

Columbia Woman Joins Husband In Europe

NEW YORK — Mrs. Horace C. Grant, the former Miss Mary Louise Center of Columbia, S. C., cancelled her plans to attend the summer graduate school at Temple University in Philadelphia, Penn., to join her husband, Pfc. Horace C. Grant in Paris, France.

Mrs. Grant left the New York International Airport several weeks ago by way of TWA's Newest and most modern flight, "The Jetstream" which arrived in Paris in eleven hours.

Pfc. and Mrs. Grant will complete a belated honeymoon in Paris, Spain, Holland, Switzerland and Monaco, after which they will reside in Chatou, (Vienna) France until September 1958.

Mrs. Grant, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Center of Columbia, S. C., is a 1956 graduate of Benedict College in Columbia.

Pfc. Grant, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Armstead Cooper of Windsor, N. C., is a graduate of Maryland State College at Princess Anne, Md.

Prior to entering the U. S. Army, Pfc. Grant was a member of a real estate and insurance firm in New York City.

80 Report For A. U. Football

Eighty prospects from 10 states, including 18 lettermen, reported for football at Allen University last week.

The states represented were Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York, Connecticut and New Jersey.

Coach Golpin stated that it is too early in the season to comment on his new prospects, but that he does expect, with the addition of two new coaches to the existing staff of two, that he will better last year's record (7-1-1).

The additions to the staff are two former Allen greats, Miller D. Hunter and Thomas Adger. Both were coached by Golpin.

Hunter is serving in the capacity of backfield coach and Adger will assist Lafayette Long with the line.
