

Morehouse Wins Close Game
 In one of the most thrilling games of foot ball ever seen in the Capital City Morehouse defeated Benedict by a score of 7 to 6. Benedict outplayed Morehouse, all through the game, and showed mid-season form. The game went scoreless for three full quarters and in the last quarter Morehouse managed by a series of off tackle plays to place the pig skin across the white chalk line for a touch down. The toe of "Dago Red" added the extra point with a drop kick. The Morehouse Tigers out weighed Benedict, but by skillful playing the latter held the former many times when there was just a yard to gain. With only two minutes to play and the score 7 to 0 against her, Benedict opened an aerial attack that was too fast for Morehouse. Two long passes were completed with one back that put Benedict over the goal line. Cunningham shot a pass to Jones for 20 yards, then Graham shot another to Williams, who reached into the air and nabbed it on the run behind the goal. The extra was blocked by Morehouse and with only a half minute to play the game with Morehouse in possession of the ball. Benedict carries her warriors to Charlotte to meet Johnson C. Smith on the 23rd. This will be a thrilling game also. The annual classic at Fair-Allen vs Benedict.

Booker Washington High Athletic News
 The opening event of the Booker Washington Athletic Association was a dance given at the Elk's Hall at 8:30 Friday night, which was tended by unbelievable success. The fact that the dance was attended by great numbers, shows what standing the members of the club, the name of which itself holds in the opinion of the public. It seems as though everybody who heard the least inkling of there being a dance at the hall given by Booker Washington Athletic Club came to enjoy themselves. Merely the name, Booker Washington, caused a great many to attend. The teachers in charge were Mrs. Sutton, Misses Saxon, Thomas and Mack. The officers were as follows: Thomas Howard, President; John Johnson, Vice-President; Henry Starks, Secretary; James Wise, Treasurer; Bruce Bailey, Student Manager; Gerald Roberts, Reporter.

 Sunday October 18, was a great day in our little city by the sea. We were highly honored with the presence of our presiding Bishop, W. W. Beckett, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock he preached at Big Beth-el. Rev. J. L. Benbow, pastor. The sermon was great and the music rendered by the choir was the best ever heard. The church was almost crowded to its utmost capacity. Collection for the morning was $65.70 and about two hundred dollars, Dollar money. At 3:30 P. M., the Bishop preached at Dickerson A. M. E. church, of which Rev. W. P. Carolina is pastor. At 8:00 p. m., St. Stephen's church was proudly honored with another inspiring and instructive sermon by the Bishop. The lesson entitled "The Christian Citizen," for discussion, which was to be led by Miss Williams a teacher in the Howard High School of this city, gave place to a very interesting program, gotten up by Miss Zenobia Hudson. The Leaguers are glad to have with them again Mr. Andrew J. Mack, Vice President, who after spending the entire summer in the great city of the world, New York. He was called upon by the president to speak to the League. He spoke very interestingly and gave the Junior League as well as the senior league some very inspiring thoughts to feed upon. His remarks made lasting impression and will not be forgotten. He always gets the attention of his hearers whenever he gets up to say something for they know that they will be highly benefited.
