

NEWBERRY NEWS.

Newberry, Oct. 13—The revival meeting closed at Miller Chapel A. M. E. Church on last Sunday evening. It was a successful meeting the result of which many souls were brought to Christ. There were twenty souls made glad during this ten nights' meeting. Rev. Crawford stirred up Newberry. After the morning sermon all the members were asked to remain after the benediction. Rev. Ellis stated the object as it is getting cold and we must have some heat. The good members decided to put in a heating plant and to have it installed at once. The meeting closed with the Lord's Supper. The Sunday School is still alive. Class No. 1 was the banner class taught by Mr. Jos. Davis. Mr. W. M. Gilder, teacher of Class No. 7 has had the banner class but has given up. Each boy and girl is asked to bring a friend with them next Sunday to Sunday School.

Last Sunday was a very busy day at James Hopewell Baptist Church. Rev. H. M. Taylor of Columbia is pastor of this church. At 12 o'clock our pastor preached a soul stirring sermon which made us feel like we were in a summer revival meeting.

We are always glad to have visitors with us. Dea. S. R. Reeder knows how to make them welcome. The collection was very good. The two clubs, Captains, Sisters Ella R. Reeder and Ida Mae Werts made a remarkable report. Club 1 reported $16.00, Sister Ella W. Reeder, Captain. Club 2 Sis. Ida Mae Werts $11.08. Total collection for the day $57.03 After collection the Lord's Supper was given. We shook hands and went away rejoicing.

Mrs. Fannie McKinzy, the wife of Jas. McKinzy departed this life, Oct. 11th. She was born Sept. 15th, 1869, age 56 years, 2 weeks and 4 days. She was a devoted mother, a good neighbor and a good Christian. She leaves a husband, one son, two daughters, one daughter-in-law, one son-in-law, two brothers, one niece and a host of friends to mourn her loss. She was conscious of her death. The following relatives are here: Mrs. Susie Davis, Columbia, Mrs. Laura Holman, Mr. George Holman, Columbia; Mr. Gilliam Holman, Asheville, N. C., Mr. Guss Russell, Winnsboro. Patterson and Pratt are the undertakers.

The following are on the sick list: Maybell Davis, 500 Dayton St.; Mrs. Celestine Martin, 625 Drayton St.; Mrs. Annie Robinson, 800 Hunter St.; Mr. M. C. Shears on Gilder St.; Geo. W. Starks and Gifford Pellier. Their friends will be glad to know that they are on the mend except Mr. Shears.

Miss Addie B. Jones has a class of girls started at Mt. Bethel Germany School in the sewing department. She is teaching them how to darn and mend such things as they have at home to mend.

Mr. E. F. Floyd is the agricultural teacher. He has the boys in charge. You can tell where they go along. The boys have finished gathering their product. Some of the boys have picked one bale, some a half but most of the boys will make a bail of cotton this hard year. We are glad to see the boys in good heart to continue again next year.

There were twenty-one who took the fall examination at the court house on last Friday and Saturday for certificates to teach; four men and seventeen women; all colored.

PALMETTO SANITARIUM

State Park, S. C.—Please allow space in your valuable paper for us to say a few words in regards to the wonderful entertainment we enjoyed on Sunday afternoon. We the nurses and inmates of the Sanitarium, wish to thank Mr. W. M. Manigault for bringing out Mr. Ed. F. Davis Band. The music was highly appreciated, we have not words to express our gratitude toward them. It was very inspiring to see such a nice band of young boys of our race, some not more than twelve years of age.

We were also glad to have Mrs. Manigault, Mrs. Davis, wife of the leader of the band and Miss Raiford of the Waverly Hospital.

Now that you have made every heart rejoice, we do want you all to come again at your earliest convenience. There were smiles left on every one. You have a standing invitation as we are always glad to have our people come out, it makes us feel that we are not forsaken nor forgotten.

Very respectfully,
C. M. Ervin, Graduate Nurse
