

Locals And Personals

Miss Erline Goff spent the holidays at home.

Miss Ophelia Adams spent Thanksgiving at home.

Miss Blossom Donnerly spent the holiday in the city.

Misses Addie and Julia Thomas visited in Columbia last week.

Miss Mae Palmer visited her sister in Georgetown Thanksgiving Day.

Doctors Stephenson and Goodwin spent Thanksgiving day in Beaufort, S. C. hunting.

Mrs H. H. Cooper, had a her guest for Thanksgiving, Mrs. C. C. Brevard of Camden, S. C.

Miss Aline Roundtree left the city Sunday for Bishopville after spending the week end at home.

Mr. E. H. Bookman came to the city from Newark, N. J. to the funeral of his brother Mr. Gibson.

Mrs. Gracie Piper of Chester S. C. was in the city last week to attend the funeral of her nephew, Mr. Geo. E. Gibson.

Dr. Swan Rhodes is visiting in the city, having made the trip by auto from Gary, Indiana, arriving here Tuesday night.

Mr. Converse Tillson of Asheville, N. C., spent a few days in the city last week as the guest of Miss Mamie Griffin on Pine Street.

The foot ball team of Benedict College entertained with a delightful party on Thanksgiving evening this being quite an enjoyable affair. The famous Ajax orchestra furnished the music throughout the evening.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Jackson was beautifully decorated on Thursday afternoon when they entertained with a vanity shower in honor of Miss Miriam Asman who is to be married late in December.

The lower floor which was thrown ensuite was decorated in a profusion of chrysanthemums, ferns and autumn leaves. A number of beautiful gifts were received and a favor presented to each guest present. A salad course was served.

Visitors from Columbia to Orangeburg Thanksgiving Day to witness the foot ball game between Allen and State were Misses Margaret Rhodes, Geneva Cornwall, Jennie Mae Champion, Catherine Mack, Henrietta Booser, Mrs Hattie Cornwall, Ethel and Sutton.

Among the out of town guests from Orangeburg who attended the dance on Friday evening given by the Entra Nous Club, are Misses Hattie Mae Cornwall, Genevieve Vincent, Jimmie Dibble and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Palmer, Professor Ervin, Hunt and Sheffield of Voorhees Inst. and Mr. Bloer of Montreal, Can.

Misses Addie and Annie Bell Nelson, Fitzgerald Reeder and Lillian Watts attended the Get-up-McGirt nuptials in Camden, S. C. last Wednesday evening. Following the ceremony was a formal dance given in their honor. The Columbia party motored back to the city that night accompanied by Messrs. Elmer Pickett and Will Champion.

Misses Susie Jagers, Eloise Jagers, Mrs. MariaH Glisson, Miss. Joella Mess and Little Dr.

isy Mae Brown were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Rutherford on last Friday evening. A delicious supper was served followed by after dinner mints.

Miss Florence L. Calvary spent Thanksgiving holiday in the city. Miss Calvary is teacher n Mayo High School of Darlington, S. C. She reports that Mayo Hi is progressing nicely. Another teacher was added to the faculty this year making the total 23.

On Thanksgiving evening a merry group of the younger society set gathered at the home of Mrs. C. C. Rice, 1920 Henderson St., to enjoy a banquet prepared for them by the members of the Just Our Boy's Club of Benedict College. The rooms were artistically decorated with a color scheme of green and rose. Several appetizing courses were served. An interesting program was rendered between courses.

Those present were: Misses Gladys Cureton, Alma Forrest, Catherine Frederick, Nathalie Frederick, Wilhemenia Jones, Mattie Lyles, Annie Manigault, Lillian Nelson, Ardelle Smith, Estelle Sullivan, Lillian Smoot, Dorothy Witherspoon, Messrs. Hopson Briggs, Henry Darity, Earnest Hughes, Alphonso Jones, William Jones, Albert McClaim, John Potts Port Royall Scott, Emerson Sherman, Wallace Workman, William Ritter.

The guests of honor were Messrs. Raymond and Carroll Frederick and Lawrence McFarlin. Reporter William Ritter

The English Club of Booker Washington High School, held its November meeting on last Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

A salad course was served after which the eating was called to order by Mr. E. A. Cheeks, president. Being Thanksgiving eve, the entire afternoon program which was enjoyed very much.

The club is under the supervision of Miss. T. E. Thomas, instructor of English in the High School.

The next meeting will be called in the middle of December. Arthur R. Rowe, Reporter.

THE SERVANT IN THE HOUSE

Don't Miss it.

A present day play will be presented in the chapel at Benedict College by the class of '26. This is the same class that made "Mother Mine" famous last year. Come out and see Jerry and Mother Mine again. They are better, even better this year than last.

Special attention has been given to the selection of the Characters. This same play had a wonderful success at Howard University last year. Why cannot it be done even better at Benedict College? A very good and up-to-date play is assured.

Friday, December 11, 1925, at 7:30 P. M. Don't forget the date!

NOUS CELEBRATION LE CERLE ENTRA

Le Cerle Entra Nous celebrated last Friday evening at the Elk's Home with a dance and was a colorful and delightful affair. A number of invited guest not being members of the club also enjoyed the evening.

The room was bright with Thanksgiving decorations, light being shaded with yellow shades. Mr. Beverly Roundtree entertained with the Charleston dance which delighted the audience. Music was furnished throughout the evening by the Simpkins orchestra.

COLUMBIA DOCTORS ORGANIZE

The Columbia Doctors, Pharmacists and Dentists, met at the home of Dr. L. M. Daniels on Wednesday night and participated in a very wholesome and inspiring program.

The subject for the evening was pneumonia, Dr. B. A. Everette read a very interesting paper after which the discussion was opened by Dr. Jenkins and followed by Drs. Johnson, Daniels and others. After having completed the business of the evening, a very delicious course was served by Dr. Daniels.

The meeting adjourned to meet the second Wednesday in December at the home of Dr. A. J. Collins.

PHI BETA SOCIETY

This night was set aside for election night. The election is as follows:

- Mr. B. F. President
Miss Leonora Thompson V-Pres.
Miss Osmona LeVallie Sec.
Miss Leoma Hagood Acc. Sec.
Mr. H. D. Johnson Corr. Sec.
Miss Sadie Green Treas.
Mr. J. Gary Critic
Mr. J. W. Stevenson Chaplain
Mr. L. W. Thompson Reporter
Mr. D. A. Bradman Marshall
Mr. J. T. W. Mims Advocate
Reporter, Katherin Sharper

THE AJAX SOCIAL CLUB

The regular meeting of the Ajax Social Club was Monday Nov. 30 at 8:00 P. M. at Heyward on Blossom St. The meeting was called to order by its President and the hymn, just as I am was sung.

During the usual business talks Mr. Joseph McDowell and Mr. Harry Adams spoke of the future dances both private and public. They said they believed the Ajax dance during December should be on or near Xmas Day. This proposal is to be taken in consideration by the officers and members and will be announced later.

To the entertaining committee was added Messrs. Henry Felder, John Johnson, Wilbur Manigault and Herbert Reeder.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:30 P. M.

The Ajax syncopators are playing every Monday afternoon for the afternoon dances at the Assembly street hall.

These dances are held from 4:30 to 7:30.

Misses Susie Robinson, Elizabeth Jones, and Johnnie Mae Pierce were visitors at this meeting.

James Wise, Reporter

A DINNER PARTY

A delightful social affair of the Thanksgiving season, was the dinner party given at the home of Mrs. Susie Martin, in Ward 1. Thursday evening. The invited guests were: Miss Annie B. McGraw, Josie White and Eva B. Johnson, Messrs. Booker T. Neal, Joseph DeLaine J. B. Stevenson, Master J. C. White, Jr. The dinner was served as follows:

Fried chicken with gravy, potato salad, roast turkey with oyster dressing, cranberry sauce, ice tea, pickled peaches, sweet relish, ice cream with pineapple fruit, lemon and plain cake. After dinner mints.

FAIRWOLD SCHOOL NEWS

Thanksgiving was a great day at Fairwold. The day was begun with many prayers of thanksgiving and responsive reading of Psalm 136, after which breakfast was served. The girls then played games and later in the afternoon large rosy apples were served and Baby Ruth candy. Above all thanks to God for the noble women of South Carolina who sustain this home for these poor homeless children. We also thank the pupils of Waverly School and Miss Jackson, Prin. for their donation of canned goods and many other other very useful articles of food stuffs.

Among the visitors at Fairwold this week were Misses Lattara Good and Lillian Watts of Columbia. Messrs Orville R. Sheffield of the U. S. Veteran Hospital of Tuskegee, Ala., and M. L. Reed, Tuskegee Institute. Mrs. E. S. Martin, Supt.

WELCOME VISITORS DURING THANKSGIVING SEASON

Dr. Orville Sheffield surgeon at the Veteran Hospital, Tuskegee and Mr Reid of Tuskegee were the pleasant visitors who motored to Columbia. These young men were the guests of Dr. J. E. Watts and family during the Thanksgiving season, their visit was unexpected but all were elated over their stay.

A very pleasant trip was made to State College to visit relatives and friends, also to Camden, S. C. to dine with Misses. Addie and Julia Thomas. The touring party consisted of Mr. Reid, Drs. J. E. Watts and O. Sheffield, Misses Ruth Butler and Lillian Watts.

Dr. Sheffield and Mr. Reid are very much impressed with Columbians, its enterprises and other places visited.

Appreciations were expressed for the many invitations extended.

They left Wednesday morning for Tuskegee accompanied by Mr. Richard Watts who will return in a few days enroute for Boston, Mass.

JAMES MARTIN DEAD

James Martin of Jenkinsville, S. C., passed away Thursday morning at 5:50 at the home of his sister 914 Pine Street, where he had been for several weeks under the care of a physician.

"Boy" as he was familiarly known carried a friendly smile on his face, and was liked by all who knew him, especially in the community where he lived. He leaves to mourn his early taking away, a wife and nine children, a mother, five sisters, one brother and a host of relatives and friends. His funeral was held at White Hall Church, Fairfield County, Friday. Interment was in the family plot there.

RUFFIN NEWS

Miss Nancy Brown, daughter of Rev. C. B. Brown took her leave Wednesday 25th for Cleveland, Ohio where she will spend the winter.

On the 27th we were highly favored with our ex-pastor paying us a visit.

Rev. J. G. Stokes, who preached a very interesting sermon using as a text John 14:8. We also brought with him Mrs. Stokes. Rev. J. B. Rouse of Florence, S. C

Sunday being an extra day for M. E. ministers, Rev. Brown put on a program which was enjoyed by all.

Rev. Duncan the Teer of Waterboro preached the 11:00 o'clock sermon using Judge Samuel 17:39 Subject, I cannot go with these for I have not proven them. Bro. Step Bennett of Waterboro led in prayer, each member was asked to pay one cent for every year they belonged to the church. We were pleased to know God had spared some to live 51 years in his service.

Total amount from this was $16.48.

NELSON'S BEAUTY

PARLOR

Hair Dressing of All Kinds.

Mme. Josephine Nelson, Mgr.

1317 Wheat St., Columbia, S. C.

THE LAST GAME

Clafin vs. Benedict

By William D. Robinson.

Great Clafin came down like a wolf on the fold, Her banners aflutter, all garnet and gold, All fresh and aspiring to shatter our pride; For surely the gods were leagued on her side.

But our "Dusty" though wounded,—limping and lame, Cried, "Boys, we have just got to win this last game!" And "Dounie" forgot where his wounds were bound, As he felt the thrill of the old battleground.

And "Bus" only chuckled and vowed that in vain Came Clafin, for he was the downfall of Paine.

Then they clashed on the gridiron like warring gods, And for the first quarter, all doubted the odds; For with punts and fumbles and passes, in vain, Each battled, each inch toward the goal to gain.

So the first quarter passed and the second came, And the stars peeped out just to see that last game; For like an iron wall did proud Clafin stand, But her wall was built on a pillar of sand!

Three points ours,—a place kick turned the doubtful tide; It seemed as if new vim impelled each struggling side!

Third quarter,—fourth quarter, still our banner waves, Fore'er may that standard be borne by the braves! We won the game, of course,—we are the victors still. To us the cup remains,—as ever it will.

WANTED

A School Teacher, who can teach and play music. Must be a graduate and hold a First Grade certificate. Good position for the right teacher.

School near Columbia.

For further information, write

The Palmetto Leader

1310 Assembly Street

COLUMBIA, S. C.

M. H. HOLLOWAY'S

BUSINESS SCHOOL, CAFE AND TRANSFER Service Rendered With a Smile. Will Open for the Regular School Year MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1925

We teach the Touch-method of Typewriting; Gregg and Pittman-method of Shorthand; Arithmetic, Spelling and English.

We have a corps of Efficient Teachers.

For further information, write

M. H. HOLLOWAY,

2029 Taylor St., Phone 9115, Columbia, S. C.

Puncture Proof

Puncture Proof Inner Tubes Gas Savers and Carbon Removers, Guaranteed

The biggest bill is the gas bill, Gas Savers and Carbon Removers cut the gas bill 50 per cent.

Agents wanted in every County for both. Both fast sellers.

Write for Terms.

Liberal Commission.

C. B. JOHNSON

501-C. Markley St. Greenville, S. C.

WHOLESALE DIRECT TAILORS

Every garment is tailored to your individual measurements out of fast color, cold water shrunk, finest quality, all wool fabrics. Good fit, workmanship and service guaranteed.

Selling direct from maker to wearer at wholesale prices saves all in between profits for your own pocket.

Suits and Overcoats $18.50, $22.50, $28.50 and $36.50

CUSTOM TAILORS SINCE 1899. P. A. SMITH, Sales Representative, Columbia, S. C.