

New York News

New York is aglow with Southern people now. We see quite a number of teachers from the South attending Columbia University. They are quite a few teachers from South Carolina on their vacation and attending Columbia summer session.

Mrs. Etta Kline Brown entertained Miss Overstreet and others at her delightful apartment last Sunday on 7th Ave. Mrs. Brown really knows how to entertain, the young people report.

Prof. E. L. Gadson one of our South Carolina teachers was seen strutting Lenox Ave. You can always meet them either on Lenox or 7th Ave.

We have quite a few of our teachers stopping at the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A.

The city is terribly hot. I think the teachers will be glad when the session ends, so they can find a cool streak. Loads of them go to the beach each week-end. All teachers show very much interest and say they will prove better their work next term in their various fields.

The most successful Daily Vacation Bible school of Charleston closed on last Friday evening at Centenary M. E. church, with an enrollment of about 100. A delightful program was rendered by the children. They showed plainly that the five weeks of school was a deal of profit to them; showing a knowledge of the Bible that few of their elders are able to boast of. The Bible School faculty composed of the following: Mrs. M. E. Fields, Prin.; Misses Ellen Sanders, Beulah Shecut, Selma Deyoung, Julia McBeth, Mrs. S. J. Hickson and Mrs. R. L. Hickson, General Supt. and musical director. Misses Sydney and Catherine Maxwell, Miranda Hickson, Ruth Clark, Elizabeth Pedrew, Mary Perrin took turns at the instrument and furnished good music. Five different denominations were represented on roll. The exhibit of handwork was especially unique. Some made dresses, Malinda Hickson, Ruth Cook and Beatrice Lango made the Christian Flag. Other articles were rag rugs, shuck mats, Dennison wax work, pine needle baskets and paper novelties.

The State Sunday School Institute of the Methodist E. Church will meet in annual convention Sept. 4-6, in Charleston, at Centenary M. E. church. Plans are being laid for a great meeting here. Those who miss this meeting will have much to regret. Some of Methodism's greatest men will be sent down by the Board to instruct. Mrs. Susie Dart Butler and son left last Tuesday for Atlantic City where she goes to spend her vacation with her brother Lawyer John Dart. She will stop on her way up to the National meeting of Federation of Colored Women's Clubs in Washington, D. C.

Bilious Spells
DIZZINESS RELIEVED
'I suffered with severe bilious attacks that came on two or three times each month,' says Mr. J. P. Nevin, of Lawrenceburg, Ky.
'I would have dizziness and couldn't work. A neighbor told me of Theford's Black-Draught and I began its use. I never have found so much relief as it gave me. I would not be without it for anything.'
'It seemed to cleanse my whole system and made me feel like new. I would take a few doses—get rid of the bile and have my usual clear head, feel full of 'pep' and could do twice the work.'
Sold by all druggists. Try it. Get a package today. 25 cents.
