

THE MULLINS NEWS
EBENEZER AME CHURCH
Rev. S. S. Bourroughs

Sunday was a fine day even though the rain was falling. The Sunday School attendance was very good. Our Supt., Mrs. Patty Hayes was at her post of duty. The Sunday School was called to order in the usual form by our Supt. with officers and teachers at their places. We had a thrilling discussion of the lesson by the classes. All persons tried to take an active part in the discussion. Our review was omitted, due to the lateness of the hour. Class No. 2 received the banner for the highest amount of money. This class is under the leadership of Mr. Frank Roper and Mrs. Mattie O. Ward. Everyone seems to want the banner. We shall see who is the lucky fellow next Sunday.

At about 11:15 the pastor ascended the rostrum with Rev. John Brunson as his associate. We had a spiritual devotion with prayer by Bro. N. Dorsey. The senior choir furnished the music with Mrs. Maggie Jackson at the piano. The Scripture was read by the pastor was 6 verses of the 6th chapter of Isaiah. Notices by Mr. Foxworth and Mr. J. Hodge with enlightenings by the pastor. Poor offering by the Junior ushers. Pastor steward came forward to lift our morning offering. If you haven't paid your heat dollar, please do so right away.

The pastor selected as his text St. Luke 19:42. If thou had known: He used as his theme "If I had known then what I know now." He labored with us for sometime and preached a noble sermon. Hearts were made to rejoice throughout the congregation as he throughout the congregation.

At 7:15 p.m. the pastor and about 11 others enjoyed a fine sermon. Prayer was offered by Rev. Burroughs and he used as his scripture 16 verses of the 107th Psalm. He talked to us from 108th Psalm 1st verse using as his subject: "Oh, God my heart is fixed. Even though we were few in number, we enjoyed our services."

Rev. R. J. Hampton, Pastor. At, Carmel—"Blessed are they that dwell in thy house, they will be still praising thee."

Sunday was a rainy cold day but this was our first preaching day after Annual Conference. A few of the faithful made their way to the house of prayer where God promised to meet two of three gathered together in His name.

We enjoyed a wonderful lesson from the subject "In Time of Trouble." I suppose that every person who has ever lived has experienced some trouble of some kind. God knows about the trouble and is ready to help. Our much beloved Pastor was present and received by the school and in his usual manner, made wonderful remarks and gave the review.

Services opened on time by singing "Father I Stretch My Hands To Thee." Prayer by Bro. McCombs. "What A Friend We Have in Jesus." Scripture was read from Psalms 119:21. The Pastor brought timely comments and remarks from the conference. The hymn was sung, "A Charge To Keep I Have." The message was taken from Psalm 137: "It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might bear thy stripes." Subject, "The Value of Hardships." A really noble sermon. CROSSING THE BAR
Sunset and evening Star,
And one clear call for me!
Say that you'll be no moaning at the bar,
When I go out to sea.
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
To fall for sound and foam!
When that which drew from out of the boundless deep,
Turn again home.
Twilight and evening bells,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness or farewell,
When I embark.
For though from out our bourne of Time and Place,
The tide may bear me far!
I hope to see my Pilot face to face,
When I have crossed the bar.

IN MEMORY

IN MEMORY
Mrs. Margaret Jones Addison—
In loving remembrance of my dear wife who passed away December 1, 1952.
Your gentle face and patient smile with sadness I recall
You had a kindly word for each and died beloved by all.

CROSSING THE BAR
Sunset and evening Star,
And one clear call for me!
Say that you'll be no moaning at the bar,
When I go out to sea.
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
To fall for sound and foam!
When that which drew from out of the boundless deep,
Turn again home.
Twilight and evening bells,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness or farewell,
When I embark.
For though from out our bourne of Time and Place,
The tide may bear me far!
I hope to see my Pilot face to face,
When I have crossed the bar.
—Alfred Tennyson.
Your loving husband
