The weather being pleasant Sunday Surday School with many bright young faces, ready to listen to one of the lessons on the life of Christ. They were taught by prepared teachers about the temptation of Christ. The fact was brought out in the review of the less-on that as Christ had temtations we he did yield not to them, for the sin comes not with the tentation but with the yielding.

At the close of the Sunday School services, we had the usual prayer meeting which put all of the hearers in a mood of worship. At 11:00 A. we entered the morning service. The pastor used at the subject of his message, "Be of Good Cheer." The text which he used as a basis is found in John 16:33. The Paster, Rev. Youngblood, impressed his hearers with the fact that Christ wants us to be of good cheer regardle-s of conditions for He has given us the promise of His spirit which will abide with us-"For L-will

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

By way of appreciation for the beautiful sunlight Sunday the members and friends attended the services in large numbers begining with the Sunday School. A very interesting study of the Tesson was had with very encouraging remarks by Dr., Lawrence We delight to see increasing women and adults come in to the school room each Sunday.

At 11:15 Dr. Lawrence, introduced Rev. Peace, a student of the Theological Department of Allen University who delivered the gaspel message as the 42 division of the Psalms and at the 1st verse: Subject, "The Thirst for God." The sermon was appealing, satisfying and very much enjoyed.

The Christian Endeavor came in for a splendid program by the young people at 6:00 P. M. The program was very instructive and fargely attended. At 7:30 P. M. Dr. Lawrence deliyered the message to a splendid audience from St. John 1:46. Subject, "Come and See." Besteeling his hearers to behold the invitation and see Jesus for all that is good, noble and worthwhile in this life. A pana-cea for all our ills.

Among the visitors who worshipped with us Sunday morning were: Dr. D. K. Jenkins; Major and Mrs. G. W. Ford; his father and mother inlaw, of Ill.; Mr. Eugene Wethers, Washington, one Mrs. Pressley of the city, and Mrs. Lyles of Antioch Baptist Church. We assure them we ap preciated their presence and extend a most cordial invitation to return Sunday Feb. 1. "Go to Church, Sun-"Go to Church day," and hear Bishop R. C. Ransom at 11:15 A. M.. We pray that the blessings of God keep them in perfect health and peace n order that they might be in this world to labor much longer for the uplift of humanity.

The Alliance was much enlivened and encouraged at this first meeting of the year by the addition of five lew members in the persons of Mrs J. J. Starks, Mrs. M. M. Duckett Mrs. G. M. Miles, Mrs. S. S. Rice, and ars. C. S. Lawrence.

These good ladies made some very ncouraging remarks and were made welcome by the Alliance.

At the close of the busines part of he meeting there was a general greeting of each other, afterwhich a delicious salad course was served.

We are sorry to know we will soon have to part with our most efficient and useful assistant secretary. She on must soon leave for a new field of labor with her huband, the Rev. J. F. Page. We will lose Mrs. Page and her husband while Orangeburg will gain: We wish for her the same olessings as we did for our other effiient and energetic workers: God's holcest blessings.

The Women of Taylor Chapel A. M. E. Church has organized what is known as-a Women's Circle. - Our purpose is to help care for the sick and disable ones of the community, and help in the church where ever we ere needed.

During Christmas, we were able to make the hearts glad of several in the community by giving them pacgages containing fruits and a few, groceries so that they were able to prepare themselves something nourshing for Christmas. When the Wo. ien delivered the packages they ex claim, thank God! We were not bale to get anything for Christmas. Others said thank you all, it is the very hings I needed; I didn't have any thing and didn't know when I was go ing to get anything; I can't get thru thanking you. The members of the Circle was able to see more clearly he real purpose of giving on Christmas and who to give to. I feel that we have made one step to prgress in that besides the other work we have accomplished since we organized. Our last meeting was entertained by Mrs. Anna Thompson. We were re celved royally; the meeting was very lively. Mrs. Mattie Blocker and Mrs. Margaret Johnson made splendid talks in the meeting which all enloyed. Cake and wine was served in abundance.
