We have received several requests for Teachers; also requests from Teachers for Schools in the past month; which prompt us to offer our Service as the Connecting Link between Principals, Patrons and Teachers.

Our Paper is read all over South Carolina; and enjoys a good circulation in the adjacent States. A Want Ad in The Leader will bring results.

If you desire a position as Teacher; or if you have a position and wish a better one, that will pay more money, list your name with us.

STATE COLLEGE HOLDS JOHNSON C. SMITH.

Orangeburg, S. C. Nov. 13.—At the Richland County Fair in Columbia, Friday, South Carolina State Gridlers met the Johnson C. Smith aggregation and succeeded in holding them to a score, Johnson C. Smith 6; State College 0.

During the first half, both teams, after a few attempts to plunge the line resorted to defensive play by kicking the ball on the first down. Near the close of the second quarter, Taylor, by brilliant playing, intercepted a pass and carried the ball into Johnson C. Smith's territory. This play was followed by a long pass from Hopkins to Edwards, which put the ball within two yards of the opponents' goal with only ten seconds to play. Here State College lost her only opportunity to score.

Johnson C. Smith's touchdown came near the close of the third quarter, when a long pass put the ball within three yards of the goal. State's defense stiffened but was unable to hold and on the fourth down, Coriness, star fullback of Johnson C. Smith, carried the ball over for the only touchdown of the game.
