VOL. XII—NO. 23.

COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA, SATURDAY, JULY 31, 1937.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS VOTE SEPARATION

The religious schools of the Pee Dee Association Florence County South Carolina seek a better opportunity to work for kingdom extension.

Following two resolutions, one read by Mrs. M.K. Howard, Darlington, S. C., President of the Woman's State Convention and the other by Dr. A.W. Hill, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, Florence, S. C., before the joint session of the Pee Dee Association and Sunday School Convention at Bennettsville, in November, 1936. A special meeting of all pastors superintendents, teachers, deacons and members was called at Trinity Baptist Church, Florence July 1st, 1937, to consider the advisability of separating the work of the Pee Dee Association from the Sunday School Convention. At present they are both presided by the Rev. W.F. Prince of Cheraw, S. C.

The meeting was featured with good will and tranquility. There were twenty-four pastors, besides the superintendents, teachers and deacons and members representing eighty-five Sunday Schools of the Pee Dee Association. Rev. A. W. Hill presided and Rev. W. A. Johnson acted as Secretary and Rev. A.J. Wright spoke from the subject, "What's the Matter With The Church?"

After Rev. Hill had stated the purpose of the meeting and everybody had freely discussed the matter including Rev. W.F. Prince who is now presiding over both the Sunday School Convention and Association; they voted unanimously to separate the Sunday School work from the Pee Dee Association, at the next session in Timonville in November, 1937. A committee was suggested on time and place for the session after the Association.

There were three things prominently seen in this meeting. First, the attitude of the Sunday schools which want a program to work on kingdom extension in the eighty-five Sunday Schools of this field. Second, that Morris College would become a greater beneficiary from the work of this convention. 3rd there was a fine spirit of unity and christian fellowship.

News In and Around New York

By Julia Braxton Clark.

New York, N. Y.—Hello Everybody! Vacation time is here. Lots of visitors in the city and many New Yorkers have gone elsewhere. There are many new or improved features in parks nearby to take the family on Sunday, therefore the city seems deserted when the holidays like Saturday and Sunday come.

The boats are carrying large crowds on both day and evening excursions. Most of the churches have had their outings.

The YMCA's moonlight sail last Friday evening was a success. They used the State of Delaware New York's popular excursions on boat.

The July edition of the Vanguard, New York's tri-annual directory publication of those of "color" who are in front came off the press Monday. The Palmetto Leader is listed among the outstanding publications because of its representation in New York City. Mr. Samuel L. Jackson is publisher.

LOCALS.

Dr. Channing H. Tobias worshipped at Williams Institutional C.M.E. Church, Rev. E.T. Woods, pastor; last Sunday. Dr. Tobias gave a short but clear description of the European war situation.

Dr. O.J. Champion was in the city accompanied by his sister and her two lovely girls. While here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H.H. Mays of the Dunbar apartments.

Rev. C.A. Chick of Virginia Union is in the city spending his vacation. While here Rev. Chick is studying at Columbia University.

Miss Ossie Ola Allen of Columbia, S.C., is spending her vacation in the city.

Miss Edith Weston, teacher at West her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Winger formerly of Columbia, S.C.

Rev. H. M. Taylor Formally Installed

The installation service at Mt. Olive Baptist church Sunday July 25th at which time the Rev. H. M. Taylor was formally installed as pastor by Rev. L. C. Jenkins of Union Baptist church, Columbia. Quite a number of his members accompanied him. Mrs. and Miss Taylor accompanied the pastor, also Deacon Davis and rendered splendid service. Mrs. and Miss Williams also accompanied ye scribe.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sharper and Nat Williams attended the convention at St. Philip.

Revival begins at Mt. Olive next Sunday night. Rev. Bookhart of Columbia will conduct the service.

Harold Easterling Reese Passes

New York, N. Y. (JBC)—Harold Easterling Reese, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Reese, 881-A Green Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., was buried Sunday from Siloam Presbyterian church, Brooklyn. Dr. George by Dr. James Adams, pastor of S. Starks, pastor officiated at the Concord Baptist church.

Mr. Reese was born at Bennettsville, S.C., Jan. 11, 1919. Died at Camp Smith, Peekskill, N.Y., while swimming. The death certificate states accidental drowning while swimming. Everything possible was done to revive the deceased—but with no avail.

Mr. Reese was an ambitious and progressive young man during his short span of life. He finished P.S. 25 and was a senior at Bushwick High. He had been voted a member of the Senate Council, an honor that is bestowed upon worthy students. He was also the leading track man of his school. Mr. Reese was active in the Siloam Presbyterian church, being a teacher of the Bible school.

He is survived by his parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reese, grandparent, Rev. W.R. Reese, Bennettsville, S.C.; one brother Thomas Miller, aunts Miss Hannah Easterling, Brooklyn, Mrs. Minnie Hatcher, Goldsboro, N.C. Mrs. William Reese; uncles John Easterling, Dr. Wm. L. Reese, Brooklyn. L.H. Woodward, mortician, Brooklyn conducted the funeral arrangements. Interment was at Cypress Hills cemetery, Brooklyn, N.Y.

GREAT FALLS NEWS

The Mount Zion Baptist church closed a successful meeting. Many visitors from Rock Hill and other adjoining towns were present to witness the wonderful preaching and singing.

Mrs. Lessie Gaines left Saturday afternoon for points North She plans to visit New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Washington before she returns. We hope for her a pleasant vacation.

Mrs. Cornelia Horsley and her husband and baby along with a number of friends stopped to visit her parents last Sunday afternoon.

Misses Bessie Tidwell, Emma Mae and little Bessie Lee Maloney are home after a stay in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Ben Thornwell died at his home last Friday noon. Great Falls has lost one of its best brick masons.

The former Miss Thelma McCollough was home visiting relatives and friends. She is now married and resides at her home in Greensboro, N. C.

Mr. Mack McCrory left for a stay in Washington where he will visit her daughter Mrs. Eliza Gladden.

See Mr. Lloyd Barnes for your paper each week.

HERE AND THERE

A HAPPY VACATION
Congaree, S. C., July 26—The family of Deacon P. J. Taylor were in reunion last week when the children came in from abroad. Mrs. Elizabeth Dozier, R.N., Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Alma Bowman, Mrs. Carrie B. James, Mrs. Amy Goodwin, all from Cincinnati, O. The hearts of the old folk were lifted and the old home rocked with new life. The normal calm was supplanted by frivolity and glamour. Many festivities were accorded them while here in Columbia and Dunbar lake. They returned Saturday, July 24.

Gadsden, S. C.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Holley was the scene of a gay party Saturday evening when Mr. J. P. Holley celebrated his 18th birthday. Quite a few friends from Columbia were at the party.

10:30 Friday, August 6 at Zion Pilgrim church grounds, bring a family basket.

Mr. James P. Davis, head field officer, soil conservation program will be the main speaker at 10:30.

Base ball in the afternoon. Get a truck and bring your community. Yours truly, Wayman Johnson.

Beauticians End Successful Meet

The third annual convention of the S. C. Colored Beauticians Convention was held in Charleston, July 20-21. Approximately 100 loyal women from all over the state met and made plans and demonstrations concerning the beautifying of the colored woman's hair. Through the courtesy of the Charleston Barber and Beauty Supply Company, three prizes were given first prize going to Mrs. A.E. Denley of Columbia; second and third going to Orangeburg and Charleston. Permanent and machineless waving were demonstrated by two white firms from Charleston and Charlotte, N. C.

Mrs. J.E. Breeland of Orangeburg is the efficient president of the Convention and, she is doing much for her race. The Convention will meet in Spartanburg next year.

Notes From The Kingstree District

I have just completed my third round on the above named district, and am about to begin the fourth and last for this Conference year. On May 1st I held the Quarterly Conference on the Indiantown Circuit. This is a very fine Circuit of three churches. Rev. E.P. Butler is the pastor of this Circuit. Rev. Butler is a splendid pastor and has his work well in hand. He is also a strong preacher endowed with evangelistic gifts. He is greatly loved by his people, and is doing splendid work. The Presiding Elder was paid in full, and a nice sum was raised for general claims.

Our next point was the Kingstree Circuit, with the Rev. S. M. Hughes. Here we had another splendid Conference. Pastor and people were in fine spirit. Rev. Hughes is a quiet and unassuming christian gentleman. A splendid pastor and preacher. He seems to be in the hearts of the people, and is doing splendid work. This charge is preparing to entertain the next session of the Palmetto Annual Conference. Two churches of very fine people make up this Circuit. The Presiding Elder was paid in full.

Our next point was Bulah Circuit. This is an excellent little Circuit. Composed of two churches of loyal and devoted church members, and pastored by the Rev. Silas Middleton. A very fine pastor and preacher. He is greatly loved by his people and has his work in hand. The Presiding Elder was paid in full plus.

From here we went to the Lake City Circuit. This Circuit is composed of four churches, and is pastored by the Rev. D.W. Washington. This Circuit is doing fairly well under existing circumstances. The pastor is handicapped, and cannot do his best for this reason. He has four churches, one of which is situated in the town and needs more attention than he is able to give. And at the same time take proper care of the other three. This charge has some splendid members and a good pastor.

Our next point was Johnsonville Circuit. This is as fine a Circuit as may be found anywhere. There are two churches here composed of very fine and loyal officers and members. Rev. S. Chisolm is pastor. Rev. Chisolm is a great preacher, a splendid organizer and a very fine pastor. He has his work well in hand. The Presiding Elder was paid in full.

From here we went to the Gapway Circuit. This Circuit has four churches and is pastored by the Rev. L.D. Gamble. The people of this charge are wonderfully blessed. Many of them own large farms and fine homes. They love their church and their pastor. Rev. Gamble is a strong preacher and a good pastor, and doing splendid work at this point.

The next point was Lanes Chapel Mission. This is a small point but has loyal and devoted membership. The Rev. J.S. Johnson, a lovable and splendid minister is pastor of this charge, and has his work well in hand. The Presiding Elder was paid in full.

From here we went to the Gourdine Circuit. This is the largest Circuit in the State. Four churches make up this circuit. Here may be found a loyal and loving people who love their church and their pastor and willingly follow his leadership. The Rev. R. A. Brown is the successful pastor. Rev. Brown is quiet and unassuming, yet strong and powerful. A great preacher and a very good pastor. The Presiding Elder was paid in full.

The next point was Bontreau Circuit. The Rev. P.M. Knox, pastor. This circuit has two churches, composed of very fine people, many of whom own large farms and good homes. Rev. Knox is a splendid preacher and a fine pastor. He has his work well in hand and is destined to do great work here. From here we went to St. Ste-

Mrs. Selena Jane Williams Laid to Rest At Seneca, S. C.

Seneca, S.C. (JBC)—Mrs. Selena Jane Williams, wife of the late Rev. Richard Williams passed away Friday July 9, at the age of seventy-two years, while visiting her son Roger Williams at Arlington, Va.

The funeral services were held July 14, at Ebenezer Baptist Baptist church, Seneca, S. C., Rev. J.W. Beeks officiated, assisted by Rev. J.H. Hicks.

Mrs. Williams life was filled she was a woman of noble character possessing a very pleasing personality. Her many contributions to the race stands foremost in the minds of her many friends. The sterling qualities that made up her life will live on as a memorial. Would to God that we will have many more such women.

The high esteem that was manifested by her many friends showed the sincerity of the many friendships that she had formed while living in South Carolina.

Mrs. Williams came to Atlantic City, some years ago to live with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Robinson. While living there she made many friends, being active in the Union Baptist Temple at Atlantic City. A beautiful life has ended, a vacant chair is left. A wonderful soul has departed, May God bless.

Surviving the deceased: A mother-in-law, Mrs. Rose Williams, (age 101 years); one brother, Archie Sloan, Seneca; three sons, James, Sylvester and Roger Williams, Washington, D.C.; three daughters Mrs. Bessie Kilpatrick of Detroit; Mrs. Rose Hamilton and Mrs. Catherine Robinson of Atlantic City, N.J.; grand-children Misses Jimmie Williams, Sylvester Roach and Edna Hamilton, James, Hazel and Harold Kilpatrick; daughters-in-law Mesdames Viola Sally and Marie Williams of Washington, D.C.; sons-in-law Feaster Hamilton and John E. Robinson of Atlantic City, Albert Fain, Washington, D.C.; and J.A. Roach, husband of the late Viola Roach of Columbia.

Out of town friends attending the funeral were: Dr. and Mrs. J.J. Starks, president of Benedict College; Mrs. Julia Johnson, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Lila Towns-Lee, Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Anne Johnson Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Daisy Roach and Mrs. Hattie Greene, Columbia. Mr. Dock Williams and Mrs. Bessie Blackwell, Newton, N.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson and Mrs. Cora Cunningham, Anderson, S.C.

Among a mound of beautiful flowers Mrs. Williams was laid to rest at Seneca, S.C.

Prof. Myers Offered Deanship in Kittrell

Prof. I.M.A. Myers, who was elected a faculty member in Allen University Tuesday, was offered the deanship of Kittrell College the day before Allen's election was held.

W.J. Cochran, former principal in Columbia public school system, has been elected President of Kittrell College and has gone to Kittrell to make arrangements for the opening of the college.

This is a small charge but better and more loyal members cannot be found anywhere. Rev. Willie Williams is the energetic and successful pastor of this charge. These people are in the act of remodeling the church. When finished, it will be a thing of beauty.

Our next visit was at the St. Peter Circuit. A finer charge than this is not to be found. In all my ministry I have never met a finer set of officers than compose the officary of this charge, nor a more loyal membership. There are two churches on the Circuit pastored by that dignified Prince of pastors the Rev. J.C. Murray, the organizer, preacher and financier. Rev. Murray has been here less than two years, yet under his leadership these people have built and furnished a fine six room parsonage. If he continues as he is going, he is destined to reach a high place in the church. The Presiding Elder was paid in full.

From here we went to Francis Brown Station. For many years this church was at a standstill, but under the pastorate of the Rev. Sampson Brown, it has taken on new life. The membership has

FACING FACTS AND THE FUTURE

By Eloise Miller

One of the district missionary conventions of the Piedmont conference is now history and others are soon to follow. It would be well if the missionary women of the A. M. E. church would just stop and face facts as they are and think about the future for a few moments. Our missionary conventions are losing ground and some of our local societies are almost gone. Now the question is who is to blame?

In our local societies the membership is poor. If their report is correct the largest charge of the district as only twenty-four members and the others even less; and come no societies at all. Now we should find the cause and remedy it. It seems like the time has come when we should let the Foreign fields alone awhile, and call our missionaries home, and turn our attention to the home fields—for a while at least. For this grand old church of ours is steadily losing ground. We should face the facts and ask ourselves what will the future be? We meet each year in the missionary conventions. We collect money for home and Foreign work. Each district tries hard to bring her assessment. Nothing much is said about membership. Each local society tries to see how few members it will report. These things should not be. If the heathen could hear our membership report, I am sure they would say "charity begins at home", or should begin at home. Or why be so concerned about us, when so many of your own are unsaved. The question that comes to mind is why does mission churches stay mission churches so long or cease to exist altogether? There is a cause. If we would stop and think long enough, we could remedy the cause. We should remember if we let the small churches die, the large ones will suffer too.

Each year the district elects a president, then make no provision for the president to travel over the district. It is like giving a child a toy, then putting it up out of its reach, so it cannot get it to play with. I said in the convention that the missionary president was only a target for criticism with a thankless task without pay which is true. She is given a salary, is expected to organize, and is assigned to a district. The truth is that the missionary president is a very busy woman. She is a saint, a woman of God, and a woman of prayer. She is a woman of faith, and a woman of love. She is a woman of courage, and a woman of strength. She is a woman of wisdom, and a woman of grace. She is a woman of power, and a woman of glory. She is a woman of honor, and a woman of respect. She is a woman of dignity, and a woman of pride. She is a woman of nobility, and a woman of distinction. She is a woman of excellence, and a woman of perfection. She is a woman of greatness, and a woman of majesty. She is a woman of glory, and a woman of honor. She is a woman of power, and a woman of strength. She is a woman of wisdom, and a woman of grace. She is a woman of love, and a woman of mercy. She is a woman of compassion, and a woman of kindness. She is a woman of gentleness, and a woman of meekness. She is a woman of patience, and a woman of self-control. She is a woman of peace, and a woman of harmony. She is a woman of joy, and a woman of gladness. She is a woman of hope, and a woman of faith. She is a woman of love, and a woman of mercy. She is a woman of compassion, and a woman of kindness. She is a woman of gentleness, and a woman of meekness. She is a woman of patience, and a woman of self-control. She is a woman of peace, and a woman of harmony. ## News in and Around Washington

By J. O. Hart.

Washington, D. C., July 25—For over six years the nine Scottsboro boys have lived in torment, and if their suffering could really be described, the word torment couldn't begin to give the idea of how they suffered. Well for the four that were freed it's supposed to be over, but I imagine it is like driving a nail in a board and drawing it out, the holes are still there.

Those boys served a sentence waiting on a fair trial. For the other five boys who have been sentenced, I hope that some way will be made to have them go free; because if the first charge called for death for all, then if one goes free it appears that all should go free. Well they are free and God bless them. May they live happy hereafter.

To the graduates of Allen University: Our school is going thru a crisis, and is very much in need of us. Regardless of where we go or what we say, Allen is our intellectual mother and we are her children. No one should care more for Allen than we do. So let's consider our school seriously.

Mrs. F.B. Glover of Sumter, S.C., spent last week-end with Miss Nettie G. Davis of 1303 Fla. Ave., N.W. She is going to spend the summer in various cities in the North. We wish for her a pleasant vacation.

Miss Elizabeth Parker formerly of Woodruff, S.C., has undergone an operation and now is better. We wish for her a continuance of health.

Mr. Walter J. Watson, formerly of Columbia, S.C., is leaving August 1st for his vacation. We wish for
