NEWBERRY NEWS.

The Newberrians are coming home from various parts of the states, some from the northern states and some from the western states, some are going back and some are not; some have made good and some have not.
A number of people are moving in the city leaving the farm, coming to town for what?

On the farm you can get all the wood you want, raise all the vegetables, chickens, turkeys you want. Turkeys are selling at fifty cents per pound in Florida, you can ship them for that.
In the city you cannot raise anything, but a confusion with your next door neighbor. In the city your house rent has to be paid, your water rent, your wood, your food, you reverything.
What are you coming here to do? Stay on the farm and raise more food stuff. There you can raise your children better. They will be more healthy and live longer.

The farmers in Mt. Bethel Garmany district have promised to plant more food stuff, raise more poultry and all the cotton they can next year.

Mrs. S. L. Moon has returned from the city of New York, where she spent nine days visiting her step-daughter and friends. She was accompanied with Rev. Henry Spearman, who is making his home in New York. Mrs. Moon had a very pleasant stay in the city of New York. She visited Mrs. Spearman, who is very sick. She also brought back with her little Rubie, the grand-daughter of Mr. A. J. Moon.

Mr. Eugene Scott is home to visit his mother, Mrs. Luda Allen. He has been making New York his home for twenty five years, but he has not forgot his mother. Mr. Scott bought a nice cottage on Caldwell St. south, where his mother now lives and every year Mr. Scott comes home and spends the winter months.

Don't forget the program to be put on at Mt. Bethel Gar-many school, Monday evening, 7:30 Dec. 28th.

There are two days, we as a race ought to celebrate, turn out in full and thank God: the Emancipation day is one. Why not do like other counties and states? We are asking every father and mother to come out on January the first at Drayton Street High School and hear one of the best addresses you ever heard on such an occasion.

The services were good all day Sunday at Miller Chapel.

The Sunday school was good.
Rising Sun Lodge No. 25, K. of P. elected their officers for 1926 on last Wednesday evening, Dec. 16. The officers are as follows: A. J. Gilliam, C.
C.; Edd Worthy, V. C.; J. B.
Davis, Prelate; C. W. Workman,
M. of W.; E. F. Floyd, M. of F.; E. P. Ellis, K. of R. & S.; Jas.
Wallace M. at A.; E. P. Ellis and E. F. Floyd, Grand Representatives; J. B. Giles, M. of Ex.; J. B. Morgan, Edd Worthy and W. W. Graham, Auditing Committee.

CHESTER PARAGRAPHS

From the Elk's Hall to the A.
M. E. Church, the local lodge of Elks marched last Sunday.
Their uniform of white flannel trousers, blue coats, purple tie and purple fez, made a most attractive appearance. The occasion was a memorial exercise and Annual Thanksgiving service.
A short program was carried out prior to the sermon by Rev.
F. D. Sims, Mr. J. T. Douglass, Exalted Ruler made some very timely remarks. A large crowd enjoyed this, the first public appearance of the Elks.

After an illness of nine days, Mr. Andy Wright died at his home on Oak St. of double pneumonia. He was a member of the Samaritans, Odd Fellows and Royal Knights of King David.
Rev. Gilmore preached the funeral sermon at Calvary Baptist Church.

The body was buried in Hebron Cemetery. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Martha Wright and many relatives and friends who are sad because of his death.

A Christmas Cantata, entitled, "When Santa Listens In" was enjoyed at the A. M. E. Z. church on Tuesday night.

The Cantata, "Santa's Christmas Barrel will be given at Calvary Baptist Church on Friday night.

The ninth grade gave a very enjoyable "soiree" at the High School building, on Thursday evening. Games and marching were a pleasing feature of the evening, after which, Mr. Franklin Rainey, the president of the class, called the guests to order and all joined in singing, "Silent Night," "The Party," was recited by Miss Louise Stanback, then Mr. Rainey in an appropriate speech presented to Prof. and Mrs. Finley a fine turkey as a gift from the ninth grade. The gift was a real surprise to them and was accepted in real joy in responsive words by Prof. Fir-ley. Miss Annie Garrick, the teacher of this grade, assisted by her pupils had three rooms very beautifully decorated, and served a delicious salad course followed by cake and hot cocoa.
A sprig of holly and tiny pink baskets of mints were given to each guest. All returned to their homes highly pleased with the party given by Miss Garrick and her pupils.

Mr. John Brown, the faithful and much loved janitor of the schools was surprised with a handsome sum of money, when the pupils in all the classes gave a penny each. Mr. Brown was all smiles when he received this token.
Miss Ila Fair, Greenwood, Miss

Willie McDowell, Union, Miss Lucile Rice and A. Wine Boat-right, Columbia, teachers of the Emmett Scott High School passed through, Monday, enroute to their homes for the Christmas holidays.

The choir of Calvary Baptist Church gave a Sacred Concert on Sunday night.

A Christmas program was rendered at the Mt. Olive Baptist Church on Friday night.

Miss Annie Garrick and Miss Lois Henry, Columbia; Miss Erma-Anderson, Allendale; Miss Allie Ferguson, Spartanburg; Miss Elva J. Lowry, York.

Dr. J. R. Hunt, the dentist, has moved into his new office on Gadsden St. The office is well equipped with a splendid line of fine instruments and all modern conveniences, also a comfortable and cozy waiting room. Dr.
Hunt is enjoying a lucrative practice.

Mrs. Ida Massey, the Photographer is in her new parlor, and Rev. T. H. Ward, as Deputy for the American Woodmen has an office in the same building.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lander have moved into their beautiful bungalow on Graham St.

The City Schools closes Tuesday to open again Jan. 4, 1926.

Rev. Lewis K. McMillan spent a day in city last week.

The teachers and pupils of the city schools contributed $20.60 to the Near East Drive. In the sale of Christmas seals, they expect to dispose of 11,500 seals to aid in stamping out tuberculosis. Prof. S. L. Finley, is Chairman of the Christmas Seal Drive for colored schools.
