WINSTON-SALEM EVANGELIST TO PREACH AT RIDGEWOOD TEN NIGHTS

News has reached Columbia that Rev. A. Clarke, an evangelist preacher will take charge of the Ridgewood A. M. E. church meeting for ten nights. He preaches similar to the late Sam Jones or Billy Sunday and hundreds of people for miles flock to hear this man of God.

People who have heard him or heard about him are wondering how the Pastor, the Rev. Bowman and his officers got such a preacher here in Columbia. The Ridgewood Methodist church is small and, after he gets started, the large crowds will doubtless push them to go to a larger church for accommodations.

Last year when the Rev. Mrs. Lewis conducted a meeting there, they were forced to leave and worship with the Ridgewood Baptist church. Rev. W. R. Bowman the pastor, announced last night that both St Paul Baptist and Ridgewood Baptist would open their doors, if occasion demands. A new choir will sing each night, leading of Monday night with the Usher Board from Ridgewood Baptist.

The meeting open Monday night July 21st.
