

William Neilson, Gwen McEvans Win three Junior tennis Crowns

DURHAM, N.C. —At the close of the fourth day of action in the National Junior Tennis Tournament here last Saturday, William Neilson, of Hampton, Va., and Gwen McEvans, of Durham, N.C., walked away with a pair of junior champions.

Neilson teamed with Miss McEvans to win the mixed doubles after having defeated James Strout, also of Hampton, to win the boys' doubles of the 15 to 19 age group.

Neilson teamed with Miss McEvans to win the mixed doubles after having defeated James Strout, also of Hampton, to win the boys' doubles of the 15 to 19 age group.

Neilson teamed with Miss McEvans to win the mixed doubles after having defeated James Strout, also of Hampton, to win the boys' doubles of the 15 to 19 age group.

Neilson teamed with Miss McEvans to win the mixed doubles after having defeated James Strout, also of Hampton, to win the boys' doubles of the 15 to 19 age group.

Neilson teamed with Miss McEvans to win the mixed doubles after having defeated James Strout, also of Hampton, to win the boys' doubles of the 15 to 19 age group.

Neilson teamed with Miss McEvans to win the mixed doubles after having defeated James Strout, also of Hampton, to win the boys' doubles of the 15 to 19 age group.

Neilson teamed with Miss McEvans to win the mixed doubles after having defeated James Strout, also of Hampton, to win the boys' doubles of the 15 to 19 age group.

Neilson teamed with Miss McEvans to win the mixed doubles after having defeated James Strout, also of Hampton, to win the boys' doubles of the 15 to 19 age group.

Neilson teamed with Miss McEvans to win the mixed doubles after having defeated James Strout, also of Hampton, to win the boys' doubles of the 15 to 19 age group.

Neilson teamed with Miss McEvans to win the mixed doubles after having defeated James Strout, also of Hampton, to win the boys' doubles of the 15 to 19 age group.

Thompson Street Baptist Church

SPARTANBURG, S. C.
Rev. B. T. Sears, Minister

The Second Sunday Service found the Senior choir furnishing music. The pastor preached from the 4th chapter of Acts, 22nd vs. "The Miracle of Healing." The invitation was given, one came forward for restoration. Mrs. Emma Jean Drummond, Mrs. Gilliam presented the visitors, among them Mrs. Texana Lyles, who has been sick and living in New York; her son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Lyles from Beacon, N. Y.; Mrs. Susie McJemsey and daughter; The daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Tom W. McJemsey and many other visitors.

At 3:30 funeral services were held for Mr. James Elliott White of Cleveland, Ohio, who was killed Friday by a fall.

7 P. M. the church went to Boiling Spring at the Reidville Baptist Church to assist in the opening of their revival meeting. Rev. B. T. Sears is also the pastor.

Eulogistic Services of Mr. James Elliott White at Thompson Street Baptist Church.

Processional; Hymn, "Come Ye Disconsolate;" Scripture, Rev. W. L. Wilson; Prayer, Rev. J. Leon Pridgens; Remarks, Dea. Coleman Thacker; Obituary, Mrs. Mary Gilliam; Solo, Mrs. Ruth Nesbitt; Eulogy, Rev. B. T. Sears; Recessional.

Pall-Bearers: Mr. John Fester, Mr. Harrison Fester, Mr. Robert Wideman, Mr. W. M. Dogan, Mr. Lonnie Holloway, Mr. James Madison.

Flower Bearers: Mrs. Maggie Fester, Mrs. Willie Mae Smith, Mrs. Helen Black, Mrs. Lorena McClain, Mrs. Maggie Smith, Mrs. Ruth Smith.

Children Bearer: Brenda-Bowar Rosa Lee Anderson, Dorothy Smith, Sandra Cheatham.

Edisto District Conference Held

The Edisto District, South Carolina Conference Sunday School, and Christian Endeavor League Convention met with St. Luke A. M. E. Church of the Mt. Harr Circuit, July 31 and August 1.

Rt. Rev. I. H. Bonner, Presiding Bishop; Rev. R. I. Lemon, Presiding Elder; Rev. F. D. Burgess, Pastor; Mr. James Grant, District Superintendent of Sunday Schools; Theme song: "Rescue the Perishing." Devotionals, Revs. Herbert Blake, B. E. Hamilton and Ezekiel Holmes; Organization Miss Rosomae Scott, Secretary and Miss Mattie Jenkins, Assistant Secretary and Mr. Harold Wright and Carolyn Davis Ushers and Miss Carma Johnson, Miss Catherine Ashe, pianist, Mrs. R. R. I. Lemon chorister, Miss Bertha Mae Charles Reporter.

The Keynote Addresses on Juvenile Delinquency by Mr. Aaron Harvey. "The Home, Public School and Juvenile Delinquency," Rev. J. A. Sabb, Jr. A Model Sunday School was conducted by the Supt. and all of the pastors of the District were teachers.

The IV Lesson of the Greater Gideon: Combating Paganism. The offerings from the classes were good. Rev. F. B. Clarke's class reporting the argest offering. Introduction of visitors—Drs. B. H. Gray, Charleston District; J. B. Jennings Beaufort District; L. L. Farmer, Mt. Pleasant District; Revs. J. T. Hammett, W. T. Murray; Josh Gadsden.

St. Julian Heyward, N. A. Be-thea.

Noonday message was brought by the Rev. J. A. Jenkins, pastor at Trinity and Mt. Nebo. Text: Hebrews: 11:1—Subject "Faith in God," at the Conclusion of the sermon, The Lord's Prayer was chanted. The Bible drill on the Old Testament was directed by Rev. F. B. Clarke. All delegates familiarized themselves with the order of the Books.

The New Testament drill led by

Rev. Joseph Myers. "The Best methods of teaching them," Mrs. R. A. Leonard; "Primary—and best Method," Mrs. Ross L. Edwards. Also Miss Rosetta Richardson and Mrs. Elizabeth McCray took part. A period in Recreation by Miss Patricia Lemon and others.

At night, the Rev. John Baldwin brought the message, text St. Matt. 8:7. Subject: "The Followers of Jesus." At the close of the sermon, the Lord's Prayer was chanted. The pastor and his Local Talent made us welcome.

A drill—"History and organization of the A.M.E. Church," Rev. R. A. Leonard; "Rejoicing Youth for the Kingdom," Rev. F. O. Burgess, Dr. B. J. Glover, being ill of several months, we certainly missed his present at the Convention. He was not forgotten, for the P. E. ministers and delegates made up a small donation and sent it to him as a get-well token. "Is The Sunday School drifting back or standing still," Miss Florence Gilliard held that the Sunday School are growing.

Closing sermon, Rev. Brown. Miss Bertha Mae Clarke, Rpt.

ST. PAUL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. A. B. Bailey, Pastor

LEXINGTON —Sunday School began promptly at 10:00 with the Supt. and teachers at their posts. Prayer service for the morning was held with Deacon Arthur McCloud in charge. Ushers for the morning were Richard Thompson, Mr. Alonzo Keisler, and Mr. Harry Key. A report from delegates to the Sunday School Convention was made by Miss Sarah Richardson, and Mr. Robert Davis.

Members on the sick list are: Mrs. Amanda Bickley, Mrs. Martha Rawl, Miss Effie Mae Richardson, Mr. George Washington Mims, Mrs. Willie Ann Hall and Mrs. Blondell Green.

Robert Davis, Reporter

Property Sold Rents Collected

PHONE AL 2-8419
T. J. SULLIVAN, SR.
Real Estate Dealer
NOTARY PUBLIC

Let Me Handle Your Property — A Square Deal Guaranteed
1206 OAK ST. COLUMBIA 16, S. C.

FARROW HILLS

"One of the State's Finest Sub-Divisions"
HOMES $7500 AND UPWARD

Stone or Brick	Paved Streets
Panneled Family Rooms	City Water
Knotty Pine Cabinets	City Bus Service
Creamio Tile Baths	Shopping Center Nearby
Two or 3 Bedrooms	Near School
Disappearing Stairs	Fire Protection
Carports — Porches	Residential — Restrictions

F.H.A. and VA Approved

Out Farrow Road past Greenview toward State Park on State Highway 555. Watch for signs on left side of highway.

IF YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD YOU CAN PAY $100.00
DOWN AND MOVE IN

For Information:
Mr. James T. Swindler ALpine 2-1707
Lurie Foster ALpine 3-6703
or call ALpine 3-9826

Morris College

Sumter, South Carolina

Opens Its Fall Session On September 12, 1957
Enter Morris College to Learn
Depart to Serve

NEW STUDENTS ENTER ON SEPTEMBER 12
FORMER STUDENTS ENTER ON SEPTEMBER 16

Christian Environment, Competent Faculty

COURSES LEADING TO:

The Bachelor of Arts	The Bachelor of Science
The Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education
The Bachelor of Theology	The Bachelor of Divinity

Degrees, with majors in the Arts as listed below:

Biology	Chemistry
Elementary Education	French
History	Mathematics
Natural Sciences	Religious Education
Social Studies	