They are arging th support of their many friends That of Dr. E. A. Adams, Sout Carolina's state choice for hishop was extra good. The same is tru as to that of Dr. R. R. Wright, Jr I could mention many others as mong whom is Dr. T. J. Miles. In the case of the latter, is where one man sees different from a majority of the delegates of his state, an has acted accordingly. Now ther is a sentiment on the part of p feeble few in South Carolina, t curse and denounce as poors, in man who dares to think thought their gan conviction. If for an -reason you cannot see thru clea-lens, the confusion others see thru conced lens you are a "boot-licker", and a malucious talse wit ness. Back to Dr. Miles. If Dr. Miles, feels disposed to run for the bishopric without being the state standard bearer, is not he a full grown man, and privileged to do as he pleases? Winat has any man to abuse Dr. Miles for announcing his caudidacy for the bishopric? If Dr. Miles think he can poll enough votes to land him on the bench next May isn he at liberty to think for himself and act accordingly Our trouble in South Carolina is that we have some people here that so long as you agree with them in everything they undertake even to fighting bishops you are a prophet, priest and king. The Mecklenburg county Christ-ian Endeavor (white) sponsored a program, consisting of musical numbers, and addresses, at Jonnson C. Smith univ. (sity, Sunday afternoon at 1:00 p. m. Mr. Kinneth Scott, a stud m at Davidson college, spoke on "Contribution of the Negro Race to the Coristian Religion." Mr. James A. Gaulden, Jr. spoke on "Youth Braking the Race Barriers." The meeting was largely attended by both races. It is hoped, and believed that interracial meetings of the Christian youths, as was held, will proniots a better understanling between the rac st and will have a tendency to cause the races have a better attitude toward each other.
