

Church News Of Columbia

BY DR. J. C. WHITE

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Miss Gladys Jones our efficient secretary conducted the opening exercises of our Sunday School last Sunday because both the Supt. and his Assistant were a little late. A large number of students were out, much interest was manifested.

Our Sunday School is steadily improving, our collection in Sunday School reached the high water-mark of $44.78 last Sunday.

At 11:30 the auditorium was packed with eager hearers, who came to have their spiritual strength renewed. Dr. White preached from the subject; Then God called preachers and his message." It was a wonderful discourse, six strong young men and women came forward and united with the church after the services. The choir sang beautifully. Mrs. Elise Pinkney King presided at the piano. A special solo featured the services, sung by Mrs. Porter, the Music teacher of Benedict College, Miss Broomfield, the Domestic Science teacher of Allen University accompanied Mrs. Porter's solo: "One Sweet Solenn Thought."

Pastor White, preached at the Brookland Baptist Church at 3:00 o'clock to an enthusiastic audience.

At 7:30, Dr. White preached to another over-flowing house at Zion.

Rev. J. C. White was called over to Brookland to preach the funeral of Bro. Isom Hall Tuesday afternoon.

Bro. David Boyd, one of the ushers of Zion Church, died of a stroke Monday morning—his funeral was held from Zion Wednesday morning at 11:00 o'clock. His remains were carried to be buried in old family grave-yard. Bro. Boyd was highly thought of by all who knew him.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

The Sunday School was well attended Sunday and after the study of the lesson by the various classes, timely and impressive remarks were made to the school by Mr. Spaulding and Mr. Davis both of Durham, N. C., representatives of the Mutual Life Insurance Company.

At 11:15, Rev. E. A. Adams preached a most remarkable sermon which proved beyond contradiction to be the very things most needed even this day—"So built we the wall; for the people had a mind to work" Nehemiah 4, the first and last clauses of the 6th verse.

Entreating his hearers in the present; 1st, we should build our social wall; 2nd, build our intellectual wall; 3rd, we must build our financial wall; 3rd, we must build our moral wall; and 5th, we ought build up our spiritual wall. The discourse was timely and full of wholesome instructions which had its effect for good.

At 7:30 P. M. the pastor preached from Rev 19:17 "And I saw an Angel standing in the Sun," emphasizing the fact that we see just what we look for in a way, and just what appears portrays the internal condition of the individual.

The services were good all day.

In keeping with the spirit of the Yuletide, special services will be conducted all day Sunday Dec. 20 at Bethel. The pastor will preach a Christmas sermon Sunday morning and Sunday Evening at the usual hour for service, the choir rendered a Christmas cantata entitled "The Holy Nativity." This promises to be a treat to all who will avail themselves of the opportunity to witness these services. Special preparation is being made for the services of the entire day by the pastor and choir members, to which, the public is most cordially invited to come and worship with us.

ST. JAMES A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. J. P. Washington, Pastor

By Jessie Mae Lemon

Sunday was a great day at St. James. Sunday School was opened at the usual hour with the devotional exercises. Both teachers and scholars seemed eager to discuss the scriptures and see what good things could be brought to light. The lesson which had been fully discussed was reviewed by Miss Bouknight Sunday morning our new pastor Rev. J. P. Washington, was in high spirit. He brought to us the word in its strengthening power, found in Rev. 2:17 "He that hath an ear, let him hear what the spirit saith unto the churches; to him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it." Subj. "Reward of the Faithful."

Sunday evening found us at our regular post of duty. We received an excellent soul-searching sermon delivered by our recent presiding elder, Rev. D. M. McGill. Elder McGill selected as his text: John, 14:3—"If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself that where I am ye may be also."

Our pastor has been returned to us for another year's service and under his experienced leadership we are sure of a successful year's work. It is our hearts desire to see St. James prosper and by the help of God we hope to bring great things to pass during this conference year. We desire the cooperation of the public. We must unite our efforts and work untiringly, for the church of God must prosper. There is no time for rest in this christian warfare. We must work until our career on earth is ended.

SIDNEY PARK CHURCH NEWS

Sunday school opened Sunday at its usual hour, 10:30. The Supt. and teachers were at their posts of duty. The attendance was the best had in many Sundays. The financial report was good.

Service began at 11:30. Rev. Farmer preached a splendid sermon on the Ten Commandments. A vast crowd was out to witness his great sermon. The opportunity to hear good sermons don't come every Sunday as we wish them to, but this sermon Sunday kept the church on fire.

Rev. I. D. Davis and his congregation assembled here Sunday, to hold service for the benefit of the Missionary Board. Rev. Davis took his text from the 61st Psalms, 18th verse. His choir rendered beautiful selections.

Night service began at its usual hour. The financial reports for the day were good. Service usual hour next Sunday.

AT ST. LUKE'S CHURCH.

Tuesday the 8th, 7 p. m., the local branches of the Woman's Auxiliary listened to a very interesting report of the General Convention which was held in New Orleans. This report was made by Mrs. Emily S. Johnson. We regret that all the members could not be present at this meeting.

NOTICE

Rev. C. H. Brown of Winston-Salem will preach Sunday morning and night at 2nd Calvary Baptist Church.

James H. Goode, Chairman of the Deacon Board.

RECEPTION BY CHOIR MEMBERS

One of the happiest events of the season was the reception given in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Chappelle Brogdon by members of the choir of Bethel church at the home of Mrs. Lilli Bates on Gervais Street, Thursday Evening last.

Mr. Brogdon has been connected with the choir for some time as chorister but at the recent annual conference at Newberry, S. C. he was assigned a charge which work calls him away to the regret of members of the choir and church, yet to the delight of all for his being actually engrossed in the ministry. The guests of honor were beautifully attired in evening gown and full dress.

Mrs. F. G. Baumgardner acted as Toast Mistress for the occasion and assisted by the guest of honor, introduced several plays in which all participated heartily.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Bates the host and hostess, did not leave anything undone in trying to make the evening pleasant for all.

After refreshments had been served Mrs. Bruester rendered "Mighty Lak' a Rose." (solo) which gave vent to the occasion Mrs. Baumgardner then introduced Mr. Howard, Pres. of the choir who spoke very commendably of the service rendered by Mr. Brogdon and presented Rev. and Mrs. Brogdon a large basket of handsome presents, gifts by the several members of the choir and friends. Mr. Brogdon responded on behalf of himself much gratitude for the kindness shown him and his wife. Timely remarks of commendation and praise were made by Mr. Pressley and Mrs. Baumgardner and the affair of the evening was closed with the "Mizpah."

CHRISTMAS TREE FOR CONVICTS

WHO WILL HELP?

Next Sunday is the last day to do anything to help cheer the hearts of the convicts in the State penitentiary, on the county chain gang and for those on the city gangs and in the jails. What church, Sunday School, Lodge, Club or Individual will help?

Send all monies to J. C. White, Chairman.

JOHNSTON NOTES

The Johnston Rosenwald Graded School noted their rapid progress this term. The faculty and students are working hard trying to make this school worthy of note. On Monday the teachers and student body was favored with a brief but interesting talk by Prof. Alexander, Supt. of City Schools. He congratulated the faculty and students on their manner of acting and good behavior. Friday, Mrs. Jane White, State Chairman of Library-Extension, Mrs. Sawyer and Miss Itson paid us a visit. Mrs. White made a very interesting talk about her work and how to obtain a good school library. Each one made a brief talk. Mrs. Sawyer presented the school with a selection of books. We the faculty and students thank these ladies very much for their gift. As a beginning towards establishing a school library.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mobley, Cassie and Marie Mobley and Miss Annie Bovian, Domestic Science teacher motored to Augusta, Ga. Friday.

CAYCE NEWS

The Little enterprising town across the Congaree river from the city of Columbia.

The Cayce Colored School Mrs. J. E. McKissick, principal and Mrs. M. L. Anderson, teacher. We are glad to report the school is in a prosperous condition. The patrons are well pleased in the way the teachers are instructing the scholars.

The honor roll as follows: First grade, Nesbitt, Mary Myles Lucy M. Hopkins; Second Grade Samuel Allen, Henry Young, Lenora Young; Third Grade, Silas T. Holloway, May J. Bibbs, Eveline Brown, Pauline Hunter; Fourth Grade, Moses Hart, Nathaniel Elmore, Viola Young, Elizabeth Pugh, Annie Hunter; Fifth Grade, Van W. Robinson, Annie M. Allen.

A Thanksgiving celebration was rendered by the scholars of the school, several Thanksgiving hymns were sung.

The most amusing was a duet by Pauline and Annie Hunter.

We feel very grateful to have Mr. Frank M. Robinson home from Benedict Hospital. He has been ill for several weeks. He seems to be improving. We truly hope he will soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. McKissick motored to Columbia and spent a pleasant time with Miss Virginia Parker on 1807 Taylor Street
