BY DR. J. C. WHITE

SALTERS A. M. E. CHURCH

The Salters Memorial A. M. E. Church, whose location is on Washington Street between Oak and Pine is surrounded by many well wishers of other denominations; this church is taking on new life.

The young men of this Church, under the leadership of Mr. Mims and others, took it upon themselves to organize a Young Men's Club on January 24. The officers are as follows:

Mr. Marcellus Robinson, President, Mr. Scott, Secretary, Mr. J. T. W. Mims, Treasurer, Mr. J. A. DeLaine, Reporter.

The purpose of this Club is to organize young men who otherwise may be idle, and to strengthen the Church. The spirit of the Young Men's organization was so pleasing that the ladies on January 31, followed the footsteps of the men. Their officers are as follows:

Mrs. Anderson, President, Mrs. Dawkins, Vice-President, Mrs. Brogdon, Secretary, Miss Simmons, Asst. Secretary, Miss Dickerson, Treasurer.

With this determination and such discussions as are being had, this Church cannot help from thriving.

BETHEL NOTES

Lovers of the Sunday School always find pleasure in attending regularly because there is always a question to be answered or one to be asked on the lesson that we do not full understand.

The fact is there is yet something to be learned from any lesson in the Bible though the lesson may be a familiar one and we may think we know all about it.

The Lesson "Jesus feeding the multitude with two fishes and five loaves," is a reminder of the fact. The lesson was interestingly discussed Sunday by the several classes. Rev. Mr. Emanuel of the Mt. Moriah Circuit reviewed the lesson.

Rev. E. A. Adams preached Sunday morning from the latter clause of the 22 verse of the 17 chapter of Acts. "I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious."

The following outline marks of the Christian faith were presented, 1st—"A big task," 2—"Humility," 3—"Brotherly Sympathy," 4—"Sound Reasoning and Patience." Making it clear in careful terms that these are outstanding marks in every true Christian's life. A very interesting discourse.

Sunday at the usual hour, the League held its session which was well attended by the young people of the Church and splendid discussion on the lesson.

At the evening services the Pastor preached from Nehemiah 4th and latter clause of the 6th verse, "For the people had a mind to work." Pointing out the possible result when all are at work with their minds made up to do service.

We are thankful for the two persons who came forward and joined our ranks Sunday.

The Pastor announced Sunday morning that the Budget was over $200, short for the month and an appeal was made to the members and friends who responded very liberally making good the entire shortage except a small amount which will be brought up during the week.

The trip around the world was quite a success Monday night. The Pulpit Aid Board went "over the top." We appreciate very much the kindness of our friends to push forward the work of our church.

You are invited to look forward to St. Valentine evening at Bethel Feb. 15, by the Sunshine Club. Too much pleasure to miss it.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS.

Our Sunday School was largely attended on last Sunday, enthusiasm ran high, our finances were splendid indeed. Both Dr. Goodwin and School Marshall, James W. Hopkins were late in coming in owing to other denominational business, they had to attend. Pastor J. C. White relieved the situation by taking matters in hand. Mrs. Ella Bostic presided at the piano in the absence of Mrs. Hopkins.

11:30; the Pulpit was graced by Lic. J. T. Carter, and Dr. I. E. Lowery, South Carolina's venerable and matchless scribe. Dr. White took his text from Hebrews, 11:7, "By faith Noah being warned of God of things not yet seen, was moved with fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his house", from which he preached a most wonderful sermon.

The Fairwold girls together with the matron Mrs. Martin were out and the girls sang two inspiring jubilees to the delight of the big audience.

The pastor attended the Union meeting of the Gethsemane Association in the afternoon at Brookland

Baptist Church. A great many of the members followed him and the Jubilee Choir.

Our B. Y. P. U. met at six o'clock a large crowd was out, the principal address was delivered by Mr. Edward Lott, district head of the American Woodmen.

Judge C. J. Kimball of the municipal Court has been secured for the speaker for six o'clock Sunday afternoon coming. We invite the entire City out to hear Judge Kimball, his address promises to be of great interest.

The Rev. J. R. Parrott of Blackstock, the Pastor's old classmate, preached for us Sunday night using for his text: "Marvel not that I said unto thee, ye must be born again." Bro. William Anderson who lived on the 2200 block of Richland St. passed away suddenly Saturday night, his funeral sermon was preached at Zion last Tuesday afternoon by Pastor White, assisted by the Revs W. E. Farmer, D. D., and Lic. E. E. Cornwell.

JONES CHAPEL A. M. E. Z CHURCH

The Missionary Society will meet at Jones Chapel A. M. E. Z. Church Sunday, Feb. 7, at 4 P. M. Rev. N. S. Smith, pastor of Wesley M. E. Church will preach; the Choral Club of Sidney Park Church will sing.

MT. PILGRIM UNION.

The preachers and messengers of the various churches composing the Mt. Pilgrim Baptist Progressive Union assembled with Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Columbia, Rev. W. G. Gunter, Pastor.

After Sunday School, the Moderator Rev. G. W. Dimock called the Union to order by singing hymn No. 392, common meter. After singing the same, prayer was offered by Bro. Mack. The hour having arrived for the Missionary sermon, the Moderator announced the same. The appointee, Rev. L. Peay ascended the rostrum accompanied by Rev. J. C. Collier.

Rev. Collier lined hymn 480, C. M. After singing the same, Rev. Peay selected and read the 10th Chapter of St. Matthew as a lesson. Prayer was offered by Rev. Collier. Hymn 559, L. M. was lined, the same being sung. Rev. Peay came before the body, made some remarks and selected his text from John 1:42. Rev. Peay certainly preached a powerful sermon followed by a warm spiritual led by the Moderator. After a few remarks he started the collection with $1.00, the following gave $1.00: Rev. W. G. Gunter, Rev. A. Phillip, Rev. S. W. Jackson, Rev. A. Sanders, Rev. Hays, Deacon Whittaker, Bro. Palmer, Sister Boyce and Sister Davis. This collection amounted to $19.50. Benediction and recess for dinner.

After refreshing, the Union reassembled after devotional exercises, the Moderator announced that the hour had arrived for the Doctrinal sermon. Rev. A. Sanders being the appointee, ascended the pulpit accompanied by Revs. A. Phillip and Cokey. Hymn 422, C. M., was lined by Rev. Cokey. Prayer was offered by Rev. Phillip. Rev. A. Sanders preached the Doctrinal sermon from 2 Cor. 1:7. Did not our hearts burn within while he talked with us by the way? After which roll call of churches and delegates was made. The following churches contributed:

- Mt. Pilgrim, Killian $5.00
 - Mt. Olive, Columbia $5.00
 - Macedonia, Irmo $5.00
 - Jehovah, Columbia $5.00
- We thank the Union and the public for the sum of $67.16.
- Our next session will be held with the Macedonia Baptist Church, Irmo, Rev. S. W. Jackson, Pastor.
- Rev. G. W. Dimock, Moderator, Deacon Mays, Treasurer, Rev. S. W. Jackson, Clerk and Rep.

SIDNEY PARK C. M. E. CHURCH

Sunday School opened at the usual hour 10:30 by singing, "Holy, Holy." A splendid lesson was discussed by the teachers and pupils after which it was reviewed by the superintendent, the attendance was good, also the collection.

At eleven thirty a numerous crowd gathered to witness the splendid sermon preached by our own Rev. W. E. Farmer. His text was taken from Galatians, 5:1—"Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage." A spiritual wave swept through the church and held the audience spell-bound. After service collection was taken up which amounted greatly.

The Simpkins Entertainers (orchestra) entertained us with a wonderful program Sunday at 6 o'clock.

Mr. Willie Wilson, a student of Allen University, gave us a great lecture. Subject: "Realization." The Choral Club of this church also rendered several splendid selections. This program was enjoyed by all who witnessed it.

Rev. W. C. Wilson of this city preached for us Sunday night. His text was taken from the Prophet Daniel 4:14. "He cried aloud, and said thus, 'Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit; let the beasts get away from under it and the fowls from his branches.' This sermon aroused the audience and held them spell-bound during the sermon.

Services at the usual hour next Sunday. The public is invited to attend.

Interdenominational

Ministers Union Meets

There were thirteen of the preachers of Columbia, who were present at the meeting last Tuesday. The meeting was held in the cozy little business room of the First Calvary Baptist Church, of which the Rev. H. W. Long is the liberal hearted pastor. There was fire in the stove and the room was made comfortable.

The Rev. George T. Dillard is the Chaplain of the Union and he conducted the devotions. He sung and prayed then read several passages of Scripture bearing on the assurance of faith. He also made some remarks in explanation of these passages. His talk was edifying and inspiring to the ministers.

The Union elected the following as reporters: Rev. I. E. Lowery and Rev. A. E. Lomax. Rev. I. E. Lowery is to report the proceedings of the Union to The Palmetto Leader, and Rev. Lomax for The Recorder-Indicator. Rev. E. A. Adams is the president of the Union, and presides with grace and dignity.

The Union fixed Wednesday, Feb. 24 as the time for the installation of the officers. This exercise will take place at the Sidney Park C. M. E. Church, and the Rev. N. S. Smith will preach the installation sermon. Dr. I. D. Davis will be Master of Ceremonies. Dr. W. E. Farmer moved that supper be served by the ladies of the several churches and the motion was unanimously adopted.

Dr. D. H. Sims and Rr. H. W. Long addressed the Union after which the meeting adjourned with the benediction by Dr. I. D. Davis. The Union will meet next Tuesday at Calvary Church at 12 o'clock. Rev. I. E. Lowery, Reporter.

JUDGE C. J. KIMBALL TO SPEAK AT ZION

Judge C. J. Kimball of the Municipal Court of Columbia will deliver an address at Zion Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, 5:00 p. m., Feb. 7th. The public is cordially invited to hear this eminent jurist, the judge who metes out justice to white and black alike. One who believes in strict justice tempered with mercy.

Every colored man, woman, boy and girl should hear Judge Kimball Sunday afternoon at strictly 6:00 p. m.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

NEWBERRY, S. C.

Mrs. Ida Lake died January 26.

Mr. Gifford Pettis died January 26.

Peter Henderson, a well known farmer, died January 27.

Mrs. Tena Butler died January 28.

Mrs. Alice Baker, the wife of L. Baker, died January 28.

BEREAVEMENT

In a lonely graveyard Lies my dear loved one, Out of pain and sorrow, No more here to roam. He is resting sweetly, With his Savior dear, Listening, waiting patiently For me to join him there.

A dear friend, Hettie M. Frazier.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. C. H. Dannelly wishes to thank her many friends for the kindness shown and the many floral tributes during the illness and death of her mother, Mrs. Georgianna Salley.

CARD OF THANKS

I extend my most hearty thanks to my many in and out of the city friends for the many telegrams, letters and words of condolence and sympathy in respect of my devoted husband, David P. Gardner, who departed this life a few weeks ago. Also to the many friends who attended his funeral to pay their last tribute of respect to his memory. And for the many beautiful floral offerings, and to Revs. Long and White for the beautiful eulogy over his remains, also to Mr. William Hart, who touchingly sang a very appropriate solo. The Messrs. Johnson, Bradley and Morris for their very polite and unique service. Again thanking one and all. With best wishes I am respectfully yours,

Mrs. Carrie Keitt Gardner, Columbia, S. C.

RUFFIN, S. C.

Mr. Joe Harrison who has been sick for quite a while died Saturday morning.

His funeral was held at Buck Head Church, Rev. C. B. Brown, pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. F. Ackerman and Rev. I. Crosby.

The Church has lost one of her oldest members and officers. He was a faithful Steward and Leader. He leaves a few relatives and a host of friends to mourn his loss.
