ALLEN-MORRIS BROWN FOOTBALL GAME TO DRAW HUGE THROG

When the whistle blows, giving the signal for the kick-off in the Allen-Morris Brown football game Saturday at 2 o'clock, it is expected that thousands of spectators will be gathered at Hurl Athletic Field to see these two great teams exhibit their strategies for the first time during the 1940 season. Morris Brown comes to Columbia with an enviable grid iron reputation, which she in no wise intends to have blemished by her sister African Methodist Episcopal rival. For many years she has been in the top ranks among Southern Conference schools. In the mean time, Allen hasn't fared so badly in the conference to which she belongs. She was the most consistent winner of championships in the old South Atlantic Conference; and has occupied the first championship in the newly organized Southeastern Athletic Association. Allen's fortunes this year are in the hands of Thomas "Hooks" Nelson, former Allen star quarter back, and later assistant coach under Toney Swinton, who because of other duties deemed it advisable to relinquish the coaching post. Nelson has as his first assistant William "Buster" Lawson, also a former Allen star. Former coaches Toney Swinton and Herbert Baumgardner are assisting in an advisory capacity.

MISS HELEN PATTON BECOMES BRIDE OF DAVID BELTON JR. IN CANDLE LIGHT CEREMONY

Bristol, Tenn., Sept. 20—At eight o'clock Friday evening, September 20th, one of the loveliest weddings in the history of Bristol took place at the beautiful home of Rev. and Mrs. Giles Fortune when their daughter, Miss Helen Patton became the bride of David George Belton, Jr., of Winnsboro and Columbia, S. C. The Rev. Moses S. Belton of Oxford, N. C., officiated. Assisted by Rev. J. A. DeLaine of Summerton, S. C., brother-in-law of the groom.

Large white baskets of white gladioli and dahlias were arranged in the archway in the living room entwined with English ivy and flowering clematis. Lucy ferns formed a background and arranged on a long table were tall silver pronged candelabra, with burn ing cathedral candles. The living room was converted into a flower garden.

The bridal music was given by Miss Izetta H. Garrett, pianist; Mrs. Mildred Burley, soprano accompanied by Miss Katie Johnson of Nashville, Tenn. Mr. Kyle Rogers played two numbers "Leibestraum" and "Tramersel." Mrs. Burley sang "I Love You Truly," Carrie Jacobs Bond, "At Dawning," Cadman, and after the lighting of the torch she sang the "Lord's Prayer."

The radiant bride entered the living room on the arm of her father. She was exquisite in her wedding gown of white moire taffeta fashioned on princess lines the skirt having a long sweeping train. The bodice made in a jacket effect embroidered with sequins. She wore a bandeau of orange blossoms across her head. She carried a white satin prayer book, the ribbons entwined with swansonia and tube roses. Her only ornament was a diamond studded cross a gift of the groom. Miss Rose Jefferson, a lifelong friend of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a soldier blue taffeta dress fashioned on princess lines. She carried a bouquet of pink dahlias tied with blue tulle.

SUNNY SIDE SOCIAL CLUB

The Sunny Side Social club held its weekly meeting at the home of Mrs. Florence Wilson, 2416 Millwood Ave., on Tuesday evening, September 24. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mr. James Middleton. The devotion was conducted by the Chaplain, Mrs. Florence Wilson and carried out in its usual manner. The president took charge and the minutes were read and approved, the house was opened for business. After the business session the roll was called and everyone responded. We were very glad to have Miss Clara Belle Crawford visiting us. We are very sorry Mrs. Rowe was not present because of her illness. The club extends to her their heart felt sympathy and trust she will soon recover. We adjourned to meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ford, 2519 Marshall St. The hostess served a delicious supper.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Agnes B. Evans wishes to thank her many friends for the kindnesses shown and the beautiful flowers, while she was in the Good Samaritan-Waverly hospital.
