THANKSGIVING IN JOHNSTON

Johnston, S. C., Nov. 29—The Annual Thanksgiving Exercises of the Johnston Rosenwald Graded School was held in the school auditorium, Wednesday night, Nov. 25. The auditorium was artistically decorated for the occasion.

The program consisted of various songs, speeches, dialogues and readings from the student body. After the program the principal made a few brief remarks about the origin of Thanksgiving and then introduced Mrs. Daisy Williams of Orangeburg one of our faculty members mother who made a very interesting speech. Mrs. T. H. Holmes of Augusta also was present.

After the program the patrons and friends passed to the domestic science class room and enjoyed a delightful chicken supper.

On Wednesday the students brought to school a considerable number of articles to be given to the poor. After collecting the articles, fifteen packages were made to be distributed to the unfortunate. On Thursday morning the President, one of the teachers and the treasurer of the trustee board distributed the different packages. By singing, reading, and praying in the homes, we visited, this seemed to help cheer them very much. We thank every student for his gift also the patrons for their silver offering for the poor.

The Johnston Rosenwald Graded School began their first session in their new building September 28. We the students and friends are proud of our new building.

SPARTANBURG NEWS

Spartanburg is a boom and things are humming in this our city and Sunday last was a high day in Spartanburg and at the Golden St. Baptist Church we are going over the top now under the leadership of Rev. McWilliams. Last Spring our church was at a complete standstill but you should see our church now. Rev. Williams is a preacher and a builder for it is now being said that no man from no where could have done what has been done by him in this short length of time.

After the completion of our church on the inside all of the members, assembled and were called upon to make brief speeches, some very timely remarks were made concerning Rev. Williams' masterful way of putting over this great program that other men have failed on for the past 15 years.

We know and confess that God sent Dr. Williams back to S. C., he is a son of S. C. but for the past 16 years he has been in Georgia and N. C., but this year we called him to the pastorate of the Golden Street Baptist Church. Rev. Williams preached Sunday night from Matt 5:16, Text "Let your Light Shine." Subject "The Christians are the Lighthouses of God."

Our pastor brought many new ideas to our minds in this great subject, he talked until our hearts were full. Come over to the Golden St. Baptist Church when in Spartanburg.
