

Church News Of Columbia

BY DR. J. C. WHITE

SIDNEY PARK C. M. E.

CHURCH NEWS Sunday at 10:00 A. M. Sunday School was well attended, the Superintendent and his corps of teachers were on the job.

At 11:30, we listened to a splendid sermon rendered by our own Rev. W. E. Farmer. During his sermons he makes the worst kind of sinner feel happy.

At 5:00 o'clock, a program was given by the Missionary Board under the direction of Mrs. E. A. Starks, those who were on the program, and those who weren't were ready to render their services.

At 8 P. M. the pastor preached a helpful, interesting and inspiring sermon. Collection for the day was fine.

The general opening of the Masonic Convention was held at this church Monday. Dr. L. M. Daniels read an interesting paper introducing the Grand Master, Dr. C. C. Johnson of Aiken, S. C.

Next Sunday, the usual services will be had and all are invited. The pastor will preach at 11:30 A. M. and 8 P. M. as usual. The Sunday School which is taking on new life and adding scholars every Sunday will meet as usual at 10 A. M.

SECOND CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH

The choir of Second Calvary Church will render a special musical program and song service at that church Sunday night, Dec. 13th, at 7:15 o'clock.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Last Sunday was a glorious day with us both in Sunday School and in regular church service. In the absence of both the Supt. and the assistant Supt. our pastor took the oversight of the school.

11:30 P. M. preaching hour, the auditorium was filled to capacity. The pastor preached from John 12:21 text: "Sir, We Would See Jesus"

1:30, the pastor preached the funeral services of Sister Elizabeth Adams who died at the Benedict Hospital. Sister Adams is wife of Bro. William Adams, was a splendid Godly woman, she bore a fine christian record among all who knew her. More than two thousand people reviewed her remains.

Rev. White did not preach at Arthurtown for Shandon Annex because he was worn and tired from his long journey from Tampa, Fla.

The members of Zion had a great surprise in store for Dr. and Mrs. White on their return from Tampa, Saturday night. A number of kind sisters came to the parsonage Saturday afternoon and loaded the pastors table with all kinds of good things to eat.

But Tuesday night, the real storm broke, when about 50 or 60 men and women came in singing loaded with flour, lard, grits, sugar, bacon, canned goods of all sorts and shoes; well they brought enough to fill a wagon.

Rev. A. W. Brown, A. B., the popular pastor of the Sixth Mt. Zion Baptist (Famous John Jasper) Church Richmond, Va. stopped over with Dr. White Saturday night enroute to Newberry to preach the funeral sermon of one of the leading members of his former flock, he returned via the Seaboard Monday afternoon.

The Rev. L. M. Glenn, A. B., pastor of the famous Bryant St. Baptist Church, Savannah, Ga., was the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. White Monday. Dr. Glenn had been to Anderson where he preached the anniversary sermon for his father, the Rev. R. D. Glenn, and was returning to his home in Savannah.

XMAS CHEER FOR PRISONERS

I am hereby making this appeal to all churches, of all denominations, Sunday Schools and other Clubs to help to make it cheerful for all the prisoners on Christmas day.

Next Sunday, if convenient, I am asking the colored churches to take up an after-collection for this purpose.

All churches and Sunday Schools and Clubs or individuals who contribute, their names will be carried in the Palmetto Leader. Be broad-hearted and make it pleasant for the prisoners.

BETHEL CHURCH NOTES

Rev. E. A. Adams was at the seat of the conference, Newberry, S. C., Sunday, Supt. Young and teachers were at their post of duty and conducted a very interesting Sunday School lesson.

At 11:15, Dr. L. E. Lowery preached a very good sermon from Gen. 45:11, "And There Will I Nourish Thee; For yet There Are Five Years of Famine. Lest Thou and Thy Household and all that thou hast come to Poverty."

Monday night was a crowning feature of the service with the many persons who had assembled to greet Bishop J. Albert Johnson of Phila., who was scheduled to preach.

The Bishop preached from the 2nd Epistle of Peter, 18 verse "And this voice which came from heaven, we heard when we were with Him in the Holy Mount."

Monday night was a crowning feature of the service with the many persons who had assembled to greet Bishop J. Albert Johnson of Phila., who was scheduled to preach.

Bethel Church welcomes the return of Rev. E. A. Adams, our new pastor for another conference year and pledge a continued co-operation in carrying on the work of the church.

DOINGS ON WHEELERS HILL

By Rev. J. P. Washington.

Our article of last week was hurriedly gotten out, chiefly on account of our leaving for Newberry the seat of the Columbia Annual Conference.

The pageant spoken of was an entertainment representing the Thirteen Original States. The following persons were the participants: Sisters A. E. Allison, Annie Belle Davis, Maggie Young, Wilhemenia Johnson, Mary Cooper, Lola Cheeks, Julia Washington, Minnie Cook, Minnie Delaney, Rosa Saxby, Lizzie Cooper, Maggie Davis, Mrs. Barber, Maria Long, Christina Morphlet, Misses Martha Davis, Louise Dixon, Octavia Richards, Alberta McClean, Little Misses Mabelle Ellison, Wilhemenia Johnson, Adeline Johnson, Joanna Cook and the two small daughters of Mrs. Jones constituted the program.

We sincerely regret to learn that some of our workers took exceptions because their names were not mentioned. It is not our policy to slight or use partiality to any person in the church or state, for our motto is, "We stand for the right, condemn the wrong, Justice to all, and malice to none."

In mentioning the names of our co-workers in last week's issue, we stated that space would not permit us to go fully into details, nor to mention the names of all of our co-workers. We did not mention the names of Sister Annie Jenerette whose father was a preacher, brother is a preacher and son (Rev. I. W. Jenerette) is a preacher.

What is true of the Mother, is also true of the children; especially Misses Estelle and Frances Jenerette when the latter is at home. At present she teaches in Wilson High School, Florence, S. C. Miss Estelle speaks her mind about her likes and dislikes; notwithstanding no one can beat her putting over a program whenever she starts after it.

Miss Eloise Jenerette is the efficient secretary of the Sunday School, and delegate to the recent Sunday School Convention held at Edgefield, S. C. She is developing into a splendid church worker. Sister Wilhemenia Johnson is up and doing; she is a member of the Stewardess Board No. 1 and a diligent worker. Sister Mary Cooper is president of "The Willing Workers Club" Sister Estelle Jenerette, secretary and Willie Mae Cheeks, treasurer. These sisters are doing well as auxiliary to the church.

Sister Belle Washington is president of the Friendly Aid Club and Sister Sarah Starks, treasurer. No one in the church has surprised us as did Sister Washington; we pushed her out to work, and now she has gone wild at it.

Sister A. E. Allison, though not belonging to our church, stands ever ready to "do what ever her hands find to do." We feel like she is one of us for she is a valuable asset to the church. Sister Christina Morphlet is the head of "Chappelle Club". Sister Carrie Bracey, Treas., and Louise Dixon, Sec'y. These sisters thought it not robbery to donate the pastor on his leave for conference. We pray that such a spirit will ever remain. "For it is more blessed to give than to receive."

Sister Minnie Delaney is a staunch member of Board No. 2 she stands ever-ready to do what is necessary. Sister Mary Lou Phelps is as faithful as any person I ever saw; she makes no noise but usually does. Sister Julia Washington stands by the side of her husband (the pastor) and helps him to succeed.

Sisters Lula M. Lyles, Martha Martin, Cornelia Harris, and Katie Richards usually answer the roll call either in person or financially or both. Sister Lyles is the wife of our secretary Bro. J. A. Lyles and also the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pratt of Newberry.

There are others whose names we cannot mention in this writing for space will not permit. We sincerely trust that no one will feel slighted or accuse us of being partial; such things never enter our minds.

It has pleased Almighty God to return us to this field of labor we are entering in the name of God, and with His help we are contemplating on putting over a great program in soul-saving as well as money raising. We are appealing to all of our members, friends and foes (if there be any such) to help us in this worthy cause.

The recent Conference held in Newberry was quite a success in spite of the shortage of crops in the upper section of the state. We have always been loyal to the cause, and hope to ever be. If the Church is to fulfill its mission, the members thereof must feel themselves as being one family, working for one common interest. Until this is done the church will not be in position to carry out its mission in the world.
