THE OLD GRAY

By Rev. E. Philip Ellis

Bishop and Mrs. J. S. Flipper South Cerolina was indeed proud to see it, great leader, Bishop Flipper, attending the trustee board meeting last week and also witnessed the commencement exercises of Allen University, He looked the very picture of health, and conducted the affairs with a master mind. Say what you will but the people of this state are really proud of their great leader. They delight in following him and do so willingly, and with glad hearts. Bishop Flipper gets the greatest results with no censuring and abusing men. His district stands at the head of the column where South Carolina is today Mrs. S. A. Flipper, his queenly ife, is truly a helpmate to her wife, is truly a helpmate to he husband. The call meeting for the women issued by Mrs. Flipper, was responded to from all sections in the state. The women are are loud in their praises of the address on the part of the Bishop's wife, and of the business trans-acted in that special called meet-

Allen's Commencement

The above occasion was one o the best held in the school for years. President S. R. Higgins is being highly commended on sides for the administration he is giving our school in Columbia. There seems to be perfect harmony between the president and faculty. The same is true as to the student body. All presiding elders of the state made great reports. We were not able to attend the trustee board meeting but heard of the great session. Truly there is a nice day for the A. M E. church in South Carolina, We heard that the entire faculty of the school was reelected by one single motion. That was a new thing under the sun, and spoke volums for the able president and his efficient staff of teachers. We did not hear the addresses of Drs. R. L. Lemon, L. D. Gamble, and son of Dr. J. W. Murph of Charleston, but we heard that they were among the best delivered upon those occasions.

Hon, Willard W. Allen

The above named person who i grand master of the Free and Accepted Masons of the Maryland jurisdiction, delivered one of the ing class of Allen University we have ever heard. He represents an insurance, mortgage loans, and 3 real estate company in Baltimore. His address at Allen ought to have been broadcast to every college in America where candidates for diplomas were to be advised and instructed. In this writer's opinion, his speech was the solution, if heeded, to the Negro problem, or I might say, the entire problem of America's people. I have known Mr. Allen as a high fraternal officer for many years, but unless you know him as an orator of the first magnnitude, you don't know him. His address has been the talk of Columbia and the state ever since. Dr. D. H. Stanton was one of the outstanding guests at Allen's commencement. He represents the American Bibe Society, and is one of the most able characters in our racial group. He white and colored. The doctor electrifies any gathering he stands before. When ever he enters a meeting it is announced by various applauses. Both Dr. Stanton and Hon. Allen subscribed to the Palmetto Leader.

Mr. Joseph A. Robertson
We are indebted to Mr. Robertson son for wis yearly subscription to the Palmetto Leader. He is manager of the Crescent Clean-ers Club, 191 Spring St., Charleston, which ig among the best in the state, white not excluded. It an inspiration to those of our ra-cial group to see the kind of plant owned and controlled by the above character. Don't miss this pressing club when you are in Charleston and want the best work done.

A. M. E. Conference

Annual conferences of the A M. E. church' to be held this fall together with ministers to preach special sermons were arranged by Bshop J. S. Flipper, D. D., and presiding elders during the commencement week at Allen University. The schedule is as follows: Palmetto conference, Ebenezer church, Charleston, October 16, Rev. D. N. Wilson, B. D. pastor, Annual sermon, Dr. I Missionary sermon, Dr. C. S. J. Molette; North-East conference, Mullins, October 23, Rev. G. H. White, A. B., pastor; Annual sermon, Dr. Lee A.
