

WAVERLEY BRANCH LIBRARY

Again the Waverley Branch Library invites its young members of the Summer Reading Club to an outdoor party under the hickory nut trees, Thursday, September 11th, from 5 o'clock.

Those members who have read ten or more books will receive a certificate, which will state the exact number of books read and told intelligently by the child. This certificate is usually carried, very proudly, to the new teacher by its owner, the first day of school. We have had many such reports from teachers in past years, and, as a rule, those children show a marked difference in their school work the next year.

The Reading Club has been very successful this summer, especially

OUR RECENT VISIT

Thursday August 28th in company with the Rev. H. E. Andrews the splendid pastor and sweet gospel preacher of the Myrtle Beach charge we motored from Lynchburg school and A. C. E. L. convention. Here we found Dr. Wells the efficient and hospitable presiding elder and the loyal delegates of the district hard at work with the finance, getting everything out of the way for the splendidly arranged program dedicated particularly to the young people of the district.

During the first day's session several visitors were presented and made remarks. Among them were Bros. E. V. Gibbs, J. W. Lewis, R. L. McBride and the writer. We were all made to feel at home by this servant and members and friends of the convention.

Friday, Dr. H. D. Ramsey presiding elder of the Dillon district was presented and made very interesting remarks.

During the session the convention enjoyed gospel showers delivered by the following ministers: Rev. D. D. Doushette, G. D. Riggins, J. H. Bellamy and Dr. W. E. Richardson. It is noted that Dr. Wells looks out for his mission preachers by asking each member of the local church to give one penny and they tell me that he does this in both of his district meetings, by this means his mission preachers are made to feel good at these special meetings. Alright Dr. Wells that's a fine step forward.

Rev. James Davis and the loyal members and friends of Britton Neck deserve commendation for their fine entertainment. Rev. Davis is one of our most efficient ministers in the Northeast conference.

Respectfully, W. T. FELIX

On Monday night, the Rev. S. S. Burrough, who conducted this series of meetings, came and took it in charge. I am sure that this is one of the best meetings we have had in a number of years. It seems like every heart comes out prepared to fight against sin and Satan. Some, who for a long time, have been out in the field of ruin came and confessed Jesus. We have a nice number of converts and joiners. I am sure that during the fourth week the people of the
