The house was called to order by the president, who opened with a short devotional exercise and then turned immediately to business Final plans were made concerning the "Whist Tournament" which is to be had on Monday nite, Augus 15. You are invited to come; the admission is 15c single; 25c couple We are sorry to mention - the death of one of our member's hus band, Mr. Rubin Walker, who dire Aug. 8 at 12 o'clock. His sickness and death, which a short period of time, certainly was a shock for everyone, but God knows best. We had two new joiners, Misset Ella Johnson and Minnie Ruff The roll was called and cach men ber responded with his weekly dues. Afterwards we adjourned to meet with Mrs. Pearl Martin or Pendleton St. A refreshing repas	Mr. J. Kennedy, August 23, 1221 Wheat street. After we dismissed one of the most alluring events of the season was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Ken nedy, which was a surprise birth night party in honor of our presi dent, who was ushered in by the men of the club where a table was beautifully set. An attractive birthday cake centered the table with two large candles on each end. As the lights came on the guests cheeted with roars of hap- py birthday greetings. The presi- tion was so surprised, he almost broke down in tcars. After listen- ing to a talk by him, he was seat ed by the host at the head of the table. Second selection Shine on Mg, by Miss Estella Western, Bi- ble verses were recited by all. 3rd selection Sometime I Feel like my Time Aint long, by the secretary, Mrs. Lillie Perry. The minutes were rad and approved on motion of Mr. J. W. Robinson, seconded by Mrh. Victoria Gleaton. Busi- ness was discussed including run- ning a bus to Taylor's Tovern, on Monday nite, Aug. 29th at 8 o'- clock. Come and go will as and have a good time. The foll was called and the members responded. The meeting closed with Mrs. Per- ry leading the closing selection; the president led the Miznab. The	to elect him as its chief execu- tive for the coring school term. The Smithonians wish him a a very successful administration The Smithonian Brotherhood of Columbia presented the Fordha- mite male chorus in recital on Monday night at the First Naza- reth Baptist church. The program consisted of selections by the cho- rus, quartet and soloists with rel- marks by the President Mrs A- mos M. Smith who gave in detail the purpose of the Smithonian Bro therhood. The club was highly honored by having Miss Nelsie A. Thompson of Gree as accompanist. Miss Thompson is well known in many parts for her musical ability and consented to serve us while visit- ing her brother who is director of the chorus. The chorus will be in recital a-	it pleasant for us. Though we had never met before I was made to feel as if I had known them all of my life. The philos, phy of life as exemplified in the words and actions of Rev. Barks lale and his quiet, dignifie., unassuming mate, left an indelible impression for good upon me. Our churche's need more such spirits. After spending a few delightful moments at this Godly home, we were whisked across the city to the home of our kin, Mr, and Mrs. Dave Lenhardt, where we found the madam and daughter Maggie preparing a delicious repast, tho' they were not expecting us. After enjoying an appetizing repast we began discussing this year and yester-years, about at this point a certain young. Doctor from out of town drove up in his nice car, and we saw little more of Maggie.
