

THIS PAPER IS DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE.

The Palmetto Leader

SUBSCRIBE AND ADVERTISE—Current, Social and General News.

VOL. I.—NO. 45.

COLUMBIA, S. C., SATURDAY, NOV. 14, 1925.

5c A COPY.

SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN OPENS TO-DAY

Rev. G. H. MITCHELL, D. D.

The above cut is the likeness of the Rev. G. H. Mitchell, D. D., S. S. S., (Soul Saving Specialist) of Kansas City, Mo., who is here in the Palmetto Capital conducting, perhaps one of the greatest revivals in the history of this city.

Dr. Mitchell conducted the fall revival here of last year at the Zion Baptist church, Dr. J. C. White, pastor, at which meeting he took in 218 souls in 21 days. His meeting at Zion this year is far greater in spiritual fervor, in depths of gospel truths expanded and in attendance.

The Rev. George H. Mitchell is a young man only 34 years old and has been preaching fifteen years, and in that time he has brought 34,000 souls to the Lord, making 1000 converts for every year he has lived in the world.

There is the World's greatest Boy Preacher, with him, his son, Orlander, whose sermons through Big Zion out on the streets with the multitudes.

His wife, Mrs. Bessie Mitchell is an invaluable help to her husband and son, they all are wholly consecrated to the service and hence the great results. May men and women are being brought to the Lord. Columbia is stirred as never before. Come and see!

ODD FELLOWS ANNOUNCE WINNERS OF SCHOLARSHIPS.

Sumter, S. C., Nov. 6, '25. To The Palmetto Leader: Will you please allow this announcement to appear in your paper for the benefit of your Odd Fellow Readers.

The following were the winners of the Odd Fellow Scholarships: State College—Mabel E. Pendergrass. Claflin University—Jacob S. Blocker, Jr. Allen University—Hessie W. Lane. Benedict College—Addie Beatrice Burrell.

I. D. DAVIS, Chairman of Committee.

A child's saving bank with a slot just like the modern kind has been dug up at Utica.

24th INFANTRYMAN FREED LEAVES ONLY 22 OF ORIGINAL 67 IN JAIL.

(N. A. A. C. P. News Service) Houston riot, to 22 out of the original 67 sentenced to life and long terms. The N. A. A. C. P. has been informed by Major Edgar King, Acting Parole Officer at Fort Leavenworth and expects that every one of the 22 will have been paroled in release on home parole, Nov. 1, 1928. Since the N. A. A. C. P. of James Gaffney, former 24th Infantryman, who will go to Charlotte, N. C. This reduces the number of Houston Martyrs, imprisoned were still 55 in prison, 33 men for alleged participation in the

CLEVELAND SEGREGATORS TRY TO OUST COLORED CHILDREN FROM SCHOOL.

(N. A. A. C. P. News Service) C. P. office. Harry E. Davis, member of the Ohio Legislature, and member of the Board of Directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People reports an attempt to oust 12 colored children from the schools of Shaker Heights near Cleveland, as an act of reprisal against Dr. E. A. Bailey, who refused to vacate his new home in that section. The children ousted came from Beechwood Village which, having no schools of its own, had contracted with Shaker Heights to give schooling to all the 60 or 70 Beechwood Village children. Mr. Davis writes to the N. A.

"MADE GREAT HEADWAY" WIRES HAYS N. A. A. C. P. LAWYER AT SWEET TRIAL.

(N. A. A. C. P. News Service) State is presenting its case but have made great headway today on cross-examination. New York, Nov. 6.—Trial was begun on Friday, Nov. 5, of Dr. O. H. Sweet, Mrs. Sweet and nine other Negroes accused of murder for defending Dr. Sweet's home from a mob. Arthur Garfield Hays, of New York, assisting Clarence Darrow in the defense, today sent a telegram to the National Office of the N. A. A. C. P. from Detroit in which he says: "All defendants tried together

STATE COLLEGE NOTES.

institution is Miss Mabel E. Pendergrass, of Manning. This means assistance from that source of $100.00 for the college year. It is stated that Miss Pendergrass not only made the highest average, but a very commendable record in the competitive examination which more than twenty others entered. She is a product of Howard High School, Georgetown. Prof. W. M. Buchanan, of Agricultural department, has been assigned by President Wilkinson to field work for the year in connection with Smith-Hughes agricultural instruction in the public schools. His duties will take him into many parts of the State during the year, where he will give aid and direction to expanding interests in the growing field of vocational activity. Armistice Day was fittingly celebrated by faculty and students this week. Among features were reports from the re-

Prize Contest for 5,000 New Subscribers Now Open.

Substantial Prizes Offered.

Enroll Your Name Today and Win One of the Valuable Prizes on Page Three.

We are today beginning our First Annual Prize Contest to increase our already large list of satisfied readers. There are many interested readers of Negro journals that have not had the opportunity of reading or subscribing to our paper. Many would avail themselves of the opportunity so to do, if only approached. This is an opportunity we are offering our agents and any interested person, who may chance to learn of the contest; regardless whether you are at present an agent or subscriber.

It is a paramount duty of every Negro person to have within his home a paper published by his own group. Every race man will have one.

We believe we have the paper at last that will meet the requirements of the particular public at the same time meeting the approval of the most critical. To continue this paper, we must have the support of the general public. We must have an increased number of paid in advance subscribers. To this end this Campaign is started.

The rules of the contest will be fully explained in next week's issue; when we will add three more prizes to our list.

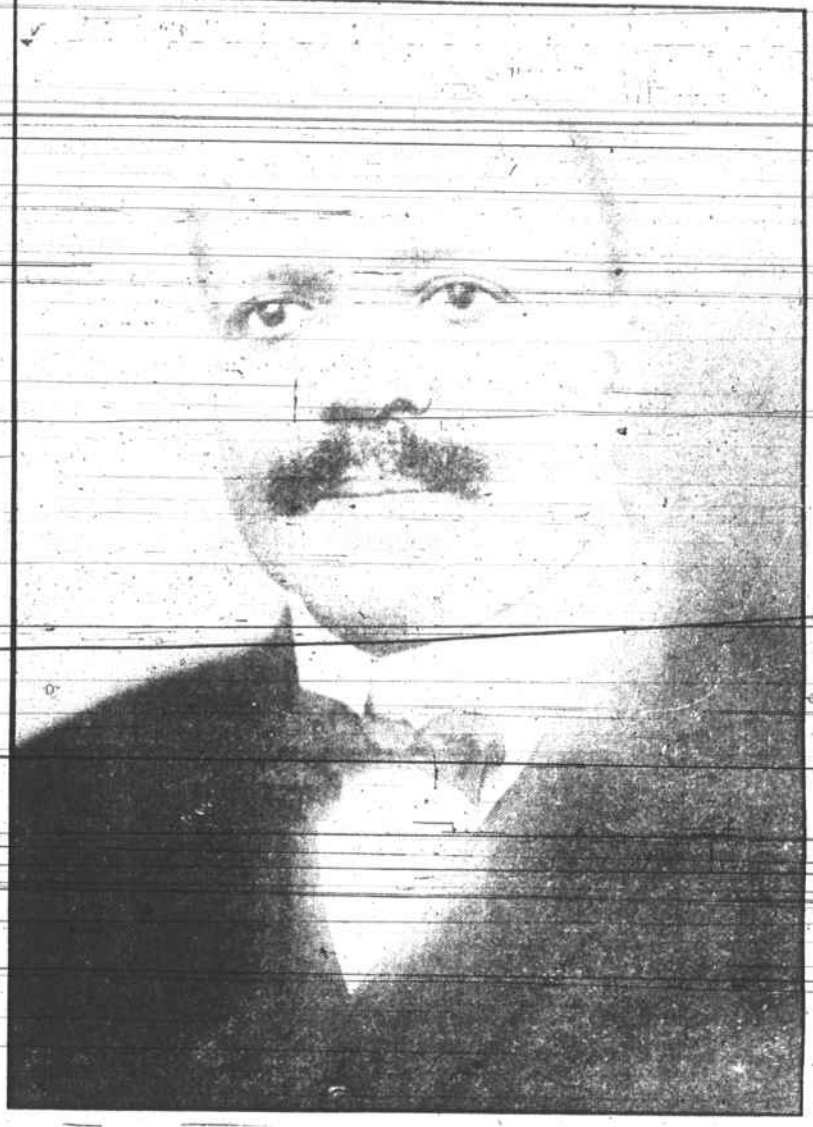

cont conference on world peace held in Atlanta by groups representing college christian associations. Prof. M. F. Whitaker, an ex-Lieut. A. E. F., was master of ceremonies. Several ex-service men are students here.

Among coming events are Near East Relief Day, December 6; Smith-Hughes conference November 27-28; Smith-Lever conference December 15-16. The Smith-Hughes conference will bring to the college more than sixty men and women teachers of agriculture and home economics to discuss their problems and plans for the year.

Recent notable visitors here include Prof. G. P. Phenix, Vice-Principal of Hampton Institute and Dr. Ray S. Tomlin, President of Paine College, Augusta, Ga. The latter was accompanied by several members of his faculty.

The college is preparing to conduct Study Centers for teachers in several counties this winter. President Wilkinson's arranging plans with State authorities to this end. This will afford exceptional advantages to our group heretofore impossible.

Prof. B. E. Mays, president of the Alumni Association, will soon send out plans and suggestions for a wider and more adequate program of interest in college support from this source. It is expected that an alumni secretary will soon be appointed to travel over the State and elsewhere visiting graduates and ex-students concerning the movement. More about this later.

Rev. W. MANCE, A. M., D. D.

Former President of Allen University, Columbia, S. C., and who has been pastoring in Nashville, Tenn., for the past Conference year, has returned to the State and will resume his work in his home State. Dr. Mance made quite a brilliant record as President of Allen University during the eight years of his tenure. He was personally responsible for the aid secured for the school from the Jeanes-Slater and General Education Board.

All South Carolinians and his Church brethren in particular are proud of Dr. Mance's return.

COLORED WOMAN LEAVES $1,000 TO N. A. A. C. P. IN WILL.

The late Mrs. Josephine Y. James Weldon Johnson, N. A. Kane bequeathed $1,000 to the A. C. P. Secretary, said: National Association for the Advancement of Colored People reaching the point in prosperity it was learned when her will and thoughtfulness where they was filed for probate in New York City. This is the second of substantial bequest the N. A. A. C. P. has received within a year, causes marks a most significant Commenting on the bequest, step in race development.

REV. J. C. WHITE SOUNDS THE "S. O. S." CALL FOR MORRIS COLLEGE TO THE SUN-DAY SCHOOLS AND B. Y. P. U.'S OF THE STATE.

To all Sunday Schools, B. Y. P. U.'s, District Sunday School Conventions of South Carolina to rally next Sunday for this most important cause.

This appeal I make to you if you cannot give your thoughts an urgent necessity. On Thanksgiving Day, which is the last Thursday in this month (November) is the Rally Day at Morris College to pay for the new building there, which has been erected there since the last Commencement to replace College $50, $25, or $10. Plenty the Boys' Dormitory lost by of B. Y. P. U.'s $5.00; Conventions a few days before the school closed. I am asking every Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. of this State, as well as to every Sun-day School Convention in this State to send to Dr. J. J. Starks, band on Thanksgiving Day, president of Morris College, at once as large an amount of money as you possibly can, if to the sea. We must pay Morris College out of debt on Nov. giving Day. Send whatever money you can at once so that your school or B. Y. P. U.'s name may be read out on that day.

I appeal to every pastor of the State, and Superintendent Carolina. J. C. WHITE, Pres., of the State Sunday School and of B. Y. P. U. Convention of South Carolina.