children when the Pastor is away so long. The madam is well and trying to get accustomed to the situation.

Dr. Watson emphasized the seven sayings from the cross. In our minds we were taken to Calvary and with keen interest we listened while he pictured the scene on Calvary. We appreciate the sermons and every suggestion given us and will endeavor to put them into practice.

St. Paul Baptist church is glad to have Dr. A. A. Sims back home again. He is looking well and no doubt feels much better since the madam and young ladies returned home.

Dr. and Mrs. Dawkins are delighted with their visit to Illinois and Michigan. All are glad that the trip was made in safety. Thelma and Eugene are so well pleased, they would not object going again.

The Musical Concert at Zion A. M. E. church a few weeks ago was very good. Miss Juanita Benson was directress. Each number rendered was enjoyed by the audience.

Prof. G. W. Bolden, is teacher of the Senior Class in S. S., under whose auspices the concert was given. He was loud in his praise for the service the young ladies rendered and for the undertaking of Miss Benson.

Schools and colleges are opening their doors. Many are preparing to enter. Union has always had a representative number attending.

Messrs. Shepard Gossett and L. Worthy will attend Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte, N. C.

Miss Russell Nicholas, the young pianist is teaching this session. Misses Roseboro, Moore, Davis and Harris are with Prof. J. Wilson, in Lancaster, S. C., where they are teaching the young idea how to shoot.

Miss Turner made a flying trip to "The Land of the Sky" did not remain long enough to enjoy the visit.

The Misses McDowell left a few days ago for their field of work—Chester and Rock Hill.

McBeth High School opened Monday morning 14th inst. No changes have been made with faculty. Prof. A. A. Sims is the honored principal. Mrs. Pride of Spartanburg is a member of the faculty this session. She is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Humphries on Cornwell street, where she will be made to feel "at home."

Miss Arthurree Twigg, of Sumter, S. C., is back at McBeth. She liked Union and the people so well, she decided to return and is now at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Daniels, who understand how to care for strangers.

Misses Herndon and Farr who were up in the mountains are at home ready for work with the others.

Mrs. Sallie Young, organist of of Corinth Baptist church, is quite well again and has taken up her work with new vigor. Choir members are attending rehearsal and making good music.

Mrs. Lizzie Dawkins on O' Shield street continues improving. We trust she will soon be fully restored to health. Mrs. Alice Love is somewhat better. She is cheerful and enjoys having you call. With all her suffering she has been very patient and still says: "Thy will Lord, be done." She is one of the older members of Corinth and at one time was Insurance Agent for the North Carolina Co.

Miss Alberta Ruff the young woman with a vision, entertained at tea, in honor of Mrs. Eunice Gadding, of Florida. It was a very pleasant gathering. The rain came in time to prevent two or three of the ladies being present. Those who were fortunate enough to go, ate and were filled, "as there was enough and to spare."

Mrs. Gadding and Eunice her daughter, will leave for their home in Florida.

Mrs. Julia McKissick, the mother of Mrs. Gadding will accompany them and will remain for a few weeks.

Miss Lillian Sartor our pharmacist, came to see her mother and sister. She was accompanied by the two little daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Brown of Greenville, S. C.

I am making slow progress with collections, and now take this method of asking all persons in arrears for the Palmetto Leader here or in reach of the Collector, to be ready, then "speak up and spriss yourself."

I've asked you once—will ask again. Please be ready with the cash. Hope to tell of my visit to the country later.

We are glad to have Mrs. Cornelia Rogers back home again. Her visit to the capital city was much enjoyed by her.
