

DR. JOHN F. MORELAND

The Rev. J. F. Moreland, the newly appointed pastor of Jones Chapel A. M. E. Zion church here is one of the strongest literacy pastor Columbia has had in many years. To say he will be welcome Ly Co.umbia citizens, exp. esses it mildly. Dr. Moreland nolds an A.B. degree from Livington college; B.D., from Hood seminary; S.T.M. from Eden Theo logical seminary, and will soon get his Ph. D., from the University of Chicago.

He has pastored in Scattle, Washington; Portland, Oregon; St. Louis, Mo.; was presiding elder several years and came to Columbia from Wilson, N. C., where the people are in arms for his return as their pastor. Though young, but he has been a member of every General conference since he has been preaching; been a member of the finance committee and Episcopal committee. He is the son of the late, Dr. Moreland, who once edited "The Star of Zion," his denomination paper. The Reverend Moreland will preach Sunday morning from the subject: "Boasting Some" and the subject of the evening message which will be at 6 p. m. "Paths For The New Year". A special representative for the "Leader" will be there Sunday morning and our news editor, Prof. W. R. Bow man, will have charge of the evening service. Prof. Bowman will also worship Sunday night with Dr. E. A. Davis, the popular pastor of Bethlehem Baptist church.
