equally with white American soldiers, to write an editorial calling upon his readers to send letters and telegrams to their Congressmen in Washington. "Everybody interested in this Bill should write at once, mentioning it by number, H. R. 9694. The opposition from the South will be determined and can be overcome only if colored people will now act to show that they want for their soldiers the recognition accorded to all soldiers who fought valiantly and well. There is no time to be lost. Write at once to your Congressmen and make your wishes known," said Congressman Fish.

MT. OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH

We are still fighting sin and asking christians of the State to remember our work and especially our faithful young pastor, Rev. D. G. Robinson, who has labored so hard for the up-building of Christ's Kingdom. Our Church is still growing.

On last Sunday we added to the Church, one for baptism and one for christian experience and Wednesday night April 21, seven were added by baptism.

Rev. Robinson has been with us one year, April 12, and has added to the Church, 52 souls for the kingdom of Christ. He bro't this little Church up from a low pit and is struggling to carry it on to God.

The Rev. Bougman Ross preached a wonderful sermon from St. John 3-3, subject: "New Birth."

Sunday was a memorable day at St. Paul. The pastor preached in the morning from the subject "The Widow's Mite." This being rally day we had no afternoon service or B. U. P. U. Sentence Commuted In Shadow of Chair

Guy Eadens, the colored youth who was sentenced to be electrocuted Friday, 23rd, did not die. His sentence was commuted to life imprisonment by Governor Thomas G. McLeod.

We appreciate the judicial clemency, and believe that it was justifiable considering the boy's youth and his non-committal of the offense.
